Will a vaccine passport be required to buy food? odysee.com/@iceagefarmer:42/no-vax-no-food-uk-supermarkets-may:4 I have a hunch that lots of vaccinated people are dependent on unvaccinated people for food. Will farmers not be allowed to sell their crops and be told their food is "dirty" because they are unvaccinated? The black market thrives under totalitarian governments. Will govt confiscate land by one means or another? It has not worked out very well in places like South Africa and Venezuela... Will we see even more people dumpster-diving? It looks like a concerted global effort to deprive people of food, fuel, access to commerce and employment, medical care, travel, etc., in an effort to control them.

100 days into the Biden administration and the state of the union is not very encouraging. Southern border crisis, drug smuggling, trafficking up. Increase in price of gas, lumber, food. Dollar down. Job growth lackluster. No longer energy independent and pipelines shut down. Crime up in major cities. First amendment controlled by big tech, second and fourth amendments under attack. Double standard of justice, supreme court will not protect constitution. Resistance and self-reliance are needed at a time like this.

Thanks for the link Almond.

Yes, I think your right about the food & start deprving people of basic needs. The news this week in the Southern U.S. with the cyber attack on the pipeline & gas shortages. I doubt there was really an attack, and Biden this week all too conveniently had a Bill ready to pass to "strenthen" our capabilities against such attacks & domesitic terroism. I would bet money that inside that Bill, should anyone have the time to read it, I am sure there is verbiage taking away more of our rights. He said it was just a coincidence that that Bill was ready to pass when the Pipeline attack happened. I don't buy it.

Evidently not in Michigan, whose extreme covidiot governor has caved, facing a looming anti-vaccine passport bill that has passed committee and would surely hit her desk. Of course she gave the jobs credit for her decision to declare the illusory "pandemic" ending and open up the state after another month and a half of coercion allowing only the fully vaccinated to enter public buildings unmasked with her approval. See my post for more details.

Private farming will be prohibited even in your backyard for "safety reasons." The only way to resist is by using local currencies. Even if that succeeds, they can unleash bioweapons that target populations with specific DNA characteristics. Apparently, they already have the technology, but haven't used it, because the Chinese and the Russians have it, too.

Balhawk, Oregon is the same as Michigan. Tyrannical Governor Brown just announced, "Masks off!!!!.....only for the vaccinated." So those of us healthy, unvaccinated individuals must remain masked, distant and sit outside in the rain eating our pancakes. Bleh! Very much dislike Oregon anymore.

...But not everyone is convinced DarkSide is a legitimate hacking group but rather a cover for a rogue group of CIA hackers.

Natalya Kaspersky, the founder and former CEO of security software firm Kaspersky Lab, made an explosive suggestion in an interview with Russian state-owned domestic news agency RIA Novosti that CIA hackers were actually behind the Colonial Pipeline attack, reported RT News. Kaspersky said the Umbrage team, which is part of the Remote Development Branch under the CIA's Center for Cyber Intelligence, can mask its hackers as outside ones and leave behind the "fingerprints" of the external hackers when it breaks into electronic devices.

WikiLeaks in 2017 shed light on the Umbrage team. At the time, USA Today said CIA operatives "may have been cataloging hacking methods from outside hackers, including in Russia, that would have allowed the agency to mask their identity by employing the method during espionage." Kaspersky pointed out a list "of the countries under whose hacker groups this UMBRAGE is disguised – Russia, North Korea, China, Iran." She claimed that "therefore, it cannot be said with certainty that a hacker group carried out the attack from Russia and that it was not a provocation made themselves from there, or from some other country." www.zerohedge.com/geopolitical/darkside-hackers-reportedly-closing-dow.. Sorry, but I'm with Shannonaz after receiving my representative who did nada, nothing, zilch but promote the covid garbage & play along with the 'insurrection' & Trump & Pence show, with a bunch of former generals egging it on, getting all those people to DC to be manipulated by Antifa folks who were known to be in town.....talking about this bill protecting our infrastructure from attack. Pretty convenient, & what's in that thing?

Meanwhile, pipeline workers are saying something smells because all you have to do in such an instance is manually open the valves, which any operating pipeline company could have ordered done by its employees. It was a supply issue, easily remedied, & short-lived. NOT an environmental disaster.

I agree that something is going on, but frankly, who to trust in this orchestrated dog and pony show of coordinated propaganda is becoming less clear, not more....and it's looking like the goal is to get us to attack one another

“Everything your government has told you about this virus, everything you need to do to stay safe, is a lie.”
Dr. Michael Yeadon.

A lie is something like a virus for the mind. Like viruses, we also move in an environment replete with lies. But also like viruses, it need not be much of a concern with a robust immune system. The immune system for the mind consists of various component systems, not only what we might normally think of as mental functions—critical thinking and the like—and not only various adjunct functions, such as memory and reliable information inputs, but also faculties that may seem less substantial, such as intuitions and “artistic” capacities like pattern recognition and making analogical connections. It is interesting that Dr. Yeadon was distinguished in his field for just such extraordinary development in this area.

