This is the epidemiological equivalent of a “fixed fight.” In boxing, for example, a superior fighter might be ordered to take a dive because the mobsters bet heavy on the long shot, anticipating a big pay day. But the superior fighter can’t just walk into the ring and fall over; he’s got to sell the appearance of a legitimate fight. Problems arise when the predetermined winner is so weak or unskilled that the better fighter has to “carry” the weaker fighter. That gets harder to sell. The stronger fighter’s head snapping back from impotent taps on the forehead are easily seen for what they are, even while the announcer, in on the fix, shouts hysterically about the mighty blows from the anemic fighter.

This is a fight between humanity and a weak virus with a pathetic jab. We are billions strong; the virus is a 100 nanometer weakling. But the mobsters—WHO, Gates, Pfizer, Moderna, Merck, WEF and assorted Globalists & Technocrats—have all bet on the virus and await their respective payoffs. The referee and the judges—Fauci, Cuomo, Newsome and the rest—are all in on the fix, scoring the fight as if it were a close nail-biter. The announcers—CNN, NY Times and the rest—are likewise in on the scam, screaming at the top of their lungs about how the puny little virus has humanity on the ropes and it’s only a matter of time before the virus drops the mighty opponent. In the audience are Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, Google and their assorted representatives, Zuckerberg, Dorsey, Wojcicki, Pichai; they have bought up all the good seats to make sure the rest of the audience can’t get so close as to see the event for the farce that it is.

But here’s the thing: no one really told us we’re supposed to take the dive. The commotion and messaging has subliminally planted that idea into the more easily suggestible among us, but they only need to snap out of their hypnosis. For the rest of us, our enemy isn’t the puny virus; we see who the enemy is, who we need to knock out.

Yes, David, very well expressed. Minds are being hypnotized, everything is coordinated and projected to instill fear, vaccinate even children and create weak minds and economic disaster that allow "the Fourth Industrial Revolution" and transhumanism to act it includes the expansion of genomics, nanotechnology and robotics and their penetration into the human body and brain. Of course, the fourth industrial revolution involves the layoffs of labor in growing sectors, to be replaced by automation. It is "stakeholder capitalism." It is the Great Reset "global governance, the convergence of corporations and states, and the digitization of government functions, including, with the use of 5G and predictive algorithms, real-time monitoring and surveillance of human behavior and systems.

How is this false pandemic affecting children and young people? The masks are frightening to children and predispose them to mental and physical illnesses, which will increase in the future. The card of altruism is being played strongly, suggesting that they give children a vaccine, saying that it is about protecting their grandparents who live together, who have a compromised immune system, when we know that children are asymptomatic. Only obese children who have "created" the agri-food industry with the approval of health agencies can have hospitalization problems. In addition, schools increase the use of toxic chemicals to combat COVID despite the impacts on the health of children. Young people will be the most affected by the economic crisis.

While there is a large orchestra represented by the corrupt elites who embrace the technocracy, where the WEF mobilizes the heated rhetoric of "economic equality", "fairness", "inclusion" and "a shared destiny", among other euphemisms. Together, such phrases represent the collectivist component of a false socialism that only pursues rule and tyranny over humanity.

hi Darzoum ~ in your "fight" analogy you suggest that there are two sides ~ the stronger "fighter" is Pharma bankrolled but its weakness is a dependency on DELUSIONAL BELIEFS that the majority WHO ARE TOO LAZY TO THINK allow themselves to be motivated by the carrot of LIES ~ the "weaker" fighter cannot prevail against the better prepared and consolidated Pharma array of accumulative blows but reassures themselves that Big Brother is the DADDY of all Brothers and so collectively become impotent by not registering the cumulative toll of blows as the overwhelming dominance of Pharma's information war against them ~ with the concept of "overreach" combined with unrestrained HUBRIS Pharma has successfully CONTROLLED the narrative and dominated the war with their superior fire power ~ the Masses are asleep and mentally indifferent to their OWN FATE ~ the psychology of submission to masochistic impulses makes the Masses SUCKERS for PUNISHMENT ~

this is an educational problem that relates to the constant acceptance of Pharma SADISM by the greater part of the population that has lost its way and delegated their Future to Pharma contempt ~ the dismissal of common rights and privileges for the Masses by Pharma is straight out of Charles Dicken's "yes sir, please punish me some more, I'm sure I deserve it" ~ this is the mangy dog with its collective tail between its legs taking all the punishment it can get and then calling for more ~ "yes sir, please hit me harder O Lord and Master" ~ this is the constant prayer of the propaganda addicts that believe the lies that the Pharma controlled communications media broadcast repetitively ~ the TV is the message that has complete control of the masochistic minds that view it

European governments are planning to track the number of people receiving Covid-19 vaccines. France will have a registry of people who get vaccinated and Spain will keep track of people who refuse to be vaccinated against COVID.

In Germany, Chancellor Angela Merkel's government is considering legislation to ensure that unvaccinated people are treated fairly as the economy begins to open up. "I've said it before and I repeat: the vaccine will not be mandatory." French President Emmanuel Macron said on Twitter. In Italy, politicians are concerned about public resistance and are debating whether vaccinations are mandatory for workers such as civil servants and medical personnel. Surveys have shown that a significant part of the population is suspicious of receiving the vaccine. Like most of Europe, Italy's official line is that getting vaccinated is a personal choice. But if voluntary acceptance remains low, "we will have to take some countermeasures," Deputy Health Minister Pierpaolo Sileri said Tuesday.

In an interview with La Sexta television on Monday, Health Minister Salvador Illa emphasized that vaccination would not be mandatory. "What will be done is a record, which will be shared with our European partners ... of those people whom it has been offered to them and they have just turned it down," he said. "It is not a document that will be made public and will be made with the utmost respect for data protection." DESPITE GOOD WORDS, THESE RECORDS WILL SURELY MEAN LOSS OF FREEDOM AND RIGHTS.

According to a recent survey, the number of Spanish citizens who have said that they will not receive the vaccine stands at 28%. The survey by the state-funded research institute CIS found that 40.5% of respondents are willing to receive the jab, while 16.2% would if it is shown to be "reliable." The government expects to have between 15 and 20 million people of its population of 47 million vaccinated against the virus in June.

A doctor from Boston, allergic to shellfish, had a severe allergic reaction after receiving the Moderna vaccine last Thursday. The New York Times, reported geriatric oncologist Hossein Sadrzadeh, who works at Boston Medical Center, suffered a severe reaction minutes after receiving Moderna's Covid-19 vaccine, in the first week where the company began distributing the dose on North American soil.

After the initial cases that accompanied the Pfizer injections, the CDC issued an advisory that the Pfizer and Moderna vaccines may not be appropriate for people with a history of anaphylaxis to the ingredients in either injection. Anaphylaxis, which usually occurs within minutes of exposure to a trigger substance, can affect breathing and cause sharp drops in blood pressure, which can be life-threatening.

Lyn Redwood, President of Children's Health Defense (CHD), "Anyone considering receiving the COVID vaccine from Pfizer or Moderna should ask their doctor for a blood test to rule out anti-PEG antibodies before receiving the vaccine." You doubt that PEG, a compound in the Pfizer and Moderna vaccines, may have triggered allergic reactions in the US Anaphylaxis is a serious and life-threatening allergic reaction.

According to research published in 2018, there are more than 1,000 products on the market, including pharmaceuticals, processed foods, cosmetics, and disinfectants, that contain PEG. PEG is also the main ingredient in antifreeze.v"Anyone who has had a colonoscopy, depending on what was used to set up the procedure, may have anti-PEG antibodies," Redwood said, because many of those products contain PEG. childrenshealthdefense.org/defender/fda-investigates-reactions-pfizer-.. I need to address a falsehood here! I'm hearing a lot of nonsense about how "overwhelmed" the hospitals/medical system is. Well; here's a FACT: There are many hospitals; depending upon the region/area that are often filled to capacity. I've been a 'patient' and I've also worked in a hospital. Years ago; when I was in with Salmonella, the doctors couldn't move me to a room upstairs, because they were all occupied! This has absolutely nothing to do with some phantom virus. People are sick and dying each and every day, from various causes. Humanity seriously needs to WAKE UP AND SMELL THE CONSPIRACIES!

