Healthcare workers & the military will be the first to get these new vaccines. Hard working, honorable citizens. This will go down in history as the greatest medical blunder of all time. Seniors will keep dying, and the younger generation will be crippled by autoimmune disease. It's going to be a fine mess. Glad I grew up when I did and had a good life. Crying for the young ones. Gain of function bio-lab folly the boomer's parting gift to the world, with a poison vaccine the icing on the cake. May God have mercy on our souls.

In the study "The impact of COVID-19 and the future world order", it is shown that men and women who live or operate in confined spaces on military ships are especially vulnerable to COVID-19, citing four aircraft carriers of the United States in the Asian Pacific. Some 3,000 sailors aboard Theodore Roosevelt, Ronald Reagan, Nimitz and Carl Vinson have tested positive for the coronavirus in recent weeks. The progressive influence "of Beijing on multilateral organizations, including the World Health Organization, which could alter the current world order, is also manifested. China now heads four of the 15 special agencies of the United Nations and occupies positions of deputies in another seven.

Syn the real problem good God fearing people think their only defense against these evil criminal bastards is to pray and wait for Jesus to return and save us . Those odds are stacked against the good and let Evil run Rampant . They don't have morals and like to watch people suffer . Doesn't matter if its a 6 month old child or a 90 year old person that's how the Luciferians operate . Good God fearing people do nothing to stop this insane behavior so they have a free run to start Wars and watch 2 good nations kill each other while they sit back and count the money coming in .I am not a Bible thumper but maybe someone can direct me somewhere in it where it says let the Devil defeat you and Lay idle while this happens . Maybe there is a gross gloss over to make people docile on purpose or something was changed in the Bible to give Satan a free run .We need a new plan because I like to be Alive .

@synesthesia, spot on comment.

@jdpriddle, how about a moment of silence on Monday, Memorial Day, as we remember the honorable ones that have passed on at a young age without seeing life to its fullest. At the age of 17 in 1959 my choice was to join the military or wait for the draft to stick me in the Army infantry. Living the poor life in West Virginia I could not get a decent paying job, which was in the coal mines, steel mills, or chemical factories, with the draft hanging over my head until I was 26. I joined the USMC. I was not taught in school about "...resource hungry power mad psychopath's....". I agree now they do exist. As for health care workers, currently they are getting laid off as we speak because they are not all that busy.

Swedish WHO advisor Johann Giesecke stated on film, that a vaccine for this coronavirus will not even work. www.youtube.com/watch So much for the requirement of a vaccine to go back to work/school. Today, the ACLU wrote a superb argument about how an immunity passport will create a precedent of discrimination-based refusal for housing, jobs and more. Here's something I don't understand. Bill Gates has always wanted to DECREASE the world's population....and this virus began at the Wuhann lab which he funds. So why would he be working to create a vaccine which (supposedly) would save people from the virus and, thus, stabilize or increase the population. Unless, of course, the prospect of making a few more billion dollars from the vaccine is more satisfying than ridding the world of some human beings. Of course there are others who are also working on creating a vaccine, so we're not sure which one would be chosen for worldwide distribution. One other note....people are very quick to blame China for not declaring news about the virus early enough. I wonder if Gates is behind that also...possibly paying off those who would announce it first, thereby eliminating some of the world's population?

Yeh, they will pretend to get it, and just get injected with saline or some nonsense. Don't believe anything the media or I should say Tell Lie Vision reports - all propaganda b.s. Need to inform as many people out there about the TRUTH. There is NO 'freedom' as people wanted to believe ever - now to see videos being removed left and right from YouTube that don't 'meet their guidelines' Yeh right, I guess TRUTH does not meet their guidelines, only garbage - we can see what world we really are living in - and the deception that we have been living under for so long. We all need to wake up - spread the word - and REFUSE VACCINES - REFUSE TESTING - REFUSE MASKS - REFUSE GETTING CHIPPED - Those who will demand it can all rot in hell. Over my dead body will they do any of the above.

steelj

I don't think they would get injected with something innocuous. They simply wouldn't get injected at all and say they did. Nobody is taking videos of people being vaccinated. If you have a compliant doctor who would fake a vaccination by substituting saline, it wouldn't make sense to bother doing that. He'd just sign off that the vaccination happened when it didn't. In fact I assume a lot of that goes on right now. Plenty of doctors are smart enough to avoid the flu shot, but are mandated to have it.