Just as the “covid pandemic” thrives in an environment of co-morbidities and weakened immune systems, so too does the pandemic of lies take hold in a weakened mental immunity. And just as the unfit bodies and weakened immunities are the “product” of the same system now threatening our liberties and our very lives, we can say the same thing about the plethora of unfit minds. Society has been set up to be vulnerable to these twin, complementary “pandemics” through the marketing of various “junk foods” for body and mind. What are called “culture” and “education” are increasingly little more than the scrambling and deactivating of mental immunity. Malcolm X said “Only a fool would let his enemy teach his children.” We’re all children in the sense of requiring proper mental rearing, and being susceptible to the implanting of virus-lies by those intent on taking over our minds. The enemy takeover of a mind culminates with the programmed acceptance of that takeover by the victim. Everything after that for the infected mind is simply some variation of arguing for its own enslavement. How many of us are now doing just that?

And how many of us are not, is the corollary question. Lots of us have been onto this from the beginning. When the media only trumpets the lies, you don't know we're here, and we are. Join us, the ones who question the entire narrative.

Darzoum: You perfectly capture "healthy body health mind". You are so right, this is very much a war on the mind. It takes extraordinary confidence, moral conviction, and mental acuity to not only be well read enough to connect the dots, but to even be self aware enough to realize your life depends on it, and maybe even your constitutional freedoms.

Your Malcolm X quote is most fitting of our times. Biden, Fauci, and the clan of the CDC all pouncing on the youth to get them the Covid Vax. And today, I went to the grocery store, and everyone still in masks. Sigh. Even when the corrupt CDC says they don't have to wear them, they still WANT them. There is the proof of a mentally enslaved population.

Billy Bad Bird, Bezo's & all will herd you ever deeper into their Digital Kingdoms, maybe, & if you're worthy, you can add hundreds of billions into their personal fortunes if not trillions of $$$, power & control in their digital networks. Seeing as they will be in control forcing all down the ever narrowing corridors, like live stock to slaughter on the way you can eat their poison slime burgers. Not to worry, you'll learn to like them as you'll probably being eating bark out of desperation. Slime will be a 'fine' addition.

- "If you die within 28 days of testing positive for SARS-CoV-2, you are counted as a COVID-19 death, regardless of other underlying conditions. The same thing was done in the U.S." - Yet if you don't drop dead while they're giving you the jab, it has nothing to do with their gene disruptor.

If allowed to force humanity into a digital/control & banking currency system how can anyone hang on to practice anything sane? One can look at what has happened for thousands of years when dictators move on a native population & then turn on their own once enough power & control is in place. If they'll do it with you - they will do it to you. What are their behaviors? Pass blankets salted with disease to decimate a population. Move in with give them 'gift's' for free, once traditional means are lost, screw them royal. Take out the oldest with the most life experience so the young have no one to point to different ways. Enslave the young healthy adults who are compliant. Destroy the tribes/clans/ family's despite constantly promoting 'family values.' Take away any knowledge for healing, child raising, the first line of defense, our mothers, & grandmothers folk knowledge, folk medicine. Any ability to live in peace with the other tribes, clans or family's in an area. You have to depend on them for "protection."

Darzoum, this is a wonderful analysis. Indeed we suffer from weakened mental immunity. As you state: "The enemy takeover of a mind culminates with the programmed acceptance of that takeover by the victim. Everything after that for the infected mind is simply some variation of arguing for its own enslavement."

This provides an answer to the "why why why" I moan into the silenced air around me, whenever I offer my questionings to those who have been mind-controlled, which is now my entire group of friends and family. (First came the news, which they all watched. Then came the plandemic, which they all believed. Then came lockdowns and masks, including of our children, to which they all complied. Then came Covid deaths, untreated by medical personnel due to banning of effective treatments and pharma buy-off. Then came the vaccines, further controlling the mind with implantable devices with who knows what instructions.) I just heard this one (...like I'm passing on a joke but none of this is especially funny) -- To my noting that the 9th fully vaccinated Yankee just tested positive for Covid, one of my now-tenuous friends replied "That's to be expected." What ????? The mind virus has indeed compromised mental immunity.

I shall close not by saying "Stay Safe" (a ridiculous closing people have adopted since the plandemic) but "Stay Strong". We're it folks, the last line of defense against worldwide madness.