Pro Wrestling is a scripted game, not just the largest player WWE. Scripted means that all that they have done or are going to do in a show is written beforehand in a paper by authors. The destiny of the wrestler whether he loses or he wins is in the hand of the booker and in WWE world the main booker pulling the strings behind the scenes is Vince McMahon. Sometimes victors are given the 'push' because WWE has transformed more into business, picking the ones that are the most loved or loyal and additionally somebody able to manipulate the masses into larger audiences mesmerized by their presence and performance and fueling the business model. The uncanny valley of impossibly realistic fake brawling is what's kept people mesmerized for decades.

The world of Covid-19 is also a scripted game. The actual virus just like wrestlers is quite real, but the manipulations of the testing and case counts is one way that has allowed the network of people pulling the strings behind the scenes to fuel their agendas forward. When that wasn't enough, in justifying the move to a new national lockdown, the leaders of the UK brought out a headline-grabbing finding: a new strain of Covid-19, possibly more virulent than the old. This strain, despite the paucity of scientific data, has been described as "up to 70 per cent more transmissible than the old variant," and it is this figure which has gripped the media and policymakers and now been documented in several European countries, as well as Canada, Japan, Australia and Lebanon, despite efforts to curb its spread through massive global disruptions in travel and movement. A new mutant strain of COVID-19 that has been dubbed "501.V2" has gotten completely out of control in South Africa, and authorities are telling us that it is an even bigger threat than the "Super COVID" that has been causing so much panic in the United Kingdom and that even young people are catching it a lot more easily. It's all part of the script of their agendas.

Ivermectin Studies: <https://ivmmeta.com/> 100% of the 28 studies to date report positive effects. Early treatment is more successful, with an estimated reduction of 87% in the effect (87% improvement) measured using a random effects meta-analysis, RR 0.13 [0.04-0.40]. Prophylactic use also shows high effectiveness. •100% of the 10 Randomized Controlled Trials (RCTs) report positive effects, with an estimated reduction of 74%, RR 0.26 [0.12-0.56]. •The probability that an ineffective treatment generated results as positive as the 28 studies to date is estimated to be 1 in 268 million ($p = 0.0000000037$).

Yes, again, the game is over, the 1% did not need to do a thing!! Over the past 30 to 35 years, we have acclimated every school-age child in every developed nation, to expect at least one vaccine when they go to the doctors. Isn't this attitude simply one end result of this ongoing policy? "Only a vaccine will save us"?? If you now say those vaccines were not really necessary, kids and young adults will think their parents were crazy for allowing all those shots over time...this carries serious belief overtones, bordering on religion of vaccination. This also means grown kids are pushing their parents, above age 45 to get a vaccine. Nevermind this is a virus that targets those over 80!! Hospitals are hotbeds for spreading covid, testing people with no symptoms and using way out of specification cycle rates for their rt-pcr testing - 94% false positives being spit out, therefore, everyone has it! Truly a farce with many different societal factors and habitual thinking combining at the same time. A perfect storm?

hi Darzoum you are wonderful. Thank you for all you write and your thoughtful responses. ~Re how to break through to people who don't "get it"? As one strategist said who I met by happenstance and good luck, who internationally trained writers/activists in how to be effective, one important way among others to create change, is to identify and rebut ideas and beliefs in peoples' heads. I think that time is more critical now than ever before. ~Great reset? I think we still need to prosecute for treason, and sue for undue emotional distress and economic ruin in the meantime. Please also see the 14th amendment quote, below.

~As for attributing the reset to a virus, one more thought to rebut. The truth is, it is the fear of the virus, not the virus itself, that is the core problem. That does NOT as black/white thinking goes, make us irresponsible, reckless or to say that we are advocating playing with fire. INstead, it means as the doctors opposing the lockdowns say, to shelter the elderly and medically vulnerable and let the rest of us who are strong and healthy, gain herd immunity. But the vaccine agenda does not want that to happen, and those profiteering from it, and from the online life/economy. Follow the money, and prosecute if you can't sue. It really is treason, the prosecution needs to happen.

~Thanks to Reiner Fuehlmich! Any others coming aboard with his class action lawsuit against the WHO? Please do. Wherever there is a problem, there must be a solution. I hope that the media will be sued like hell too, for driving this great destruction forward. It's unconstitutional, plain and simple, and we have to invoke that. Silence is the great enabler. "No state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any state deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws." 14th amendment

It is the surrender of the people who obey the promotion of vaccination. This year a dense propaganda is being carried out not only for the Covid, but also the flu vaccination. Media and traditional advertising style, has become the main element of each year's campaigns, a communication plan to combat social mistrust, to align people with the venom of the snake. In a letter to the editor of Frontiers in Public Health, RFK, Jr. and Brian Hooker describe how the author of a recent article used a technique called "multicollinearity" to falsely conclude that flu vaccines protect people from COVID. childrenshealthdefense.org/defender/retract-study-flu-vaccines-protect..

The propaganda also reaches parents to vaccinate their children, so as not to infect grandparents, when we know that the vast majority are asymptomatic and do not infect While the information document of the Advisory Committee on Vaccines and Related Biological Products on the Pfizer vaccine -BioNTech COVID-19 contains disturbing indications that could be a safety signal about the pathogenic preparation, especially in older adults. Before they are reviewed, there are fundamental problems with classifying serious adverse events that reflect the short-term thinking and cost outsourcing mindset of the vaccine safety science paradigm.

Maybe it's because medical front liners have the first hand experience of dealing with covid patients. Perhaps it's having to break their backs at work as wards overflow when the curve rises - or watching numerous people suffocate in their own mucous day after day. Then there are the makeshift morgues. Not a pretty site and pretty traumatizing as others sit at home. Medical front liners know better than anyone of the risks of vaccines. However, as in many decisions in life, they are forced to weigh two evils rather than pick door #1.

And sometimes that you are dealing with at least one person, or a group of people who would be classified in a certain group of anti-social personality disorders. I have had extensive experience with these people throughout my life - people who have lost their connection to their very souls (which is why they have zero conscience about any of this). I have dealt with puppet masters before, and you usually can't win, because they are prepared to do things that you would never countenance.

However, this also tells us the field upon which WE hold the advantage - the spiritual level of the game. If we take the game to this particular playing field, then we defeat them easily. I'm not talking about religion here, but our knowledge about who we really are (as opposed to who we have been told we are by authorities, religions etc.). If we can UNITE, hold our sovereignty and support and love each other despite all of the temporary and insignificant differences between us, then we can move beyond the vibration in which these folk can have ANY influence upon us. So, the real solution is actually one that few people might consider. We each need to grow our personal power. Fear brings us down in vibration and is the opposite of love - pathogens and toxins are of low vibration and cannot attach to a person unless they too match that vibration. Tesla knew what he was talking about when he spoke of energy, frequency and vibration. This is part of the solution, IMO, so I thought I would share this for any of those for whom this may resonate. Love to my Mercola friends, J

In the UK hospitals are starting to be overwhelmed again www.msn.com/en-za/news/other/covid-19-uk-hospitals-overwhelmed-some-tr.. Our NHS has been underfunded for years now, and we don't have enough nurses to treat people if Covid rates go up further. In the first wave, over 620 doctors, nurses and other health care workers died of Covid.

www.independent.co.uk/news/health/coronavirus-nhs-deaths-healthcare-wo.. I saw a television interview of a young widower whose pregnant wife contracted Covid while working as a nurse, leaving him to bring up their 2 year old and the baby she was carrying, who survived. Many of those who died were under 60, and some were young.

The SARS-COV-2 virus that causes Covid-19 is very infectious - much more so than flu (also flu is not a new disease, and we have vaccines to limit spread for those who choose to take them). One person with flu spreading it would lead to a total of 15 new cases by a month later. But without measures to limit the spread of Covid, you get exponential growth with each infected person infecting more than 2 people on average - resulting in 400 infections by a month later. This is what can overwhelm health services. There's a good image of the difference in this article. theconversation.com/coronavirus-is-growing-exponentially-heres-what-th..