Fastidious with cleanliness, but in the natural way. No Purcell triclosan bullshit for me. Hardcore hot yoga practice, outside bike riding etc. I do not need any dumbed down policy maker telling me a dam thing about health and disease prevention. Bill of Rights Cannot Be Suspended During A "Public Health Crisis" The Bill of Rights in the U.S. Constitution cannot be set aside by the federal government or state governments during pandemics or other public health emergencies. In The United States Statement of Interest in Support of Plaintiffs, filed by the Department of Justice (DOJ) in a case last month in which churchgoers attending a drive-in sermon were issued citations for violating an executive order in Mississippi, the DOJ stated;

"There is no pandemic exception, however, to the fundamental liberties the Constitution safeguards. Indeed, "individual rights secured by the Constitution do not disappear during a public health crisis." In re Abbott, --- F.3d ---, 2020 WL 1685929, at *6 (5th Cir. Apr. 7, 2020). SoozeQ, your concerns are understandable, but you need to reduce your stress level, before it destroys your health. There are numerous herbals that can help you cope, plus nutrients like vit-D and magnesium are seriously depleted by even modest stress. You may be better off by not confronting them, but getting the shot ahead of schedule. A nurse might be better than a doctor. You will need the actually vaccine plus a saline solution. What you want is the saline shot with documentation of having received the vaccine. Make sure that a vaccine was dispensed. If a doctor writes a scripe for your whole family, but a nurse YOU KNOW is willing to come to your house an give everyone a shot, then the documentation from the unknowing doc should be all that you need. You need to look for a nurse that isn't comfortable with vaccines. And you need to keep the matter to yourself. If there are children they will need to receive the saline shots. Sorry!

We have The United States of America with a Constitution, a political government, undermined by The Corporate United States of America, a financial government, the Central Banks, now we are in time witnessing the attempted take over by the Digital Global Government, undermining all. This grabbing onto a seasonal flu to promote a heavy handed overreach shows how panicked the Power Elite are and how they have been exposed in more ways than they would want. This what will most likely be a culling of the great unwashed & the insertion of a Digital Masters and Slave system if allowed by us. What is driving them nuts? Enough of us are aware & are turning away from their destructive degenerative system. There are no leaders for them to ruin or assassinate. It's day to day citizens turning away on their own to create and produce on our own without their meddling and interference. Fear, Divide and Conquer, (Divide & Weaken,) as we are already stronger than they would ever want us to be. There is nothing to tear down, it is dying dinosaur, too big to fail, actually already having failed and dying. We don't fight in the traditional sense, we Create when and where we can as we already are. This is what is starving the beast, don't feed the greed.

Forget Trust & Grants from the Big's with their strings attached to fund things or to take things mainstream. It is those strings that are wrapped around our necks that form the rope to hang us. The new digital masters want to remove cash from the system to control every facet of our lives. It is the freewheeling peoples economy a good chunk normally before Computers that runs itself under their direct control radar they can not stand. It is the medium and small personal business and livelihoods providing freedom & independence un beholden to them they can not stand. Now we know why the people hated & didn't trust the banks during the Great Depression and many hid their cash in the mattress, they refused to feed the beast.

Guillermou

Well expressed, JUST, the technocracy and the imposition of corrupt elites, leads to the greatest economic disasters. This crisis is the reflection of a society managed from a position of making profits by exploiting economic resources and people. Slavery is its flag unfurled in the wind, moved by hunger, misery, biological wars, economic inequalities, etc.

Technocracy always takes the impulse to increase profits and reduce costs, to generate more capital or to repay debt. The oligarchies forgot about the real economy and entered speculative, public and private. Companies live in very different dynamics from those demanded by their customers, their workers and society. The trend of very low wages became fashionable, and the nonexistent regulations and rules managed to increase profits. This conjuncture shaped globalization, which brought with it the economic weakness of the middle classes and the workers of western countries, which was compensated for a time via credit, until the tap was closed and we were left with the bare decline in our standard of living.

Fortunately, there are more and more thoughtful people in the world that the new pandemic is not simply a health crisis, or even an associated economic crisis, but a deeper and broader crisis that preferably affects an elite power structure. corrupt politicians and technocrats.

Especially the economic crisis will affect developing countries, it presents a bleak picture. Between a third and a half of the economy is informal, which means that it does not comply with any formal or legal organization norm. They are short-term workers, daily, hourly workers, without savings, without safety nets and, in most cases, without health coverage. The market is collapsing with COVID-19 and the poor, without work, without income, without money to pay for food, rent. Blocking protection works for the Pharmaceutical Mafia and its government allies, it works for the corrupt rich.

Exactly, Steve: the Corporate, Financial and Digital pseudo-governments - I was going to say, are the power behind the throne - but it has gone further than that, now they ARE the throne and our democratically elected political governments are their mouth piece. This was what I was trying to suggest in yesterday's comment, when I asked the rhetorical question: When was Gates elected and by whom? Having bought his way into power and influence, it seems he is now our virtual, self appointed Head of State. Hopefully there is a kinder way to deal with absolute monarchy than the one the French nation resorted to in 1789. The irony is if he did not have a dime, nobody would listen to a word he said.

I sure hope you are right Steve, when you write "Enough of us are aware & are turning away from their destructive degenerative system" I'm not seeing that, but I hope you are right and I am wrong. It seems to me people are no different than they've ever been. There is a certain percentage that tries to think rationally (with some success), and has mostly good motivations. But they have never been anywhere near a majority, and aren't today. I just finished reading "Defying Hitler", written by a fellow who came of age as Germany fell under the control of Nazism. One of many excellent accounts of how impossible it is to prevail against evil, when it's rising under the right conditions. And we seem to have the right conditions.