I totally believe everything it says on this article because I was immunology and nutritional science major. However, despite this article is written for the public, most of the people have no science background, they are unable to tell if alternative media or mainstream media is speaking the truth on covid 19 vaccines. It is very sad to me that when I have repeatedly passed on a few alternative media/alternative medicine websites for my friends to look at. Most of them still believe the mainstream media by saying that alternative media are fake. It is even heartbreaking to see that mRNA vaccines are being tested on teens and later on will be the younger children. Even worse is that HIV mRNA vaccines will be roll out under EU as well as more sexually transmitted disease mRNA vaccines will soon be on the market as well as Ebola mRNA vaccines. As long as the mainstream media put out some fake Ebola outbreak with a death rate of 80%, people will rush to take the jabs. More teenagers whose parents believe in the mainstream will take the mRNA vaccines to prevent contracting STDs which they will blindly believe that is TRUE freedom. Instead it will continue to provoke God to bring more wraths to the world. The world government is truly so corrupted.

I need to give up on my friends because I really have no time to read lots of info and summarize the "science part" for them. I am exhausted like many alternative media/Functional medicine practitioners who have been fighting the battle against the big Pharma doing more harms by suppressing the truth. I keep seeing people with autoimmunity, kids with autism, Parkinson's etc.. which can be treated by Functional medicine are only being placed on drugs. The ones that I encounter believe FM is a scam and test is too expensive, because they have been so brainwashed by the mainstream media which promote/sale drugs and try to eliminate FM testing to keep people sick.

It is exhausting. I do not have your Science background but I woke up to everything your saying a long time ago when a friend of mine gave me a book by Christing Northrup, and then again when my daughter was born I researched vaccines before taking her for her shots & that was very revealing, & then started following Mercola & other sites. I was a History major, minor in Political Science....I am a pretty descent researcher & began to see red flags about this scam of pandemic.

What I did not see coming is the sheer ignorance of my family, some friends, and the public at large & how easily they invested in the t.v. & news media. Even sending them simple articles on immunology or encouraging them to pick up a book on the subject, or sending clinical studies pre-covid regarding masks, or videos from Kary Mullis speaking about what the PCR test is...etc etc----all of this was met by such hostility that you would think I was some drunk they met off the streets.

After banging my head against the wall for the last year & on the personal attacks, I have decided to stop putting myself through it & just concentrate on my immediate family. I'm glad I did speak out, even though it has stressed me & isolated me, because someday the History books will look back on this time & wonder why so many were blind. I will feel better to know at least I tried in some small way.

You are not alone. Thank you for trying.

Dear Support The Truth, Thank you for your post. It's extremely frustrating, not to mention negligent, that FM is dismissed by mainstream media and mainstream medicine. Here in the UK, there's literally thousands of patients who have auto-immune or endocrine disruption, and we're constantly being told by the NHS (National Health Service) that there's nothing wrong with us, based on their archaic, basic blood tests, leaving us sick and disabled. Symptoms are dismissed constantly as 'psychiatric' with anti-depressants being 'the cure'. We're being gaslighted and this has been happening for decades. Mainstream media and mainstream medicine and Big Pharma are making us sick - deliberately. There is definitely evil afoot in this world and what better place for it to hide than in the mainstream Health and Social Care Sector.

Posted On 05/20/2021

To your last point about functional medicine, I would like to add an observation: The entire health insurance industry goes along with the pharma and standard of care BS that most doctors offer. They give a list of diagnoses that are "insurable." Most interventions one can take to effectively and safely restore or maintain health are NOT on this list. Of course pharmaceuticals are, along with slash/burn/poison treatments for cancer and many other life-threatening interventions.

Who ultimately pays the bill that feeds the bottom line of pharma, oncology and medical practitioners? Taxpayers.

Medicine today is a scam from top to bottom. Count yourself fortunate if you have found a caring doctor, they are rare. For myself, I have done what I can to self-treat, even bringing myself back from a near fatal condition. I never found a doctor who understood what the problem was, let alone how to treat it.

We had centuries of warning that this was coming to pass. The Bible Revelation 13:17. The vaccine passport is likely to be but a small introductory dummy run to what really lies ahead. We are warned to be vigilant. Clearly states we shall not be able to buy or sell without the mark of the beast. The only people who genuinely learn from history are those who wish to control the 'masses'. Only a small minority will discern the truth.

When governments and their advisors (so called experts) repeatedly tell us that they are following the science - they are indeed correct. They are following behavioural and social science - not the biological or epidemiological sciences! Most people are in a state of intellectual and emotional paralysis induced by the speed and extent of measures applied by governments. An illogical fear results in a state of constant hypervigilance with periodic panic. Governments are employing all the tactics necessary that are recognised to exert tyranny over populations. Constant bombardment with menacing messages, with the promise of a solution equals citizens in their complete abeyance. Pay them off and this bribery assists in drowning out the dissenting voices. Those that haven't already surrendered their faculties will become stripped of them. They will turn on those of us who being alert to the underlying agenda, form a resistance. We will be perceived as a larger enemy than the very virus they have been instructed to fear. This has already stressed relationships with families and friends. Divide and conquer is another well known strategy.