More messages that spread fear in the population and propaganda to receive the vaccine ?. According to the scientific team that advises the British Government, this new strain has a greater transmission capacity (up to 70% more than the previous one) and that means that infections occur more quickly, but the variant does not produce more symptoms. severe disease or increased mortality. According to the British Government, up to 62% of the new infections registered in the British capital respond to the new variant, which has become the dominant one. This new variant is being introduced, for now weakly, throughout Europe despite restrictions on air flights and control of infected at airports. This is not the first new strain of concern for SARS-CoV-2 detected. In November, the Danish government ordered millions of minks to be euthanized after the detection of a variant of the coronavirus Viruses constantly mutate. British Government scientists have identified that there are 17 linked mutations in the genetic code of the virus that appear to make this newly discovered strain more infectious. According to the researchers, changes on the surface of the virus may allow it to attach to cells more easily. "However, there is still no evidence that the new virus is more or less dangerous in terms of its ability to cause disease." Unfortunately, we will have to wait and see if hospitalizations and deaths increase or decrease to find out, "he said. Simon Clarke, Associate Professor of Cellular Microbiology at the University of Reading. Vaccines are being tested for validity in this mutated virus.

how can there be a "new strain" when there was NEVER an "old strain" ~ you come to this site in order to educate TRUTHSEEKERS with Mainstream Propaganda and Lies ~ you think that the Lockdown / the masks/ constant alcohol spray/ and being forced to regard other human beings as possible disease threats ~ you are THICK and STUPI D you believe the bullshit that is destroying the economy of the planet and possibly billions of lives but you find the time to post on this site dedicated to the TRUTH in order to promote this Pharma inspired barrage of destructive commercially primed LIES ~ do you want everyone to be as STUPID as you are??

I live in the UK. The problem that is 'overwhelming' the hospitals is the testing. Everyone admitted into Hospital has a test regardless of the symptoms or the initial reason for the admission. So someone admitted with an injury (for example) will get tested. With a positive test result this person is then treated as if they have Covid. The prevalence of Covid in the uk population is currently reckoned to be somewhere between 0.1% and 1% and most of these true positives will have some symptoms associated with the disease even if mild. The PCR test (at best) has a 1% false positive rate. Where the prevalence of the disease in the catchment population is 1% then very approximately only half these covid positive tests will be true positives but where the prevalence is as low as 0.1% then approximately 9 in 10 of these admissions will be false positives. It is these (false) positives that then have to be treated as if they are infectious (requiring full PPE etc) and it is these patients that are likely 'overloading' the NHS (though the NHS for at least the last decade has been 'overloaded' at this time of the year anyway). And of course if these false positives die in hospital as a result of their non-covid injury or non-covid heart attack they will of course add to the misleading statistic of Hospital Covid death toll

Where are all the bodies buried? Are funeral parlors backed up? How many kids have died? Why are Walmarts and supercenters open no controlled shopping and small businesses closed or under government scrutiny? If transmission is extremely high, who do you know that has died? Why no talk about wellness protocols? For God's sake...the idiots started out telling people to use hand sanitizer while at the same time telling us it was airborne! Why no talk about increasing oxygen levels in buildings, using copper and designer paints, etc?

Again...why no talk about wellness protocols and known pathogen inhibitors?

Moderna is only 10 years old and as far as I can see was working on thoughts and prayers and now they are predicted to make billions within the next few months. Really! How many drugs have they had approved...? What was their top scientist paid? This is an engineered non-virus containing vaccine. Nothing real here. Can we sue for disease, disability or death? (NO) Why?

There is so very much wrong with this financial flu fiasco that a sane person can only conclude that this is designed to control the population, not cure anything. And in the states they are using race to fan the flames. Crazy!

The truth is that the CDC's monthly mortality reports did not distinguish from actual deaths from influenza, which are also often linked to deaths from pneumonia. William Briggs, a former professor at Cornell University, noted that last summer the CDC stopped counting deaths from flu and pneumonia. Most deaths occur in the elderly, most of those people have multiple underlying health problems, and the causes of death are usually the certifier's best guess. Most deaths are never autopsied, but even with an autopsy, it is often just an informed opinion as to what the cause of death was. The elderly, when they become frail, unfortunately die. It's just a fact of life, but it's embarrassing to attribute a non-actual cause of death in those cases. The length of stay of older adults residing in nursing homes at the end of life can be surprisingly short. A 2010 study found that the average life expectancy after admission was just 5 months

About the hospitals being overwhelmed, I don't know how to sort the wheat from the chafe. So I am not making statements, but instead, am asking questions as I write below. That said, earlier into this pandemic, just when the media was touting hospital overwhelm, I ran into a nurse working at the local big hospital, who said that at that time, the hospitals were so empty and unattended, that they were firing nurses and doctors because they could'nt afford to pay them all, given the sparse attendance. Was the media lying to us? And when the CDC said deaths were projected at 0.28%, the media said, fear, fear, fear.....Has the boy cried wolf?

Now, we get a surge....during the winter, when the doctors opposed to the lockdowns, are saying that the flu Always surges in wintertime. My question is: Are the hospitals overwhelmed as alleged, or is this media fear and sensationalism as before?

Now if the hospitals really are overwhelmed, the government has already proven to us that they have options, which apparently they are Choosing Not To Use. For example, NYC imported hospital ships to accommodate the alleged hospital overwhelm/overflow....and almost nobody came aboard! So if it really is true in the here and now, hard core and concrete, that there is hospital overwhelm, what is the pure purpose of trying to scare us all, without providing backup hospital campuses and hospital ships, and calling on retired doctors etc? This is just nonsense and I reject this as a game, but so funny I forgot to laugh, considering the gravity of matters at hand. I refer to the economic destruction, starvation, homelessness (There are tent villages coming up in the very affluent area I live in), suicides, as well as the very notion of using an illness to terrorize us all...without providing any solutions. And even saying that HCQ, supplements may not be used because they allege they are not proven....evil is afoot, wake up and smell it and take action! this is not okay.

Lizzie10, what is much more concerning than the information you present in your post, are your sources of information and your unquestioning acceptance of them. You must live amongst an exceptionally vulnerable sector of the population as there has been no corresponding crisis of any kind where I live and there are quite a high proportion of elderly residents here. Statistically there was a maximum of approximately 4000 extra deaths in the population from COVID-19 in 2020 up until October. For the last six years, the combined total deaths from influenza and pneumonia according to the Office for National Statistics figures ranges between 42,374 and 50,608 deaths, giving an average of 46,362. The total from COVID-19 (registered up to 5th September, 2020) is stated as 48,168. The total from pneumonia in the same period is listed as 14,013. The figures for deaths from influenza are not listed at all but presumably might be close to the average annual influenza death rate during the last six years of 27,909 - leaving a possible estimate of 4450 deaths from C-19 in that period.

So perhaps your sources have not taken these figures into account. We know that influenza can prove fatal for those with other serious conditions, can in rare cases affect even children and that viruses can mutate to different forms, which is one reason vaccines are not very effective. There will probably be increased deaths this year from cardiovascular disease, cancers and other diseases that can prove fatal without prompt treatment as there has been less care of sufferers in favour of corona virus suspected cases. My advice is to switch off television news, ignore social media and the sources you quoted for a month or two. But do tune in to Ivor Cummings on u-tube. You will find that the virus miraculously starts to shrink in its infectiousness and virulence. You might also find that there has been an epidemic of misinformation and hysteria during the last nine months.

Micuda, please see what I posted to Pie's thread that the CDC itself admitted, based on a FOIA, that they have no studies comparing the health of the vaccinated vs unvaccinated. Please also see the ACLU's statements about immunity passports, and consult a lawyer, showing this to them, perhaps it might offer some legal talking points? www.aclu.org/news/privacy-technology/coronavirus-immunity-passports-ar..

Coercion is a crime under criminal law. The fourteenth amendment forbids the States to make any law that infringes on our immunities and privileges. The fourth amendment protects from government over-reach. Invoke whatever laws are to our defense. I am not a lawyer but an educated layperson. I think if we all study the Bill of Rights and memorize it word for word, we can and should, even must, quote it with the authorities, not only to our own defense, but to the upholding, protecting and defending of the US Constitution. Have our soldiers died allegedly defending our freedoms, in vain? Ask the powers that be that question, and hold them responsible for their duty in office. If they refuse, then prosecute (Do not sue them where immune) in court, for criminal matters afoot! An idea whose time has come? Class action suits may be more effective than private ones, and may also break through the media blackout, advised a strategist who I met...but this was before the day of rampant and organized censorship as we have now. So? Post to blogs and become the media. Ask the grassroots to get involved and they will replace the media. We have to think creatively but with brainstorming, we can effect positive change. I am not a lawyer ,but a layperson offering my brainstorms. Please consult a lawyer about this or any other legal questions.