Yes RANDALL, above all optimizing the immune system and health, and the war against vaccines that cause disease and death, the blockade that attacks freedoms and that leads us to an economic crisis that increases misery, hunger, enhances inequalities and it causes more loss of liberties and suffering to families, especially the poorest. HOPES. Scientists have been able to identify up to seven different types, but only two would have raised concerns about COVID-19, the MERS and SARS epidemics. The other four that are known have a much lower virulence capacity, since they are more related to a simple common cold. For that reason, the scientific community has begun to discover signs that having outperformed the other types of coronaviruses may leave a certain degree of immunity or some type of degree of protection against the COVID-19 virus.

An article published in the prestigious journal 'Cell', the authors, from the Institute of Immunology of La Jolla, in California, took blood samples from patients who had recovered from covid-19 and, by contacting them with SARS proteins- CoV-2, they saw that an antiviral response was produced by T cells with specific memory to recognize and fight the virus and in the blood samples they presented CD4 + lymphocytes that fight the virus even though these people had not been exposed. Probably 40% to 60% of the population could already have at least some level of immunity to SARS-CoV2 from being exposed to these former coronaviruses from common colds. In Nature, another article reports on cross immunity. An international research team identified antibodies from a patient who recovered from SARS in 2003 and tested the potential of 25 of them to inhibit SARS-CoV-2. The result was that eight could bind both the virus and infected cells, but the authors of this work emphasize above all that an antibody, named S309, has a "particularly strong neutralizing activity" against the new coronavirus. www.nature.com/.../s41586-020-2349-y (May 18 2020)

Another investigation by the Charité University Hospital in Berlin analyzed the blood of 68 uninfected people and found that 34% harbored helper T cells that recognized SARS-CoV-2. "We demonstrated the presence of S-reactive CD4 + T cells in 83% of patients with COVID-19, as well as in 34% of healthy seronegative donors with SARS-CoV-2" www.medrxiv.org/.../2020.04.17.20061440v1 (April 17 2020)

Another study claims to have demonstrated the presence of pre-existing immunity in uninfected humans not exposed to the new coronavirus. In this British investigation, the scientists used sera from patients who had recently been infected with the coronavirus from colds and found that they could neutralize the new virus. www.biorxiv.org/.../2020.05.14.095414v1 (May 14 2020)

Do you believe that the high dose, oral vitamin C ( or maybe high dose oral Lugol's ) taken before ( if mandated for travel, work, etc ) this vaccine could neutralize the contents injected ? Most vaccs contain aluminum, mercury, polysorbate 80, tissue extracts like DNA, RNA, peptides/proteins that bind to cell receptors, etc. Perhaps selenium could neutralize the mercury. Plus, immediately after perhaps putting castor oil cloth or clay packed on the site could absorb the contents of vacc onto the castor oil cloth or into the clay pack. Hopefully, a counter active solution like this or another ? could be used to diminish or counteract the bodily damage.

Bigfletch

There is only one logical answer to the last question. The question is, " how many have immunity to common sense"?, (and even the professional version.). The population at large can be excused with all the explanations beyonx their " pay grade", but why the majority of professionals? Money...absolutely not. Fear...absolutely! Im reminded of the number of alternate medical people who died mysteriously a few years ago around Florida, many of whom were known to Dr M. What about those in political power? There is one answer which fits, but levels of cognitive dissonance only allow the planted manipulative term (planted as a psychological virus) ..conspiracy theory. I refer of course to 9 11. , where the most protected part of the planet couldnt stop the twin towers " turning to dust".

The other hero Judy (Wood in this case) showed absolute conclusive proof of what happened on that fateful day, where many examples of modern physics were laid to waste..just as the towers were...and she was predictably pilloried for her effort... Same level of cognitive dissonance prevails today...and it has NOTHING WHATEVER to do with levels of academic capacity. Compare Drs M, Buttar, Lipton, Ayyadurai and Kaufman etc etc.all with nothing to gain, and everything to lose , with traditional alopathic medics. Some see, some dont and some unwilling to look...just like 9 11.

Fletch..The parallels between this covid crisis and 9/11 are uncanny...First reports stick with people, like "rape" and are slow to be considered true or false...We saw the planes hit the towers and the instant explanation; Arab terrorists. Then came the govt reaction in following months with similar brainwash words.

..and every TV talking head was on board with large scale war. These idiots still have the temerity to appear even after being found wrong on everything? In the smokescreen and confusion of the moment judgements are made and seconded by these paid buttlickers, so the public jumps on the train...and feeling foolish to admit their gullibility acquiesce and try to live with contradiction..Like many war vets who enlisted in haste and now suffer post-stupidity regret.

People have varying levels of language comprehension, so word fraud and cleverly crafted couched phrases deceive them... rational thought and logic escape, false assumptions are made and wrong actions follow. Lynch mobs, patriotism and religious frenzy are to be avoided. It is your right to remain undecided, skeptical and cynical. When everybody is ***-sure; WATCH OUT. The other shoe will hit ya in the back of the head...as the covid crisis plays out.