Anyone wishing to understand how they may have succumbed should do a methodological enquiry into behavioural science ' I have barely touched the surface. A useful exercise is to scribe a line down a piece paper and under separate headings of ACTIONS/INACTIONS a pattern of contradictory measures will be evidenced. Not all can be laid at the door of incompetence. A pattern of planned chaos will be evidenced.

Grass roots organizations work well but that takes time, which we do not have. We need a major media source that sends out one uniformed message, a simple & easy to understand message, and then directs all listeners to one SINGLE website with all the details, videos, and studies to view in ONE place. Something like: STOP.CORONA.GENOCIDE.COM

Right now we are too fragmented, too many different independent sources all over the place, no single voice. Like so many, this is personal. I don't sleep well anymore wondering how long I will have with my father who took the Pfizer Vax. I don't sleep well knowing what awaits our young people about to get vaxed. Chris - while understanding your sentiments concerning the paramountcy of the legal system I still have many reservations - it takes two to tango - if you want to uphold a legal control system then FIRST of all tell us how to deal with the illegality of the Corporate Pharma immorality - because Pharma has no moral scruples AT ALL - Pharma is using our conditioned moral mindedness in order to exploit us CRIMINALLY - Pharma controls the politicians and the Judges - all these legal apparatchiks are part of the Criminal Conspiracy that Dr Yeadon describes so eloquently - how is a legal solution to be applied to a neo Nazi totalitarian oppression ?? - I don't think that legality can be upheld in these desperate circumstances - it is impossible to counteract illegality with a bent legal system - legality will have to be redefined when the coup has been defeated by human beings who declare themselves for FREEDOM - there is no other path open as things now stand - humanity is at the crossroads - survival is not guaranteed - hamstringing ourselves with notions of civilized resistance can only work if Pharma plays by the same rules - it is patently obvious that these REPEAT FELONS who annually cause huge amounts of avoidable deaths and suffering will not acknowledge the RIGHT of LAW - all revolutions fight power with power - the goal is to restore legality not uphold what has been abandoned by Corporate Power

My feeling exactly! We, meaning many millions of people around the world, are aware of the situation. We need to quite talking about it and stand together.....WE HAVE NUMBERS ON OUR SIDE. There are no longer countries going to swoop in and save us like WWII, the world wide population needs to form a powerful coalition to form a 'true force' as you say. The positive outcome of the whole world coming together could be a glorious new start to a holistic way of living on this planet.

For this we need leaders.....we know who they are, we have read many articles from them on this site alone.

Might sound kinda goofy but I think a world wide 'mask burning' would be a peaceful symbol of OUR power. Not a big group, tiny groups in peoples back yards all over the world, on a specific day/time, would be a good start to the rebellion, which lets face it, what it would be.....

First we need to find a secure means of communicating, this site is too vulnerable as even Dr. Mercola admits

Another way to assert our power: if there is a supposed flower 'shortage' before Mothers Day, nobody buy flowers, 'shortage' of gas due to a fake hack, don't buy gas, don't buy Chinese products.....the trend of 'buying local' has been building for a while, let's take it to the next level. Forget Walmart, Lowes and Home Depot, go to the farmers market, the local lumber mill, estate sales and auctions.....there is so much 'stuff' on this planet we do not need to buy new, it sucks anyway! And for God's sake quite remodeling your home according to HGTV every 5 years!!!!

ChrisColes - so spot on! To give in to legitimate anger & to act out is a dead end. This is the dreaded 'Mob' who they hope to create just like they create poverty & scarcity. The whole narrative 'we have to feed the world' is just more Bull Spit as it is their actions creating hunger, starvation while untold tons of foods can rot for all kinds of lame reasons. Worse, those in the most trouble are prevented from engaging in proper Ag. The same applies here only towards keeping in place a dis-ease maintenance system plus adding massive layers of their distorted, disconnected, delusional approach to Life. When we build local we pull the Weeds of Greed and stop feeding their bloated power & influence.

Corruption is a virus. Lies are a virus. Doing what positive things we can closer to home are antibody's & immunity to Power Sickness. If we act out it just legitimizes Shock & Awe tactics against the general public, Feeds their unworthy position..

Stan, your point is taken, it is extremely difficult to use their legal system to herd them in. It leaves us with direct action meaning whatever healthy positive things we might achieve here on the ground. A lot of Ghandi & a struggle to reclaim what is our birthright as Human Beings.

Danny, when you react with violence you only make the recipient of said violence a "martyr!" This is playing right into their hands---we don't need to make their positions any more sympathetic to the people!

I think one constructive action is to financially support people like R. Fuellmich and Robert Kennedy Jr., who are tackling freedom violations at the legal level. There are so many small non profit groups working to bring awareness to people, do you think if these journalists, attorneys, doctors, organizers etc....were to join forces and work under one large umbrella, greater traction would be achieved? Big news corporations exert so much control over the average person's thinking, that we need a powerful opposing force with gathering momentum to antidote the poison that is being spread.