Read Aldous Huxley and George Orwell. Both British authors perfectly describe what these globalist billionaire psychopathic eugenicist fascists like Bill Gates and Co. have in store for humanity. In sum they want a pharmaco medical tyranny based on the same eugenism that was practised in Nazi Germany in the name of exterminating the "inferior races". Today naturally you cannot openly admit you are a fan of the screwed up Malthusian Darwinist fascist ideology put in practice by USA in the 20s and Germany in the 30s. So you hide it with the fight against Covid 19 or Agenda 21. You give it a green color. In hypocritical fascist Macron France, they intend introducing a forced vaccination passport.

Macron this crypto fascist even intended forbidding access to any public transport, arrest and force vaccination and no medical privacy. If you do not have your "passeport vert" (green passport), you lose all your human rights. In UK also ruled by fascist kibbutz Boris the Red Johnson Israeli citizen they named it by a totally 1984 name; "The Freedom Passport". So they think of us that indeed we are imbeciles that do not see clear to their totally fascistic agenda of running all the aspects of our lives, even our own body. We are dealing with the SAME EVIL BEASTS that existed in Germany in the 30s and USA in the 20s. No doubt about it. People like Margaret Sanger would approve. Strangely so would Jeffrey Epstein and these extremists in a certain Middle Eastern country. No it's not Iran. LOL

We are on the "Great Reset" path, most of humanity has become expendable. The elite had their side when they could exploit our work and enjoy the fruits of humanity's talent. At least a third of the jobs that humans now do are predicted to be replaced by software, robots and smart machines by 2025. History has given proof that humanity has been subjected to a regime that is seen as the spitting image of dystopian tyranny in George Orwell's prophetic novel, 1984, a fascist dictatorship organized under three sacred dictates: Ignorance is Strength. War is Peace and Freedom is Slavery We have the ignorance of people confused by the great network of lies and misinformation, starring a terrorist threat of a virus created and enslavement and control of humanity and domination of corrupt elites who subject the masses to a false freedom, promising them all kinds of benefits with minimal effort thanks to a growing technocracy. Transhumanism is served.

The following is only a small collection of the truth and facts regarding this alleged "crisis", for which, is all provable. For people for whom have doubts, or, are adamant that the main stream narrative is trustworthy, it would serve you well to turn OFF all of the propaganda channels for, at least, 2 to 3 weeks and rediscover one's inner conscious. Do remember that humans have been on this planet for 12 million years because of our immune system, our DNA, and the grace of our creator. 1) if one reads the original scientific white papers from China claiming the discovery of a "novel virus" (these papers were the foundation blocks for creating this "pandemic"), you should be able to discern that they are all rife with contradictions and unethical scientific methodology.

2) in review of "SARS-CoV-2" vaccine and test manufacturers data, the manufacturers have stated that they utilized between 185 and 76,047 available SARS-CoV-2 genome sequences from the GenBank and GISAID genetic databases. Under gold standard scientific protocols and ethics, there should only be 'one' isolated and purified sample. 3) much of the information is written using deceptive wordsmithing and semantics such as "in silico analysis" which means computer generated simulations based on how the software is pre-programmed.

4) note the difference in terminology - all tests, etc., are "qualitative" meaning theoretical, but, must be "quantitative" meaning confirmable, for which, none of the tests, etc., are. 5) test amplification is set at 45 cycles and then adjusted subjectively based on computer analysis. Margin for error is 94% & higher, after 25 cycles. 6) Human Chromosome 8 is one of the primers used for 'positive' testing. 7) for such an apparent "infectious virus", no need to acquire sample from so far up the nose unless it increases likelihood of obtaining live human cells & testing positive for Chromosome 8. 8) CDC & WHO state that "no isolated and purified SARS-CoV-2 sample is available

In addition to the above info, here are more truths and facts: 9) in medical terminology, "cases" are to only be used to identify subjects that are experiencing symptoms of disease and ARE NOT to include 'asymptomatic' subjects. Including asymptomatic cases, for which, make up, at least, 85% of reported "cases", is unethical and fraudulent. 10) hospitals normally run near capacity, but, also employ "social distancing" policy, thus greatly reduced available beds and staff. All of them have designated a small number of beds as "COVID" beds. Many alleged hospital "COVID" cases are anxiety cases.

10) of the 195 countries recognized on this planet, 193 are currently taking their health directives from the WHO. 11) in 1994, the UN & WHO made a number of very important authoritative changes, for which, most countries adopted and included them in their own rewriting of their Health Acts. In essence, the changes gave unfettered power to the WHO that suspends constitutional rights of any sanctioned countries whenever the WHO declares a "health crisis". 12) the WHO has, over time, changed the definition of certain terms, such as, "pandemic", in 2003 just prior to the H1N1 swine flu pandemic. The WHO removed the most important criteria for declaring a pandemic - that being a spike in overall death rate from all causes.

13) the WHO Director-General, Tedros, is affiliated with a radical Marxist-Leninist organization called Tigray People's Liberation Front party, & is in the Global Terrorism Database.

www.breitbart.com/politics/2020/04/10/5-shocking-facts-about-who-chief.. 14) The WHO was the creation of the Rockefeller's and it's main funding today comes from Bill Gates and China. 15) The "medical tyranny" makes for an environment of gross and unfettered theft, corruption, lawlessness and murder, at the hands of the international banking cartels, big tech, big pharma, media, Gates, Rockefeller's, politicians, China, etc

More good info. Regarding 10) hospitals and staff. I never watch the tv news, but in September of this year, i caught an ad on the car radio which was a response by the provincial nurses association /union, expressing their sense of betrayal, to the provincial government announcing more nurse layoffs. I looked into it and apparently many governments have been laying off nurses since 2019.. and even this "crisis" didn't slow their roll in 2020. Could explain some overworked, negative nurses.

Yes, this is the set-up, each agency or group involved has made serious errors, yet been retracted. The WHO website is apparently where the pcr tests set for 45 cycle amplifications came from - someone on Bitchute made a similiar video summary, showing actual web pages that led to a confluence of errors leading up to 2nd and 3rd lockdowns that don't accomplish any presumed goal however, contain a lot of destructive forces. Each new misstep is on the back of earlier missteps, starting with the early Imperial College 10x overstatement...not the normal garden path, more like the path to hell being paved with good intentions. "When polls said only about half of all Americans would take a vaccine, I was saying herd immunity would take 70 to 75 percent," Fauci, who turned 80 on Thursday, told the Times. "Then, when newer surveys said 60 percent or more would take it, I thought, 'I can nudge this up a bit,' so I went to 80, 85."

I wonder why.... yes, pie, you are right..... in fact, the leaders in the whole world, with few exceptions, have decided their people have to go.....to "neverland"; like in Orwell, our leaders today ARE THE PIGS..... and he used a very mild term! and we are the stupid sheep! we, the many!

Yes, AureliaOana, very well described as in George Orwell's book entitled "The Animal Farm", we can attribute that "our leaders today ARE THE PIGS...". We slide down the slope of complacency in our various societies, where professional morality about current social, political and economic choices is not based on the needs of the whole, but on the benefit of a few, comparable these developments with the Farm of George Orwell's animals.

As on the animal farm, we see in society how leaders of previously harmonious organizations, companies and nations are arguing and sharing power. While humanity goes hungry and misery, suffering, slavery and death. We live in a world where hypocrisy has become the norm. Dishonesty among our leaders is more a rule than an exception. The manor farm is well represented by the Great Reset, by the globalist elite, while the rest of society resulting in permanent restrictions on fundamental freedoms and mass surveillance as entire sectors are sacrificed to push for monopoly and hegemony of the pharmaceutical corporations, the high tech / big data giants, Amazon, Google, major global chains, the digital payments sector, biotech concerns, etc. The absolute tyranny.

Another HUGE issue, which I don't believe has been mentioned here in relation to this whole Covid saga is the issue of radiation sickness and the 'upgrade' of the EMF spectrum to 5G. If you look at ground zero for the virus - Wuhan - this was the first place in the world where they turned on 5G. I've seen videos and photos of people who literally fell down in the street. The other interesting 'coincidence' is that, certainly where I'm from, a large amount of the Covid arrived in our country via cruise ships. I actually checked into these cruise ships and ALL had been fitted out with 5G technologies.