Yes Fletch the zombies don't look into some crazy thing like that . The most amazing thing is how one Larry Silverberg I mean Silverstien so intuitively bought and insured those 3 buildings against a terror attack . Better yet getting 3 to 4 times the value of the buildings that were all in need of major repair . How do they see the future so well is beyond me . Well anyway find Larrys close associates and you will find the enemy . Yes Judy Wood figured it out with the use of directed energy to take down the buildings in their own foot prints . The energy came from the huge storm that was off the coast of NY city that just happened to make a 90 degree turn as soon as the buildings came down .

Peri1224

Any action that produces the biggest economic depression in history, bigger than the Great Depression of 1929, will not happen, unless it's sanctioned by the top dogs, the money counterfeiters. What is new with this Covid scam is they used their criminal pharma/vaccine syndicate to make it happen. They couldn't just cut the money supply, as they did in 1929. That would have put the spotlight squarely on them, but the sneaks don't like exposure. So, they chose this surprise, fake virus pandemic, and for the first time in history, all people were quarantined, instead of only the less than 1% of the population that are vulnerable.

Besides, the fake news media keep fanning the panic with false reports of casualties, full hospitals, mortuaries, etc., and they suppress natural cures and immune boosters that easily control the virus. Enough doctors and researchers have come out to prove that this is the biggest crime in history, because it's happening worldwide, not only in one country. The criminals must be held responsible, and not only the gofers like Fauci, Gates, that WHO gangster, and the stupid politicians that listened to them, but the big stinkers at the top of the fake money totem pole. Let their dismantling start now. If Trump is real and he will drain the swamp, and if what Q said is true, it should have started already. On the other hand, if these two are just bamboozling the civilized masses, the people will have to do it on their own. It wouldn't be the first time in history. As that moron Bush Jr. said, you are either with us or against us. Mr. Trump, Q, pick your side now. The time for weasel words and dilly-dallying has to end.

Micha_El

What Freud and Jung would say...I am working through a book by M-L von Franz on projection (Projection and re collection in Jungian Psychology), and about 2 weeks ago I showed to my wife a passage, as this fitted B.G and some of his henchmen to a T. I freely quote; negative projections can cause mainly venomous or rancorous speech, and is also responsible for every possible idealistic, intellectualistic nonsense, disseminated as it is by means of slogans like *wellfare, existence, security, peace among the peoples of the world * etc. Evil often hides behind idealism and other isms, acting as labels for a very unspiritual doctrinairism. In such cases one *knows* what is right and what is good for other people and, indeed for mankind. This is the beginning of the end, of the decline. The dangers involving in taking this road are very great. It starts with lying, that is, with the projection of the shadow. More human beings are tortured and killed in the name of all these -isms than die as a result of the forces of nature.

NewlandsWanderer

Thanks Micha_EI. A very appropriate quote for these troubled times. The great quest is to integrate the shadow on the path to finding wholeness within oneself. It may be possible for the individual to do this as in Jung's individuation, but when a nation projects its collective shadow onto another nation or race - that's a terrifying scenario. As for Gates and his henchmen, they seem like mega-psychopaths drunk on power. I think it was Jung who said; "When love goes out of the window - Power comes through the door." And when you link power and money and fanaticism - it leads to a huge maniacal inflation. For Gates it is no less than World Domination over everyone through vaccine control.

Micha, you are so right that evil hides behind isms. Right-wing, left-wing, no matter, the ideology is a means to an end. As to Freud, Jung, et.al. they provide very useful frameworks and insights. But the only thing in psychology I've come across that is dead on correct (largely because it doesn't try to explain too much - just one very, very important thing), is the concept of psychopathy. You can't understand human society without a solid grasp of psychopathy. Without it, you will be observing things going on today, and reading about things that have happened before, that make no sense. Once you understand psychopathy, the cloud lifts and you see clearly.

In addition to the possibility of vaccine-induced immune enhancement to Covid-19, there is also the possibility that this new vaccine could (1) make other viruses more lethal, including the common cold or (2) cause a lethal response to the next new virus that comes along. At present, there is absolutely no way to test for this second possibility. Our reach is way, way exceeding our grasp when it comes to understanding the immune system.

I grew up with Aspergers....and always ,as most would say.'Unusual' or 'weird'....always different in thinking...now I am well over 70 and live alone on the side of a mountain in a shack ...Ive seen several of these assumed 'dreaded diseases' come and go.. pills for this and that...shots for this and that...or you will die..... well My grandfather died at 102...my father at 100....and buried a son and a grandson who were "vaccinated' to prevent what killed them...

I think more of "if it ain't broke , than don't go tryin' to fix it'... all this 'scientific' stuff was the same when worthless Albert Einstein and his mathematic jargon about  $E=MC^2$ ..that was published By some student before AE tried to tell the world his 'great discovery'...more hype and BS.

Its the News Media that run the world...afterall all ya know is what the news tells ya to know proven well with Orson Welles great Radio act in 1939.....Hitler even talked about it...Im sure noting how easy it was to 'contol' the masses with Radio,,,now its TV and Internet 'News" that tell ya what to think...and they have billions to impress you, the public, with an educated sounding 'snow job'.....