'OK so WE meaning all of us who want to stop the escalating controls placed upon us...'

as above so below. if we do not want to be controlled, poisoned, enslaved, devalued, violated, traumatized by those (godforbid) above us we must not do so to those whom we consider to be 'below' us - ie children, flora, fauna etc. mankind will not evolve past heinous crimes perpetrated upon them until mankind no longer perpetrates such crimes on others - the animals, as an example. do not inflict on another what you do not want inflicted upon you. until all life is seen as valid and inviolate no life will be seen as such. i think it cannot be and should not be any other way.

if amazon, google, and all institutions are not beneficial to us or to other life forms then we cannot in good conscience or consciousness support them. who is willing to live according to their highest values? we can blame those outside of us forever and ever while we disregard the lives of those we feel 'do not matter'. along those lines, we do not matter.

grosvenor, I totally understand your plight.... me and my wife have been thinking hard and have come up with what we think will (a little) work.... we've decided that "lies" are tolerated, even preferred by the sheep.... so lies it will be... we've said that we both got the shot "last Friday" and have been sick ever since... God, we felt soo bad!... we don't know but are wondering if the cure is actually worse than the disease??... When asked if we will get the next shot, we say, God No, it'll probably kill us!... we're just so afraid and confused!!... So far most of our neighbors are kind of scared for us. We come in the house and giggle.

Very nicely said, my fellow Aussie friend :-) But I don't think the resistance to this totalitarianism will be possible without someone's help, someone very powerful. So, if there is God, now is the time for him to act. People are too reliant on the system, as you've said, it's been going on for a long time.

ChrisColes I agree about avoiding violence.

But as far as quiet, judicious law breaking when helpful or necessary I'm fine with that now.

Black markets, counterfeit passes, refusal to do X when the state mandates it....

There is no longer any real law of the land. When everything is illegal, nothing is.

Morality is another thing. We must always remain moral.

But the oligarchs reward evil and punish good. Virtue requires disobedience in such a system.

Mike Yeadon is a scientist of the highest integrity and with enormous courage. There are many like him but you don't hear them unless you actively go looking for them. This is World Freedom Day and over 40 countries are marching for freedom. We are not alone. It won't be posted on 'the news' but it will be on all the independent platforms. To paraphrase Margaret Mead, 'it only takes a small percentage of people to create enormous change'. We don't need everyone to wake up, we just need enough and for them to be vocal.

I tend to agree with Yeadon's arguments against Covid....but isn't he part of the system that culminated in corporate pharma & big money monopoly, centralization & control? How is the 'answer' uniting in a global monopoly, centralizing union & control? Truth is a powerful antidote.

Would also comment that Meade was a bored rich girl wanting to justify her divorce, chafing against societal & God's hindering of her desire not through prohibition, but simple censure & a competing narrative to the one she promoted which she didn't want to tolerate. She went about it by promoting lies about the tribal mores of the Samoans because as a white rich gal at the time she could get away with it!

Interestingly, when the elders of Samoa protested her 'work' and her 'observations', the great liberal interest of the socialists with similar goals dissolved, & attention was focused elsewhere. Meade became a media & academic darling, & died a miserable, complaining wretch BTW...her victory bringing neither her nor her society any real advances, peace, joy or contentment. But the party line of demoralization with regard to sexuality was promoted: ideals of infidelity, promiscuity & survival of the fittest in which women & children always fare the worst in the carnal fallout.

She created enormous change, along with a small percentage of people like Margaret Sanger, HG Wells, the Huxley's, Gamble's, Kinsey, a crew of Paperclip scientists, Tavistock control freak manipulators, etc backed by big money alright.....but the change was from human dignity to survival of the fittest where those with the power & most cunning make the rules, and justify them, no input from the 'little people' or hindering evidence from truth required, or permitted. Hardly a role model for true liberty which involves responsibility & self control in line with truth.

They actually know something that the other half doesn't. For the wide-awake it has been rather obvious since April 2020 that the whole of Corona event didn't make any scientific sense and that it was and still is riddled with glaring inconsistencies. Governments across the world suspiciously also reacted in a well choreographed fashion, seemingly using the "pandemic" as an excuse to introduce measures that were expressly aimed at moving us towards a form of totalitarian control.

I have watched the former Big Pharma man Mike Yeadon develop over the past year and while he was always sceptical of what was going on, he was initially quite willing to give governments the benefit of doubt. He now sees things as they really are and unsurprisingly he is a shocked as well as a worried man. The only issue real I have with him today, is that he still sees the Covid vaccines as offering some benefit to the very old and frail, whereas to me it seems fairly clear, that these are the very people who are dying in their droves soon after vaccination. Yeadon is almost certainly correct when he talks about depopulation and alarm bells should have been ringing loudly for all of us, when the the arch advocate of depopulation i.e. Bill Gates was also the man behind all of the vaccines that are in mass use across the western world. Mike Yeadon is brave, as well as intelligent and like Dr Mercola, he now needs all the support we can give.