Covid has been used to progress the 5G agenda, with 5G roll outs being considered as part of "essential services" throughout lock downs. 5G is being switched on all over the world, but has been banned in areas where the big organisations lie - such as Brussels etc. 5G can result in the oxygen levels in our bodies being lowered; it can open up the BBB (blood brain barrier), activate dormant viruses and likely assist any virus to mutate, among many other effects. So, my intuition tells me that the Covid agenda COULD be being used to attempt to cover up the effects of radiation sickness.

Your body will apparently cope for around 6 months before you may feel the effects, unless you are particularly sensitive. So, I think this is an issue that maybe has not received enough attention - after all, if you look at the history of all of the major 'pandemics' since (and including) the Spanish 'flu' (when most people actually died from bacterial pneumonia, likely due to wearing masks) - ALL of these coincided with increases in the electrification of the planet. So, here we are increasing the electro-magnetism again, and here comes another pandemic. We are electromagnetic beings and we are currently in a consciousness ascension cycle - this is actually the reason for the rush on the part of our opponents, IMO. Please protect yourselves accordingly, I intend to.

Information is all over the boards, so who do we believe? Flapping gums or numbers? As I have stated, even using the government's own mortality numbers (335,208 as of 12/29/2020), with a US population of approximately 331,000,000, that equals a 0.101271299094% mortality rate; less than 1% without the use of any vaccine. It just goes to show how flapping gums, err propaganda, is more powerful than education and simple math skills in the US.

Har1272, where are you getting your mortality numbers from? I am having a hard time finding them from a reputable site. I need solid facts to share with my school teacher daughter to convince her not to get vaccinated.

xartman59, do you believe the CDC's data on deaths? According to the CDC, the total number of people under the age of 18 that have died from Covid-19 is 142. For that same age group 124 people died from the FLU and 436 died from pneumonia!! So more people under the age of 18 died from pneumonia and flu than Covid-19, but no schools are being closed for the flu or pneumonia.

data.cdc.gov/NCHS/Provisional-COVID-19-Death-Counts-by-Sex-Age-and-S/9.. Here's California's own CDC statistics: www.cdph.ca.gov/Programs/CID/DCDC/Pages/COVID-19/COVID-19-Cases-by-Age.. Notice that school aged children (age 5 to 17) account for less than 10% of total Covid-19 cases! So, of the 2,187,221+ Covid-19 cases in CA only 213,329 cases are school aged and WHOPPING 4 people have died! Using the CA CDC's chart you have a ZERO percent chances of dying from Covid-19 if you are under the age of 18. If you actually crunch the numbers you have 0.0019% chance of dying from Covid-19 if you're under 18. Just look at the CDC's data for yourself.

Yes, people prefer to wait for a savior instead of very easily saving themselves. It is sad. And this is not only true for the Covid situation, but in general.

I think it's because many people hold a core belief, which needs to be addressed, that supplements and herbs just "are not strong enough". they think it's all about "healthy food, healthy supplements" but don't know that there is an actual pharmacology to them. If they knew the pharmacology, and the studies, they may think differently. Education is key. Be sure to quote studies that are well designed, on large numbers of people and/or animals but preferably people, that were done for the longterm not truncated (as BigPharma's studies sometimes strategically are), and make sure that they have placebos and controls, to compare the results.

Zen, I have a good memory. We were told in Elementary and Junior High School (I'm 54) that the only way to cure a health problem is through MEDICATION and they discredited supplements as a means of improving health. The way to create a system that feeds itself you must BRAINWASH the children in grade school. No one could brainwash me. I'm a none believer in anything HUMAN. As soon as you disconnect yourself from the human factor and apply the "7 step Scientific Method" of problem solving, you realize how brainwashed and zombieified the entire population is. You have to grab the bull by the horns and WALK AWAY from the medical system! It is profit driven. They only make money if you are sick.

I can tell this...if there was a real pandemic, would we see society is not changing its habits of shopping, driving and doing things people do every day ? For sure yes.. But since it is A FAKE "pandemic" orchestrated as a big money-making-scheme criminal pharmaceutical cartels, it does not affect people lives at all. Because if it was for real, nobody would be driving as usual, you wouldn't as many people outside as are today despite "lockdowns"...etc. These fantastic illusional fake numbers of "infected" are obvious lies. People are beginning to understand how the world was fooled and still is being fooled. Where I live(not in North America) there is a so called third "lockdown", which is not really a "lockdown". No enforcing. No police as was during the first "lockdown". The truth is being slowly exposed. BUT still there are hundreds of thousands naive fools who are rushing to get their vaccine. That's the power of the media - the more these idiots watch TV the more they are convinced they should get the vaccine. How many fools there are in the world I'm wondering ??? 30% ? 40% ??? or 70% ???

Their true goal was to cause a global depression which we are beginning to see the effects of from job losses and increased costs. Spiro Skouras interviewed Dr. Pam Popper who is filing a lawsuit against her state for the state of emergency based on false information i.e. the test which turns up many false positives. Rather than defying the rules and risking fines, we would be better off putting our money toward filing lawsuits against those in control. If we don't do something soon, masses of people will be without food and shelter.

Sheftall and Cummins according to this article are looking at the anticipation of the Future in terms of those that benefit as a form of "SALIVATION" ~ what strikes me is that Pavlov in his famous experiments with dogs could also get them to salivate by associating the presence of food with the ringing of a bell ~ but in their model the ringing of the bell has been substituted by a campaign of fictitious propaganda that the VICTIMS/ consumers then relate to MASS FEAR and the rush forward to be permanently assaulted and damaged by a hypodermic filled with poisonous substances that the salivators refer to as vaccination ~ the injection is a Pharma commodity that translates into dollars which Cummins says is the motivator for Pharma SALIVATION ~ what Pavlov proved is that CONDITIONED RESPONSES can easily be predictably asserted with the right propaganda ~

the short term capitalization of the profit motive drives the Pharma involuntary DROOLING activity of the crazed money grubbers that have dedicated their talents and motives to the SUCKERING of Mankind by selling SUCKERS poison that is packaged to hoodwink the consumers to offer to be maimed and assaulted for the sake of Pharma profit ~ something smells rotten here but the conveyor belt of constant victimhood continues to gain acceleration ~ the salivators are salivating and rubbing their collective hands in glee for the coming riches ~ meanwhile the suckers are treated like the CAFOS that they have chosen to become ~ the Food Chain is being broken and the supply chain is now solely vaccination ~ this is the MADHOUSE we live in ~ humans do not need food all they need is hundreds of poisonous vaccinations

Yes, Stan, vaccines have priority, it is the gold rush, it is the terrible poison that will serve to promote more diseases and make BigPharma richer and its philanthro-capitalist promoters such as Bill Gates and the regulatory bodies that promote their poisons in the well-paid media. Schwab's Covid-19 book "The Great Reset", defending capitalist interests says that global food security will only be achieved if regulations on genetically modified foods as a precise, efficient and safe method to improve crops. In response, Shiva arguing that WEF is flaunting bogus science 'and' that Mr. Schwab promotes these technologies as solutions shows that The Great Reset is about maintaining and empowering a corporate extraction machine and the private property of life ' .

The Great Restoration wants to control planetary life as much as possible and food is part of the strategy of dominance and slavery that is intended to continue the green revolution. The EAT Forum aims to replace healthy nutritious foods with genetically modified laboratory creations. Shiva observes that "the diet proposed by EAT is not about nutrition at all, it is about big business and it is about a corporate takeover of the food system." If we want to feed humanity, diets must focus on regional and geographic biodiversity and promote peasant agriculture.

The purpose is to empower the corrupt capitalist elite and for this the globalist technocracy is using the false pandemic to evade democratic responsibility, annul the opposition, accelerate its agenda and impose it on humanity. Whitney Webb, in her article "US and UK Intel Agencies Declare Cyber War on Independent Media" has also written extensively on aspects of the Great Resettlement coup and in this article highlights the dangers associated with the vaccination and efforts to silence critics. Capitalism, is by no means the culprit here. Capitalism, pure capitalism, is the success story of the of the modern world, BEFORE, government sponsored, government protected, government insured and government funded....capitalism (has) arrived. Gui, democracy fails, democratic anything fails...history teaches us. Capitalism turns into something 'democratic' through government taking (taxes--confiscation and redistribution of others 'capital' and regulations) and redistribution, leading to groups of entitled victims, all screaming for 'more and more' of the capitalist capital. The capitalist is forced to oblige to keep producing and the government continues to up the anti as 'payments for favor' increase until government has secured the end product--total control of the business and its 'product use'.