I stupidly opened a Facebook account two weeks ago to disseminate information but, as expected, I was subjected to "Independent Fact Check" and "Fake News" for sharing the interview with Judy Mikovits. I have closed the account. Those of us that can see an agenda at play and object to being blinded by the propaganda have to realise that it will only be by mass protest that anything will change. We will not receive help from media, nor politicians, nor any constitutions. The media is owned by the very people behind this crime and the politicians are all frightened to speak but will all inevitably fall in the wash up. It is only on sites such as this that we can vent our frustration. We somehow, collectively, have to protest and make it so big that it can't be ignored. If that sounds desperate, it is but desperate times call for desperate measures. It isn't just average citizens like me that can see what's happening. There are scientists, doctors, lawyers and many, other intelligent people that share our despair. United we stand, etc.

I can see this somehow being tied together down the road with the "Mark Of The Beast" not just the vaccination itself , but the vaccination ,tied to a belief system or a coercion to do something opposed to Gods true law as stated in the bible, and along with it a cashless society, so that they can shut off your ability To "buy or sell ".All those saying there's no way they would receive a vaccine and or along with it a microchip which shows whom their allegiance is to, would now face loss of their home ,starvation etc. at least that would be the beast power's plan,but those following and truly trusting in God will not be dissappointed.. Revelation 13: verses 16-17. Go then to revelation chapter 16 and you can read what awful punishment awaits those who receive the mark of the beast, they trust in sinful man and themselves, rather than trusting and obeying God.

Three days ago I watched an interview with Noam Chomsky and Stan Cox, author of The Green New Deal And Beyond. Cox is new to me; I haven't read his book. But I've admired Chomsky for decades for his willingness to speak truth to power including the bogus war against Iraq and his classic thesis on manufacturing consent. While never a personal fan of Al Gore and his monetization of carbon credits approach, ostensibly the book makes sense in it's calling for a heightened awareness and austerity and out of climatic necessity not to return to our former ways of polluting the planet (I don't recall the language but there is mention of a 17% reduction in air pollution since COVID). They call out all income classes but especially the upper crust for their consumptive excess if our planet is to have it's best chance at withstanding the rapid climate change (for my part I'm willing to hanger my 757 to save the planet). However what was conspicuously absent was a discussion of the "virus". www.youtube.com/watch Absolutely! I questioned it all from the get-go: A) Fear of hospital overwhelm, so where are the hospital ships? NYC came out with them after all..... B) No testing, yet invoking fear, fear, fear based on blind man's bluff guess work figures C) It is known fact in medical research that environment and nutritional status figure heavily into medical vulnerabilities in larger cultural cross sectors. So to say Italy suffered, China and NYC suffered, is not necessarily a reliable indicator of epidemiology elsewhere...and they know it!!! D) I never bought into the argument that the coronavirus can be spread by asymptomatic carriers. I believe this is true, but the same could also be said of the ordinary flu.

Necessitates stopping the entire globe, wrecking the economy, installing dictatorship? No thank you. E) No testing, WHY???? Corrupt, not just inept. F) I have compiled pages of links from highly credible physicians speaking out about the over-diagnosed numbers. fear, fear once again! THE real pandemic is fear, strategic. G) Why do they say that we are hoarding bath tissue when the shelves, and online sources, are all labeled "limit one per person"? It seems they really WANT us sick, and then people will beg on their knees for vaccines. Such "Healers" in whom we trust. Sick people, themselves. They all need to be locked up. And they think we are stupid enough to not see through this> You should see what people are saying as we talk at the grocery "Socially' distanced lineup....it's time for lawsuits and prosecution from left and right, all over the globe. Thank you Maryroehrenbeck, for giving a care! I second you. From the mouth of a political strategist (in parentheses, my own statements): A) College newsletter editors are very strategic. They talk to their parents, waking up their generation. Parents believe their offspring where they otherwise turn a deaf ear. The students also talk to their peers and wake up two generations, simultaneously. (The Feds know this fyi , that's why they attempted to target the college students in the thankfully fallen-down "Thought Crimes Bill"). B) Identify and rebut ideas in peoples' heads, in print.

This helps to create mass social change, said the strategist. C) Slogans work. Politicians use them, very studied in how to word them. This appeals to the minds of people who are not interested to think. D) Class action lawsuits garner media attention, creating a national conversation and breaking through the media blackout. Private lawsuits fail, said the strategist (but then again look at the Monsanto suit, that was quite a sensational exception eh? Please lets' recall that Monsanto had been granted legal immunity. But they have been sued, and sued, and sued and are awaiting more).