Reading the comments above about what we can do. I tend to agree that "grassroots" can work. In the modern world we know that social media is rapid however, being silenced. So lets go really back to basics. Form a collective, buy land along the major freeways, install billboards (that the collective owns), and get information out there. If we just buy current billboard space, I am afraid that just like social media, it would be shut down so the reason we own the land, the billboard, the information. As I read my last sentence I realize how horrible this has become, as that is what the governments are doing, owning the control of information.

Another idea is to support decentralized blockchain communication. I know Qortal as advertised on Green med info is in the process of creating this. I watched the discussion with Sayer Ji and one of the Qortal creators, unfortunately I didn't understand the nuts and bolts of it, it didn't seem user friendly for someone like myself who is not techy, but I think it will become more user friendly in time. Also, the description wasn't clear enough for me at least, but I think the idea is amazing on the surface, and has potential to bypass the censoring that is destroying democracy.

As always Dr. Mike Yeadon has led the alternative narrative of this COVID hoax. I have listened to him for over a year now. Declined the experimental biological, age 70. I believe every word he says, they are many others who do as well. However, at the same time I can see the scare tactics in the USA and uk have been and are incredibly effective. Family who have had COVID, now taking the vaccine. Convinced they need it. It is heartbreaking so many doctors who no better are recommending this. And then there is the stupid leadership in the USA and uk leading the charge. I am sticking to my choice while I can . My job is to pass this info on to as many people as I can.

I read a quote recently: "And my concern is, because people will not deal with the possibility that anyone is so evil...we will lose"..... CDC endorsed use of Pfizer Covid-19 Vaccine in teens aged 12-15 this week, clearing the way for 17 million young teens to be vaccinated. www.msn.com/en-us/news/us/cdc-panel-endorses-use-of-pfizer-covid-19-vaccine. This week, Fauci said: "Teens are less likely to develop serious Covid-19 than older adults, but vaccinating this group is a critical part of ending the pandemic....we really do need to crush the outbreak, and you do that by essentially interrupting the chain of transmission; adolescent kids are apart of the chain of transmission"

That's funny, because in October of 2020 Fauci said on camera "In all the history of respiratory-borne viruses of any type, asymptomatic transmission has never been the driver of outbreaks" (see video snip) www.youtube.com/watch CDC website: "Most children with Covid-19 have mild symptoms or have no symptoms at all" ----in other words, they are asymptomatic.

Michael Yeadon's warning holds weight like no other. I am the most scared now than I have ever been, his words are chilling considering the source. If this is a genocide in the making, and this is a kill shot, then our children & teens are next on the firing line. www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/daily-life-coping/children/symptoms... We need a wide reaching non-censored media source NOW. Any ideas who & where this could come from? This is so upsetting, God help us all.

It is criminal to inject anything into healthy children that will certainly result in serious injury and death in a percentage of them, and will cause long term harm for others. It is really, really, mind-blowing that this is happening to beautiful young children and teenagers who are still innocent and trusting, taking for granted adults will protect them, when in fact they are just fodder for the appetites of adult greed and corruption. And now we must cross the Rubicon. What to do when a UK employer in the state sector asks the employee for proof of 'vaccination'? As the main breadwinner, all family finances depend on her salary coming in every month. Does she refuse and invoke the Nuremberg Code, the law on informed consent, the experimental nature of an injection that does not even claim to prevent infection or does she concoct some medical reason why she cannot take injections? Is the employer relying on her assuming that the State has a right to demand proof of 'vaccination'? Should she risk telling the truth, what is her legal standing as an employee? www.nhs.uk/.../consent-to-treatment

Oh Cabochon, that is awful - but it is a question we will all have to answer to a greater or lesser extent at some point with being hounded by our local GPs to take this stuff - so we had better all think about it in advance. Everyone is vulnerable somewhere.... so we need to make our own decisions based on our own circumstances.

I do remember the advice (now presumably deleted due to threats suffered by Dr M) given by him a few months ago on what to do if someone had already had the meds and now regretted it, which was to take the supplements already recommended for the actual bug. I don't remember anyone saying they had tried this.

I did try his advice last March when I got the bug itself, and his advice worked well for the actual bug (and I have half a dozen co-morbidities, and I didn't get pneumonia either, which is all to the good in my view, and which has nearly killed me before!). My only caveat would be don't stop taking the Lipsomal Vit C at high doses until around three days after you think you are clear and well again - I did and it roared back and so took me longer to splat the bug in the long run!

For your hypothetical state worker, it would also depend on the sympathies of her employer, and her GP - and if she is a leader - does she belong to a union perhaps (they SHOULD support her right to decide as an individual, but these days who knows)....

Posted On 05/15/2021

Cabochon, I do hope your hypothetical person - or all of us - would read Dr M's next article on NAC and stock up - later down the article it shows NAC's benefits, particularly to women, and how it can help fight off bugs... which is why they think it is being banned at this time, despite being around safely for 57 years.