Microsoft/Gates; Facebook, Twitter/transzuckerburg and so on. Big gov't protected pharma, big agri, all that stuff is gov't protected--against the little guy trying to crawl up against unsurmountable odds. Make no mistake, the small start up business are NOT what the US gov't wants NO MATTER HOW MANY TIMES THEY CLAIM 'THIS IS THE BACKBONE OF AMERICA'. they want CONTROL AND this is what they have with corporate/government so called 'capitalism' which is total bs. Capitalism produces downward pricing on cash only medical clinics and cheaper and cheaper plastic surgery in this country (US) for example. These business are NOT government funded and are evidence of true(r) capitalism. No matter where in the world you go you will find Bayer, nestle, GE, Coke, Pepsi. why? because its easy to control their tax debt. restaurants generally are known to run two sets of books. gov't solution shut them down. welcome covid. Small business tend to run on cash, barter and so forth to say alive while overcoming all (gov't) obstacles to success, can't get taxed on that kind of behavior, welcome covid! Lets began to acknowledge that capitalism is NOT the enemy!

I have been a Nurse Practitioner for 31 years and this is the first time I have witnessed the silencing of medical opinions that differ. Big names who have dared to present evidence that calls into question the WHO. It is shocking. Despite closing California, the virus grows out at least the number of tests. In our CCU we have seen an uptick in hepatorenal failure. One of the consequences of isolation. They increase their drinking. Mortality data for 2020 is also very interesting. Mark save lives, is crap. All of the efficacy studies for masks are being suppressed.

Sadly, this demonstrates our health care disarray. We are so focused on treating the illness, instead to supporting health. We do multiple peripheral vascular interventions on people who continue to smoke. We bypass smokers. We do repeat valve surgery on IV drug abusers. Sad state of affairs. NASH is our next crisis, no meds are going to help that either. Dietary driven issue. What we eat affects our life and health.

I've come a little late to this discussion, and have read many of the excellent comments. I am glad to see that many issues, for example, PEG antibodies and so forth have already been elaborated upon by the wonderful Gui, and others. So, my intention is to only mention a few issues that do not appear to have been covered here.

First of all, there were 2 studies that came out of Denmark (a fabulous place for studies as they have excellent medical data on their entire population) - both of which have been suppressed, so not sure if you can even find links etc., but I'll mention them anyway for your consideration. The first was a very early study on the effectiveness of masks, which HAS been mentioned, and it found them to be largely ineffective. In fact, on the box of some of these masks, many of them even state that they will not protect you! Another study they did in the older generation (either 70 plus or 80 plus, can't remember). It showed an extremely high correlation between deaths in the elderly from supposed Covid-19 and whether or not those people had taken last year's annual 'flu' shot. This study showed around an 80% correlation between those who had taken this shot and those who subsequently passed due to Covid. The other matter I will mention shortly in a subsequent post as I think it requires its own post.

jamNjim or is it Laura Ingraham...your reply is very narrow! There are many aspects (most) of COVID-19 that you do not appear to be aware of! My point is, yes, schools do stay open during flu season... > > > BUT THERE IS AN annual vaccine! There is not enough room on this format to explain the impact, up & down the entire scale of society that are impacted from the COVID-19 Pandemic & we are only at the beginning of a long haul dealing with COVID-19 and that we are just still learning about it, including the new UK Variant B.1.1.7

I hate to say it, but we haven't seen nothing yet! You could be in China and if an app detected you were in an area where someone was contagious, they would come to your home and drag you out by your feet and put you in quarantine or if you were in the Philippines not wearing a mask, etc., President Duterte would have you shot! Schooling children is just a fraction of the entire picture that needs a comprehensive plan as we must deal with the complete package, not just schooling!

That's excellent advice, EPA. Errors can have serious consequences. Also Germany's COVID-19 vaccination program got off to a poor start over the weekend after eight nursing home workers in the city of Stralsund received an overdose, authorities said Monday. Employees received five times the recommended amount of this dose in a single injection, according to the West Pomerania-Rügen district authorities. A transfusion that caused four of the employees to be admitted to the hospital, developing flu-like symptoms. www.ndtv.com/world-news/eight-care-home-workers-in-germany-overdosed-o..

Yes Gui...these 8 people who received 5 times the dose in Germany, I feel so sorry for them. I wonder if they had an informed choice to take the Vax or not. Dr. Wakefield said that this is not a vaccine, but an "irreversible genetic modification poison." He also said that this is an "auto-immune disease creating" bioweapon! newtube.app/user/Darek/rjkE32b?fbclid=IwAR3LDWzGcpw-aoygNuEafC6RiubayB.. So Gui here is a question for you and anyone else who want to chime in. If you take the VAX, and you get any of the many adverse reactions that we have heard about from all over the world, would you go back for a second dose, that could cause more serious reactions? But not going back for the second dose could cause the virus to mutate and spread throughout your body. See what a conundrum one is placed in with this Covid Vaccine? Boy Oh Boy!!!

Posted On 12/29/2020

I thank God for Dr. Mercola and the brilliant posts I read here. For me, soon after Covid hysteria hit the U.S., the word "satanic" came to mind. Isolation, separating people from dying loved ones in hospitals & nursing homes, the loss of livelihoods ... and a continuance of the push to perceive fellow human beings as walking biohazards. My intuition sensed enormous evil afoot attached to this microscopic virus, further confirmed by mainstream efforts to conceal the kind of truth, verified facts, to be found on sites like this. But without a gut sense about the way this virus is being used for ulterior agendas, many people aren't motivated to dig for actual information, happy to be spoon-fed by Fauci, Gates & the usual suspects. So, they're happy to line up for the jab they think will "keep them safe", as they willingly become human lab rats in a massive ongoing safety trial without manufacturer liability. It's Big Pharma's wet dream!

It's no exaggeration to say there are entities that want to make us slaves. I'm 69, had open heart surgery to replace a bad valve in April 2019, but don't get flu shots or other vaccines & will not get this one, for both ethical and health reasons. I lost my needed part-time job in March due to this CCP virus & will need to work again. The EEOC has already said employers can legally fire even longtime employees who refuse the vaccine, so being hired anywhere may be difficult. But I won't be forced to give up bodily autonomy. My body belongs to God & to me, and I do not consent to what amounts to medical rape.

If government tells us we can't travel, can't live free lives unless we surrender our God-given bodily autonomy, that's slavery. If we're told we can't work to earn a living, so can't have income to buy or sell without being jabbed with their vaccine, that sounds like the mark of the beast to me. These are scary times, and we need to pray for guidance & strength. But I'd rather die free than live as a slave.

Me too. I just looked up a couple of the things harvelicious stated above. Wow. I sent the one about the Chromosome 8 DNA being one of the baselines for PCR test to a fireman/comedian guy that I see. We talked for 2 hours on the phone last night. He's got stories you wouldn't believe! He says you might as well flip a coin concerning the tests. Another friend, she doesn't seem to think any of this mandatory vaccination will be implemented in the States. She says we have a Constitution. I want her to be right, but after listening to the YouTube I posted today on here (PLEASE WATCH), I'm not so sure. I feel so bad for you not being able to work, or any of you. I've been lucky so far in Florida to play.

South Florida is way different. I had to quit the Fleetwood Mac tribute band on Nov because they are in South Florida. Too many restrictions there. I keep trying to stay grounded with what Randy told me. I only have myself. But I'm with you...I don't want to live if it comes down to this Medical Tyranny. I've lived a great life. I was really hoping to meet a guy, fall in love, and live happily ever after playing music and enjoying my friends, etc. But, maybe that will not happen.

My understanding is that employers cannot fire you for refusing to get vaccinated, but they can put you on unpaid leave. So semantics aside, the outcome is almost the same as being fired, although I guess you could say your job is on hold until you consent and get vaccinated.