My thoughts: A) Write to business entities and ask them to file suits B)Write to lawyers + ask them ditto, or to press charges C) Write college newsletter editors + movie makers, send them URL links with brief quotes from each source. Tell them: Ask viewers 4 backup files posted on web. D) Send URL links to your elected public officials and to health departments. Believe it or not, they may not know and may need to be briefed in. Then follow up with a call to their Aides, talk In person. Education is key. FYI silence=legal consent. We can't be passive, or we allow the dynamics to repeat, worsen. "Sometimes the greatest evils are committed by the silence of good people" Edmund Burke "Necessity is the plea for every infringement on human freedom. It is the argument of tyrants, it is the creed of slaves"

Monsanto had been granted legal immunity, yet look at what happened. I am NOT condoning the act of granting them immunity, not one bit. It is, in my book, an unconstitutional gag order. It enables harm where those harmed, may not speak up. But the key word here is "may". Because lawyers may have ways of getting around the immunity matter. I suggest contacting the Alliance for Natural Health (USA and international), Robert Kennedy, the ACLU, the National Lawyers Guild, and any other legal entity you can think of, to get on board with this to fight it. Some people may have medical vulnerabilities to injury post-vaccine, and to grant immunity where harm may be done, is simply not okay, in fact it is a violent crime against the injured. While much media attention has been focused on Donald Trump's use of hydroxychloroquine, another of his suggested cures has met with great success in curing more than 100 patients in Ecuador. Furthermore, they were cured in just four days. The medication used was everyday chlorine dioxide, routinely used in drinking water, although the treatment utilised it intravenously. Research Dr Andreas Kalcker before any mention of his work is taken down.

I am sure that you mean well, but I am not deficient in any drugs and I don't need any drugs in my system. I maintain a very strong perimeter defense and thus my body is too hostile to support a viral breach or even the pH needed for viral survival*. People like Forbidden with still be here long after the masses have grabbed their wonder drugs, thinking (?) that the drug would be their savior. Instead, their quick fix has added another nail to their coffin and further destroyed their compromised immune system with more toxins that add to the body's burdens. FYI, you will now have greater risk of many cancers, hormonal imbalances, weakened passive and active immune function, which are both direct and indirect. *viral survival might be considered an oxymoron since it is not universally considered as a live microbe.

This is an excellent article. The proposal to make a "safer vaccine" supports the natural enhancement of the immune system. So basically, mandatory vaccinations for everyone, where after taking the vaccine everyone will be fine so no one will notice until they are actually exposed to the disease; then everyone who has the vaccine has an amplified effect and get a reaction oddly similar to the "mysterious inflammatory syndrome from complications with the virus that are occurring in children and young teens" - except it will this time be the entire vaccinated planet. self-amplifying?, yes what could go wrong with that? Don't mind those 600 ferrets turning over in their graves. Keep in mind that population reduction and control are the goals. No one has time to wait for cell-mediated immunity. The virus has shown that people can be exposed, get the disease, and develop immunity. People can be exposed and not even be aware they were exposed. That's the way the body works. They want to skip over the body's natural immune response and impose their will which historically has been far less than effective. Actually it has shown substantial damage. Should the people who take this untested, zero liability product be evaluated for suicidal ideation?

Let's do some arithmetic: World population: 7.8B people, 5M infected,  $7.8B/5M = 0.064\%$  of the world's population has been infected World population: 7.8B people, 333,400 deaths,  $7.8B/333400 = 0.0043\%$  of the world's population has died After WWII, 70-85M people perished, the world population was approximately 2.3B  $70M/2.3B = 3.26\%$  You be the judge! To vaccinate the world's population:  $7.8B / 365 \text{ days/year} = 21.4 \text{ million people vaccinated per day}$ . Does anyone think this is possible? Do you think Bill has it under control? I wonder if Bill and company have thought about this. With 1M vaccinators, they would have to each vaccinate 7,800 people each. How long would it take to organize 1M vaccinators? I've also noticed since they've been vaccinated many of their family members not vaccinated get the virus 2 were hospitalized. That's just my clients other coworkers who got the jab have clients with issues from the vaccine. "Vaccines that caused paradoxical immune enhancement initially looked very promising as they produced very robust antibody responses. Yet when exposed to the wild virus, ferrets and children became severely ill and many died . . . ." Where do the vaccine experimenters get children to use as test guinea pigs? It's my understanding that, in the U.S., a minor isn't legally capable of giving permission to be used as a pharma test subject because they're not mature enough to understand and sign legal agreements. Are these kids from developed countries, like the U.S., or do the experimenters get them from third-world countries where children probably don't have legal protections?

el-graf

I believe that Bill Gates, Andrew Fauci, the Deep State (incl. the Georgia Guidestones), and the Super Elite of the world have an agenda to decrease human population by about 90%. This current plannedemic is just the first of perhaps several to come and is meant to acclimate everyone to accepting vaccines as the mode for treating each new virus pandemic. But each new virus will need time for a vaccine to be developed, thus each round of pandemic will reduce total human population by a few percent. Once the population has been reduced to perhaps about 50% of the current figure, the MOAV virus will be released, reducing it to the initially desired 5 to 10% of the current figure.

Just as we were warned by Hollywood movies of a coming attack on the World Trade Center (yes, I know Hollywood's purpose for themselves was to make money), we have been warned in movies about viral pandemics. One could say they were simply arrogantly broadcasting their intentions, but I believe it is a principle that even Satan has to follow. God says that He does nothing before first warning through His servants the prophets. (paraphrase) That is a principle that even the Devil must follow ..... in what ever manner he decides to do it. Hollywood has been one avenue, because we don't really take movies seriously. We have been warning. Your actions or choice of inaction is totally up to you, but I've already made mine.

Just came across this - is it true?