Posted On 05/15/2021

Thanks for your understanding and advice, Jennycat. I saved Dr M's post-injection protocol and sent it to those who had their first injection or were contemplating it. It includes supplements D3, K2, NAC, zinc, Vit C, quercetin, magnesium, B vits and melatonin, plus herbs such as licorice and andrographis, enhanced sleep, sunlight, reducing emfs plus of course a fresh unprocessed diet of real food.

Sadly the case I described is anything but hypothetical and is quite urgent. I had hoped for a contribution from Mercola readers to devise a plan of action. While we are all up to speed with Agenda 21, thanks to the generosity of Dr M in sharing his research, there remains the now pressing matter of how to cope with the reality of the choices we face in the present political climate. Your suggestion to get Union support is a good one and I will pass that on. Fortunately, her family is complete and she will not have the added dilemma of fertility issues mentioned by Dr Yeadon. A threatened legal action might be counterproductive at the end of the day and more than likely the employer would dispense with her job on some other excuse. I don't believe you have to give a reason for refusing a medical intervention according to the NHS.

Re NAC, the dirty tricks brigade have been trying to ban all sorts of nutritional supplements for decades or have them reclassified etc, I'm not too bothered by their antics. When they are dishing the dirt on even their own effective pharmaceutical drugs such as Hydroxychloroquine and Ivermectin, it simply confirms the evil nature of their agenda.

What it's going to take is a few personal injury lawsuits from vaccine injured employees against employers who have demanded vaccination of their employees. and then maybe these employers and airlines and similar entities who demand vaccination may back off. And rethink their "mandate"

I don't think that private companies are included in the sweeping non-liability clause that the pharmaceutical manufacturers have. If we get that message out to people maybe they'll be less scared and conduct more pushback on employers who are demanding vaccination of employees or patrons.

If antibody is less effective against respiratory viruses like SARS Cov-2, how is it possible to prevent other viral diseases like smallpox and rabies with antibody-producing vaccination?

Posted On 05/21/2021

HeLaCellChaos666

If memory serves, smallpox is a very stable & rather large DNA virus not prone to mutation (too busy/lazy to look this up for confirmation).. that may make it more susceptible to the body's antibody response... That said.... No vaccine has ever been proven safe/effective in double-blind studies involving placebo... I'm thinking that smallpox was 'defeated' simply thru a combination of rapid identification and common-sense quarantine measures... bearing in mind that people suffering from small-pox are very recognizable... Doubtless there are weaponized versions of smallpox sitting in level-4 bio-lab freezers ... AND COMING, sooner or later, to a theater near you...

ALAS... Anything virologists/vaccine makers/Faustian scientists ostensibly DO, in 'service of humanity' ... they UNDO, 100 fold, NEIGH MORE... First by creating a plethora of autoimmune and neurological disorders, including vaccine-induced Autism... Secondly, by wreaking havoc with reproductive health, as HCG laced tetanus vaccine attests... Thirdly, by unleashing wave after wave of newfangled zoonotic contagions (SV40, Marburg, HIV/Retrovirusgate, SARS Cov2, yadda, yadda) reminiscent of that 'pale horse' in the book of Revelation

I am totally opposed to what they are calling "the shot" because it is nothing but a complete experiment by people who have no real clue about what will happen. They work on "theory" not fact. The terrible side effects that are occurring and the number of "shot related deaths" is being suppressed by the government and all media outlets because they just keep increasing like when an experiment has gone wrong. Based on the Salk Institute research "the shot" seems to be acting just like the "bio-weapon" it was always intended to be. Tony Fauci has been working on it for the Pentagon for decades. Bill Gates is the most famous "global depopulation proponent" alive today except for possibly the C.C.P. Something these reprobates haven't thought through is when the population is devastated by their runaway plan, who will still be alive to enjoy it? This viral attack on humanity does not discriminate. People are dying with or without "the shot".

This is exactly what every Doctor who has spoken up against warned against. There is no information I can find how many of the people who are getting sick and dying have received the inoculation. If any one has this information, please share. Ponder this; in possibly two months a quarter of India's population gone. And now the UK is suffering close to the same but not as horrific from what I understand. I have no clue what is true and what is not because information is stilted, denied, refused, confiscated. The old medicines work. The patents may have run out. Big Pharma can't make money. In steps their savior Anthony Faucteeth who now has to PAY them back for all the help funding him.

But the drug is experimental. So this either has to be about money or the sick agenda of KILLING off a lot of people because someone thinks they are TOO much people in the world.

If the latter comes true Faucteeth and Pharma executives need to be arrested, and jailed, or hanged.

Add Bill Gates to the list requiring the justice described. Skip jail - go straight to public hangings. Gates clearly stated in a TED talk that the world needs to be depopulated because of climate change. How will this be accomplished - vaccinations. Absolutely astounding no one asked "Aren't vaccination programs supposed to keep people alive?" Sheeple.