I learned yesterday that hydroxychloriquin or however it is spelled really works to take down this virus when used right. Found out it has been used for decades on other vovids and other things. jdarnall, S. Korea has used Hydroxychloriquine (HCQ), Zinc, a HIV drug, and Z-Pak (antibiotic) for treating Covid-19 patients since the beginning of the pandemic with great success! They had a VERY good reason to use it. Dr. Anthony Fauci announced that HCQ was effective at treating Sars-Cov-1 infections way back in 2005!!! He stood on stage and made that announcement! If it works fore Sars-Cov-1 it should work for Sars-Cov-2 (covid-19). I have family in S. Korea so I have information available that's straight from the horse's mouth in most cases. If covid is less deadly than flu then how did we have so many deaths in a number of countries such as US, UK, Italy. Those images of rooms full of dead bodies - we never see so many deaths during flu season normally- was that fake ? Even if we include non covid fatalities- we never see so many deaths in hospitals that they don't have room/time to dispose of the bodies. I don't think Covid is as harmful as other flu viruses

Let me be more precise...from Article above, the second line of "Story At-A-Glance":

Sars-CoV-2 has an infection mortality rate that is equal to or less than the flu, making school closures unnecessary because they're not closed down for flu, which is a much deadlier disease than COVID-19 in that age group...

My Answer: is ANNUAL FLU VACCINATIONS - PERIOD! WE DONOT HAVE THAT FOR COVID, PERIOD!

Mercola has been all over the board in regards to COVID-19, not always for the better! Too many readers do not realize the COVID-19 pandemic has only just begun...with much more at stake than just the number of those who perish from their 1st bout with COVID-19! You must factor everything in, as everything up and down the scale in society is affected!

Then there are some comments that clearly prove that SARS-CoV-2 crosses the "Blood Brain Barrier" what the good doctor has overlooked is the whole process by which the virus enters the cells

As 99.9 percent of the medical field on concentrating on how we must find a solution once a person is infected whether then preventing the virus from entering the cell in the first place.

i am working a simple solution which could prevent the S protein from binding the ACE2 receptors.

it will dramatically impact the infamous vaccine plan because you won't need one with my solution. Vaccines will have devastating effect on our immune system and will create a cascade of health effect already documented.

That's all well and good Datadragon but unless all these so-called treatments for the Covid viral infection, they won't do much good if they are not readily available to those in need of them. As I understand it, they are only available through prescripture from a doctor, but what if a doctor is brain-washed by those in charge of our world today and declines to prescribe to his/her patients. Even so, the last thing the globalists want is for the general public to have access to a medicine that will knock out the Corona virus.

I think Sheftall's numbers are spot on, but he is missing some of the reasons for the shut downs. I'm 100% AGAINST shutdowns....."The cure can't be worse than the disease". I've crunched the numbers in so many different ways and my numbers match Sheftall's. The fact that it is getting harder to get the data you need to crunch the numbers tells me that the data is now being censored so that people with mathematical minds can't crunch the numbers and debunk the insane mythologies, advice, and rules/laws being forced upon us. That brings us back to the shutdowns.

When you don't have good data, or worse, your data is very exaggerated due to flawed testing and/or purposely misdiagnosing people FOR PROFIT, you can't make sound mathematical/scientific decisions. One thing is for sure, people under the age of 25 are not dying from Covid-19. You are more likely to die in a car accident than from Covid-19 if you are under the age of 25. If you are under the age of 13 you have a better chance of being struck by lightning than dying from Covid-19!! So why are the schools closed??? THE TEACHERS!! My mother is a High School teacher and my wife is a Professor. They are scared to death to walk into a classroom. The reason is very clear.

Back in Aug 2020, the CDC came out and announced that Sars-Cov-2 is aerosolized! That means you CAN NOT BE IN ANY ROOM without a HAZMAT SUIT with other people!!! They quickly retracted that statement and said it was put up by accident and that it was incorrect. The fact is that it is correct. That's the reason for the shutdowns. If they thought the vaccines actually worked they would vaccinate school teachers FIRST!! School teachers are NOT even on the list of the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd rounds of vaccinations! Why? Because the effectivity of these vaccines is WAY overblown. The data they collected is based on VERY flawed testing. They know this. They don't won't vaccinated teachers DYING from covid-19. That would end all future vaccinations.

I love reading Mercola's articles then I think people who comment add a lot to the discussion. Thank you all for that. I have some contributions.

First:

According to this link (and its detailed) there has never been an isolated covid (or whatever one wants to call it, it has many names for an odd reason) www.fluoridefreepeel.ca/fois-reveal-that-health-science-institutions-a..

This goes along with the Books Virus Mania (2008) and What really makes you ill (2019) (also the website is interesting to read Whatreallymakesyouill.com). Both of these books, the authors have attempted to get confirmation of virus isolates of many previous virus outbreaks. They were never able to receive even one reply to show that any of these viruses were isolated. No isolated virus and there is no way to say for certain X caused Y. In both books, they talk about the many toxins that were around (including pharma drugs) that could have fueled the supposed virus. Check em out.

People have posted about hospitals being over run. I am a police officer in Alameda County Ca (Pop 1,680,000) I visit all the large hospitals in the county, never, never has there been any over running of these hospitals over the last 9 months of this. In fact, going to the Alameda County website on Nov 12, they stated, There were 75 people in the county hospitals due to covid. This is out of 2500 hospital beds! Neighboring contra costa county (pop 1,180,000) also stated on their website, 46 people were in hospital due to covid, out of over 2000 hospital beds.

Obviously, with no virus isolate, there is not covid. Which makes sense, since nothing out of the ordinary life and death numbers is actually occurring, once one begins to examine things, such as hospital numbers and then actual deaths.

This is all an epidemic of FEAR. Thats it. Like all virus outbreaks. Take care all.

If the "vaccines" were to have a large percentage of severe adverse side effects immediately, then we could probably toss out these ridiculous vaccine mandates. Unfortunately most of the negative side effects will probably take time to become apparent, and the powers that be will refuse to acknowledge the connection and continue to push for vaccinations. Of course no one will be forced to get vaccinated, but you won't be able to go to work outside of your home or attend school, travel will be limited, you won't be allowed to attend large events.... and basically you will be forced to self quarantine. Of course that is assuming you can work from home and can therefore afford to pay your rent or mortgage, if not, you will be homeless and living on the streets.

So then would it be true that no one is forced to obey the law because otherwise they will only go to jail? A difference is that at least in jail, they must feed you. To unjustly fire or to fail to hire someone capable (NOT necessarily the "perfect" candidate - whatever that is) who is unemployed is WRONG. Hinging any employment on whether a person allows toxic substances to be injected directly into their bloodstream with unknown and potentially fatal effects is REALLY EVIL. Currently, government doesn't seem to care whether a person is ever employed. I haven't dove into unemployment compensation, but eventually that is stopped, and I think that there are many restrictions. It may be the case that all a company has to do is say that you were fired "for cause," even if it is unjust (FYI companies typically don't have to - "legally" speaking - have a reason to fire you) and you may be denied unemployment.

And an aspect that people don't seem to realize is that there isn't much that can be legally done (There are some state "blacklisting" laws, but if you don't have obvious proof I suspect that they won't investigate.) if some malicious prior employer talks bad about you to potential employers. The practice of backdoor reference checks appears to be (from my experience) EXTREMELY common. They could even be lying through their teeth concerning you, and companies don't even have to respond to you after you send a resume. The most that a person can expect is "deafening silence."

Yo, Rocky, listen up. Former champ Donny T's biggest struggle wasn't in the ring. No, it was the noise inside his head he couldn't outrun no matter where he went or what he did that was the bigger challenger by far. Champ T. was a complicated man. His opponents inside and outside the ring were sure the gorilla they once loved had become a stupid palooka slugger no match for the finesse of the new crop of adversaries. The pugilist Me Dia was winning the battle outside the ring even before claiming a stolen victory on the canvas. And before him Big Farmer, Donny T's first dive, had bamboozled the public into believing Farmer was unbeatable.

Even his own manager(s) told him he was a washed-up bum and should retire from boxing forever. Despite being down on his luck, loss of self-respect and feeling disgraced before his own family, he knew he still had believers, including himself; it was just that the deafening volume by those who took perverse delight in how the mighty had fallen now drowned out his supporters. The oppression on all sides forced him to look inward. For some time already he'd been talking with the gangsters on the other side of the tracks of his beaten down existence, the ones he affectionately called the Robbin' Hoods.

The Hoods were the enlightened ones. They knew favoritism could be bought but blackmail and extortion weren't their style. Their modus operandi wasn't a zero sum game with winners and losers. All should win, they said, with one exception being the thugs who bankrolled their gains on the back of our former champ. They had to be eliminated. Give us time they told him and we'll see to it that you'll never have to pull your punches again. Doors kept slamming in his face but the hurt was gone. He believed their stealthy operations would give him his life back the next time he stepped in the ring. Fight day for our hero was coming up but only the insider few realized the bigger fight was to be between those who came to see him win and lose.