The ever sly Mercola exploits these major weaknesses inherent in most people:

-----He knows most people will not fact check his misleading claims as long as they “sound” true. Couch an outright lie in a morsel of familiar truth and you deceive them every time. Proper vetting and fact-checking takes time and work.

-----He exploits the brain’s dopamine rush people get when they believe conspiracy theories. When it feels so good, and boosts the ego, most people will not want to properly vet points from both sides, specifically from evidence-based sources. Mercola tells his followers not to check out these sources because ..... it’s a conspiracy!

-----Mercola is an emotional button-pusher. He knows most people think with their emotions more than their brain. He publicizes unsubstantiated hysteria and paranoia - anti-vaccine spin or his long list of cancer causes – knowing he can “hook” them emotionally and after a few weeks no one can tell them any different. Pride kicks in and most people will go to any length to avoid admitting they were wrong, especially about such important subjects.

-----Mercola knows people are looking for meaning and purpose in life. Many are spiritually and emotionally bankrupt to some degree. He exploits this by elevating himself as the “truth-teller” and medical hero exposing all the lies of modern medicine. When the target buys in, he or she experiences an existential rush, a quiet, deep-rooted euphoria of being one of the select few who are “in the know”. All religious cults, conspiracy theorists, and alternative medicine practitioners use this method.

-----This one is subtle. Whether Mercola knows it or not, he is exploiting the prevalent human tendency to feel a need to immediately come to an opinion or conclusion on any subject or issue. If the person is brutally honest, he or she knows the counterpoints have not been examined and evaluated. For many people, this just doesn’t matter.

As of 2020-05-22 the CDC data has North Carolina missing week 16 for 2020. The rest of the states are complete. The entire USA has an "excess death" rate about 5.5% (50,331) higher than the 4 year average. It will be interesting to see what the 6, 8 and 12 month rate is. In some online discussions some were suggesting using "excess deaths" to see what effect the covid-19 disease is having and I thought that would be a reasonable approach as it gets past the deaths "with/from" issue. All the data is from this CDC page: gis.cdc.gov/.../mortality.html The script and all related files are here if you want to kick the tires: www.dropbox.com/sh/fh9x5fngmfbeiiu/AAAH-OtOMqiY\_R9qqG6YccCRa?dl=0 The script generates data for all 50 states plus DC and New York City (CDC treats it separately from New York State). The "reports.xlsx" file has the accumulative totals for all reports.

You can consider that this could be the end of the pharmaceutical industry, when they at the behest of B Gates inoculate 60 billion people and 25% die, will the industry be able to spin the disastrous results of an unproven vaccine? B Gates is all about population control through this method. The left could care less as long as they can use taxpayer funds to placate big businesses with to buy their support to enable them to buy the elections needed to control this country, which will set them up as socialist dictators.

I copied this out the above article ""Studies have suggested that coronavirus vaccines carry the risk of what is known as vaccine enhancement, where instead of protecting against infection, the vaccine can actually make the disease worse when a vaccinated person is infected with the virus". Could this be why so many elderly were sick and died from the Covid 19. Being this all started at the time of year the flu vaccine is rolled out world wide, could there have been coronavirus in the Flu Vaccine already. We live in such an evil world nothing would surprise me.

You might be interested to know that a mainstream doctor (the host of MedCram on YouTube) is now questioning why the social media algorithms are deleting any mention of easily available, cheap, natural strategies for increasing immunity against Covid-19, especially since they don't have any side effects. Today's episode examines the increasing evidence that higher blood vitamin D3 levels enhance resistance to the virus, and questions why this information should not be widely available so people can protect themselves. Now I wonder why in May, 2005 someone applied for a "Live Attenuated Coronavirus Vaccine"? Hmmm
Could it be they knew well in advance something was coming down the pipe in a few years?

CMT, that mask prevented you from spraying. Droplets can stay suspended in the air up to 10 minutes. Albeit, a mask does not provide 100% protection.

Who knows what else the vaccine will contain. Given the fact that this will be mandatory, it's got me wondering what Gates and his One World Order are really putting in our bodies. Nanobots to track us, brainwash, make us compliant, remote control us???

Looks like Pfizer is beginning human trials of possible coronavirus vaccine. Please remember ex FDA commissioner Scott Gottlieb who left his post in April 2020 is now a member of the board of drug maker Pfizer. Alex Azar, MD is a former Pfizer lobbyist and currently Secretary of Health and Human Services. It seems strange that it rarely, if ever, gets noted by the commentors.

Chac been going on for years . Check out Donald Rumsfeld he works for Searle Pharma and gets aspartame passed thru the crooked fda in the 80s and goes on to become Defense Secretary of the U S . Where is there a connection between the two . The only thing I can come up with is the more devious deed you can get done the quicker and higher up the ranks you move .Many more examples of these low life cretins being rewarded .Most move from Pharma. positions to govt. position and back again .

hi rose - I listened to Fauci and have listened to his ultra cautious words before about the dangers of this virus - what strikes me is that his words of caution never extend to a rushed novel type of injected material - the vaccine is always suggested as being "safe as mother's milk" - Fauci is a Big Pharma stooge and a Gates sidekick

rrealrose

Hi Stanley, Fauci has at least several known conflicts of interest, including patents on vaccine ingredients or processes, and being on Gates Foundation Board. How can you expect anything else out of his mouth??

