Mexican Chiapas

These large, smooth beans come from the PROISCH Cooperative in the southern part of Sierra Madre in Chiapas, Mexico.

This is a mellow, medium-bodied coffee with a soft, sweet flavor. Comfortable for any time of the day.

How to brew a great cup of coffee:

- Grind beans just before brewing.
- Measure one heaping tablespoon of grounds per cup of coffee.
- Use fresh, cold water for brewing.
- Store unused coffee in an opaque, airtight container away from heat, moisture, and sunlight to keep it fresh and flavorful.

This bag is compostable!

Remove the valve and tin tie from the bag, and dispose of the bag in a microbially active environment, such as your home compost.