Hello and thank you for those very insightful points! Correct me if I am wrong but if you add the fatality rates of the four different age groups and divide by four you come up with an average fatality rate of 1,4% not 0,1%. Is this a mistake or have I misunderstood something? In Italy the fatality rate was so much higher than the one in Germany because the Italian health system collapsed whereas the German didn't. This means people who would have otherwise survived, were dying because they couldn't be intubated.

Even using the government's own mortality numbers (335,208 as of 12/29/2020), with a US population of approximately 331,000,000, that equals a 0.101271299094% mortality rate; less than 1%. It just goes to show how propaganda is more powerful than education and simple math skills in the US.

Spiro Skouras interviewed Dr. Pam Popper who is suing her state government for the false state of emergency which allows them to remove the rights and freedoms of the population legally. We have a great deal of information to support that the testing is flawed which is what they are using to continue the state of Emergency. If we could focus our efforts on suing those in charge, who are responsible for this horrible abuse of power, we may be able to avoid a global depression, which will certainly result if we continue in this lock down situation for much longer.

"Asymptomatic people are being tested for COVID-19 at unprecedented rates" They know the test are defective, they have known from the beginning, these false positives are where they get their numbers, everyone who test positive is considered a 'new case' and everyone who dies is considered a 'Covid19 Death' and is marked on Death Certificate as cause of death, even gun shot victims. Mercola is right this is a scam to take away rights and push us into this Great Reset which is just NWO, which is Satan's Kingdom on the Earth. Read Revelation and avoid the Mark of the Beast.

Regarding the tests, this article about viral load posted from the vaunted NYT this morning. You mean they CAN determine viral load & it's not just an outright positive or negative? What?! Wouldn't that help to improve treatment for those that really need it? So many things about this are a mess.

10,000 a day/ 300,000 a month/3,600,000 a year/36,000,000 in 10 yrs turn 65 in the USA. Most are lower income. (or currently well on the way to be) Most are immune system compromised simply from aging, (or well on the way to be) This USA number is massive and is the sitting duck source of an easier great reset. China and India populations are way ahead of us in the billions . How many turn 65 a day in China and India? (has to be an extreme amount) This many humans operating with compromised wellness is all that is required to fuel our demise. On a global $scale of modern health medicines, who or how will this ever be remotely sustainable? It wont end nor diminish on a vaccine for global known communicable virus as old as time itself. All any of us can do is plant seeds of truth in the people around us. A few will hit fertile ground. And if a pandemic arises that wipes out immune-compromised people, it is a sad thing but in the end all we can do is take care of ourselves and ride it out.

I'm a homemaker, mother, and wife. A simple American. I'm reading these articles and comments trying to understand what's really going on. Honestly, it's confusing to me because on the one hand I don't believe everything that the media puts out and on the other hand I don't understand how this virus isn't devastating our healthcare system and society. If COVID-19 isn't worse than the flu, then why are our hospitals overrun and the doctors and nurses look like they're living through war? This doesn't happen during normal flu season. Can anyone answer this simple question please? Thank you.

Posted On 12/29/2020

JGB123

This is because the media is showing you a single tired nurse or doctor, when in fact it is not anywhere near that in most hospitals. They are making this appear far worse than it is. Think about this...if it is so deadly contagious, why aren't doctors, nurses, radiologists, runners, unit secretaries, maintenance workers, cleaning aides, physical, speech, and Respiratory therapists all dropping dead like flies? They all work 8-12 hour shifts, 4-7 days per week, for over fifty weeks now. They are lauded as heroes, but in fact most are just doing their jobs. I know because I work in medicine, but personnel are staying out of this debate. Initially it was bad until doctors got a handle on management.

Hi Hayatflorida. This is my take on it. There are probably areas where the number of symptomatic Covid cases have overwhelmed the hospitals. This isn't everywhere. Also, this virus is new, so very few people have been exposed to anything like it with an immunity to it. The flu changes year to year, but there will still be immunity among many who've had another flu or exposure where they didn't get sick. Even though there seem to be a lot of Covid deaths (which aren't all necessarily true Covid deaths), the percent of people who've contract it and die is minuscule. A higher percent of people who get the flu die of it. Like with most infections, if you're immune-compromised, it's going to be a harder battle.

Hayat, just follow all the lockdowns. The cities with the most restrictions and longest lockdowns have the highest death/infectious rates. If you live in a studio apartment in L.A. CA you probably don't cook much. All the restaurants are closed. That means you now have to go into a store where TENS OF THOUSANDS of people a day go in and out and it's impossible to social distance. In most cases, these buildings have more people inside them than what they are rated for, but no one monitors that. However, ALL restaurants have a maximum capacity posted near the front entrance.

Even your largest restaurants seat less than 500 people. Most seat less than 100. On an good day, one of these restaurants will serve 500 to 1,000 people and the closest person to you is usually behind you facing the opposite direction. So which is more dangerous??? Eating at a sit-down restaurant or shopping at a store? Of course, you can always have your food delivered, but someone has to go in and get that food and deliver it! Now, these same cities have had all of their schools closed since day one. That means someone has to stay home with the children. That means more trips to the grocery store or Walmart/Target to buy food and consumables. That means dragging the kids to the store with you where 10,000+ other parents with kids will have to go today! Which is more dangerous: You going to work and your kids going to school or staying home and running to the store 2 or 3 more times a week with your kids?? These same cities have closed all the parks where your kids can play. So, they all congregate at a friend's house who has the latest and greatest video game. Which is more dangerous??? I can go on ALL DAY like this. You can not disrupt people's daily routines in an effort to combat a pandemic. It doesn't work! Political leaders like Gavin Newsome, Whitmire, and Cuomo should be RECALLED! There's a massive number of people/companies leaving NY and CA as the result of the constant INSANITY!

Hello everyone. I have been reading the comments here for nearly a year. There are regulars who seem to be extremely educated and very articulate with one set of beliefs. When someone other than the "regulars" asks a question they are mostly completely ignored or ridiculed as believing the mainstream media as a "sheeple". I would like to know if we could possibly hear some answers to our questions or are we just "allowed" to read the "regulars" massaging each other's egos?

A point of English: We say fomenting trouble, not fermenting it.

This aside, I agree with everything you say. It is obvious that people panic. I believe this is because they have never been properly educated on matters of hygiene, and the need to secure a strong immune system. It is astounding how many people have admitted to infrequent handwashing, for instance. And do people imagine that the virus cannot move through a mask, if one can breathe through it? The whole situation is more than sinister. Someone has seen that panicked people can be manipulated...Marxism, here we come. Let us all buck the system and use our own higher-order thinking powers. As for comorbidity, we know that obesity is rife in the world, and this is the no.1 comorbidity factor in Covid-19 contraction and death. But no one tackles obesity for fear of upsetting obese colleagues, etc., not to mention the fast-food chains. We need to take responsibility for our OWN health, not rely on the government to "keep us safe". How utterly risible! Keep yourself safe. Discipline yourself with eating and exercising and sleeping properly. Tackle your addictions...go for help. Manage yourself. You are the best one to be in charge of yourself

The bottom line to mandated masking and lock downs, has but one particular purpose--the destruction of the middle class, which will create a divide of the very rich to the very poor. Given all historical accounts of governments--it has always been the rich rule over the poor, for this is what this pandemic has produced. A restaurant owned by a middle class citizen is closed because of the false fears and the unconstitutional manner for which governors have exercised, the lower courts have supported, and ignored by the Supreme Court. However, across from that same street that the middle class restaurant is a MacDonald's that is allowed to be opened--why--because it is corporate owned, as is COSCO, Walmart, Chili's, Subway, and name any corporate owned entity who are given carte blanc' to perform their business, and leave the middle class hung out to dry.

Covid-19 has morphed the power of the WHO, the CDC, FDA and many so-called "health experts." for which have all been debunked, if one is inclined to view news that is not mainstream. We are viewing a Communist takeover of America. If Biden is allowed to take the office of the presidency, the taking of our guns will be high on the agenda--why--because of the revolt that will soon take place, and the Communists know this, for this is the very thing that was done before the Communists took over--Pol Pot, Mao, Castro, Lenin/Stalin, Hitler all disarmed their populations before instituting a full communist take over. In the case of Hitler, only 1/3 the population supported the Nazi Party, which is why the general population was disarmed, and then fluoridated the water to make the population docile, which being practiced in America as well.