Here is the video where Andreas Kalcker tells of the documented 100 people with covid19 in Equador who took chlorine dioxide all recovered in 4 days..the cure is right under our noses but big pharmaand the media has been censoring and trying to discredit this man at every turn.. That's a great video you posted ladyjane. Andreas Kalcker looks a generous spirited man and the results of chlorine dioxide have been fantastic. It is usually the case when anything really helpful for people's health turns up - it threatens Big Pharma's bank balance - and they try and suppress it. Thanks again. Very well worth watching!!

As.I.see.it

Hi CMT367, He is the one pedaling the wonder drug, instead of all the natural effective treatments that don't further depress the immune system, promote breast and prostate cancer (about 40% of all cancers) and adds another MAN MADE toxic chemical for our body to deal with. FYI, CD as well the Chlorine from which it was created make it near impossible for your immune system to function effectively and further neutralizes any perimeter defense you may have. They neglect to mention that CD and Chlorine offer zero benefit, UNLESS you are seriously deficient in iodine, which most people are.

They also don't mention that excess iodine is 'dumped' into all body fluids. Thus no more colds, no more flus and for women, no more UTIs, since Iodine is lethal to all pathogens. Your body fluids are also suppose to harbor secretory Immunoglobulin A's, lactoferrin, enzymes, special proteins and a host of other protective nutrients, so that pathogens can not enter your body and make you sick. Men even have extra protection that is offered from their prostate to protect them from UTIs. Note that both drugs will also kill all pathogens, while often lowering your iodine to serious levels. The choice is yours, support the system that you inherited or take a toxic drug, which will always have undesirable side effects.

Mainstream media is owned by 4 companies same ones that own and control MONEY ,food agriculture worldwide. Worldwide medicines and most governments.....along with militaries and underground Gangs and killing squads....but 99% of the military and gangs don't know or care.....they do it for MONEY The real "Powerhouses" are not people but AI.artificial intelligence.....if you think any human is in control earth than your barking up a tree....AI now runs everything..almost...thats why all earth has towers ....AI controls them all.....Tesla created 'AI' back in the 1940s and chopped up his plans and dispersed a part to his plan to each country....hoping each country would 'get together' and produce his total plan for world Peace...but the %^$^^# grabbed it up and are now ' In Control" ..... this is not a dream its reality.....and if you think "war of the worlds' by HG Wells was imaginary.....better think again....each tower has the ability to do what AI tells it to do..and AI doesn't care about human feelings or human life...all it needs is electricity.....lol.....so pull its plug before it doesn't need electricity form power line . It will absorb Power from .....:) maybe tell ya later.....but its another Tesla creation and AI doesn't have it in operation YET...but it will...and when it does.. earth will be eradicated of 7 billion 'Useless feeders' .....Of course.....Im just an old man living alone in my own little world.....

Stan Laurel is famous for having told Oliver Hardy "another fine mess you've gotten us into" - I think he must have been addressing Bill Gates - because when I look at the state of reality on our once glorious planet I think of it as a "MESS" - how did this arise??- how did the supposed political class become so short sighted that the instant cash provided by Baksheesh Gates is more important than the long term collapse of civilized society that certainly will END most of their careers?? - in his magisterial song "Masters of War" Dylan poses the question - "is your money that good, will it buy you forgiveness?" - my take is that the cheerleaders of Social and Economic destruction will go down with the Titanic - even if they believe that the ship is unsinkable - the Mega wealthy have lost touch with the Joie de Vivre and because they are so dissatisfied they feel that acts of sadism will give them some relief from their burden of Life - here is a link - listen to the words - www.youtube.com/watch

PS. I dedicate this song to Bill Gates especially the line "all the money you make will never buy back your soul" - this is in my opinion the most powerful song that Dylan has left to civilization - www.youtube.com/watch

NewlandsWanderer

Great post Stan,. The mega wealthy have lost touch with the simple and wonderful essence of what it means just to be alive and happy and healthy. Gates could use his wealth to regenerate the earth, bring back good healthy food, protect those who are suffering from drought tackle pollution, a whole long list of extraordinary possibilities..... Instead he has become FIXATED on NEEDLES which he wants to stick in everyone on planet earth. What would Freud and Jung say, I wonder?.

hi there Newlands - "what would Freud and Jung say" - well, I cannot give you a full report from the crypt so to speak ha ha - but what I can say is that Bill's mind is blatantly immature and that the pubescent stage that most children pass through into adolescence did not take place in the development of Gates's psyche - the childish need to satisfy selfish cravings and the resentment that EVERYTHING is not his and the childish demands that everyone must OBEY his dictates - all these unevolved urges are emotionally fixed in righteous "I will be obeyed" determination - unfortunately, Newlands, Bill's psyche has not been able to transcend his childish needs - this combined with a hostility towards the existence of other people imbued by the historical association of Gates's father to an ideology that demands the elimination of billions of people as having no right to fellow existence and you have a pretzel whose name is Bill Gates Junior