Unless it's a Freudian slip by Bull Gates some say that because third world countries have so many kids is because they lose so many of them to disease, thus, supposedly Gates was inferring they won't have as much kids because they are being vaccinated and will become like the West in having children.

All the military, policemen and other law enforcement groups should be informed and educated as to what is happening for they are all human beings like us they all have a family that they love and care , they will understand the ramifications of all of this.

In Toronto about a month ago, the police refused to follow the order of the province primer (Ford) to do spot check on the people on the street. The primer later issued an apology.

We Are the regular everyday people. , not millionaires, or those with a title of Recognition . I have asked before the same question. I see truly no way to stop the government, politics, big Pharma, the lies, etc. Common sense people that has stayed awake from the beginning, and those who are finally seeing this colossal of lies have finally awoken. Who’s going to be the one to address and stand with the ones who are not willing to accept what we all know is “The Agenda “ “Their” agenda to gain control over every aspects of our lives?

I have come to the conclusion that this is cyclic. It happens to every generation. As much as many of us try to fight it; it seems that the 'truth' and the power lies in the Gospel. I know, I know so many of us are freaked out by religion. Reading through it makes perfect sense. Understanding that the second world war was no different to this is the most heartbreaking understanding. All those lives lost for what? Just propaganda making brother kill brother. Same formula; different generation. So what will save us? TRUTH. As another poster pointed out; this is junk food for the mind. We must keep our minds clean and focused and prevent fear from creeping in.

Dog7852: Elon Musk comes to mind, and he is richer than Gates & has spoken out against Gates.

Although i'm not thrilled with some of his ideas, i.e. merging chips with our brains, and it is hard to know where he truly stands on things, one thing we do know is true is that he has consistently been against lockdowns, against the Vaccine & said him & his family would not be taking it, and he recently got out of California & moved his business to Texas. He backtracked a little on the Vaccine, but for a year was against it, so maybe he is being pressured.

His stint on Saturday Night Live last weekend was interesting due to the timing of it. I almost get the sense he is trying to build up his image with the public....but why now? Don't know, but my instinct tells me something is up with him. If the richest man in the world has been against the Covid Vax for a year, that has to mean something, now whether he does anything to push back against Gates & his clan, we will see.

I have been a long time reader of this site. We are very fortunate for the information that is provided. I am an RN and was a manager in a large health care organization and was very involved with caring for a large elderly population when this virus surfaced. I did a lot of reading/research and soon realized that what we were being told from the CDC was totally questionable and is now very evident that we were/are being fed lies, thank you StanleyBecker. This article brings clarity to what I learned from my research. I retired last year and we now live in a 55+ community. I believe the inoculation rate here is 70+ %. My wife and I will not be vaccinated. I had an opportunity to interject a comment to 3 other people who were vaccinated that the shot did not confer immunity nor stop the spread, but might mitigate symptoms. I could see from their blank stares that this went against the narrative that they were functioning under. Thanks again Dr. Mercola!

Guh...I'm sure you have noticed the goal posts were shifted the past few days by CDC on injection and "conferred" immunity? I've heard several psa announcements in past 24 hours say as such as well. So now the sheep are being told they have conferred immunity so IF true why would those injected ever fear a non masked person now? Not that they should of before this most recent goal post shift, but just saying.

I can't reply to brodiebrock12 directly so I'll add my comments here. It stretches the imagination that anyone believes these charlatans. The old west snake oil salesmen would truly be envious!

The reason they TRY to keep genetic sequencing of SARS -CoV-2 virus hidden (quickly censoring researchers who publicize it) is this is tantamount to smoking gun evidence that the virus (again with 4 novel HIV inserts) was made in a lab...Again SARS-CoV-2 virus was patented, long before it emerged in human populations, there's your first clue ... AND what about that Event201 , simulated coronavirus pandemic (reminiscent of 9/11 War Games), attended by Bill 'Gates of hell', George Soros, reps from the World Economic Forum, Big Pharma CEOs, reps from John's Hopkins, various G20 nations, yadda yadda, just a couple of weeks before that Wuhan 'fear porn' started hitting MSM Newsflash: Big Pharma had that mRNA vax 'fix' (as per the Hegelian: Problem -> Reaction -> Solution) at the ready (replete with PATENTS in hand), long before the pLademic hit... Similarly, Lockdowns/Medical Martial Law, along with that Neo-Marxist 'Great Reset/Great Culling' are all part & parcel of that Georgia Guidestones depopulation eugenics agenda, literally written in stone...

Again shades of 9/11, an occult hierarchy, led by the Rothschilds and Rockefellers can't help leaving cryptic clues to their crimes, prior to the fact... See Dean Koontz's 1981 book 'The Eyes of Darkness' whose plot centers on a bioengineered virus (dubbed Wuhan-400) which sparks a global pLademic ... See Bill Ryan's cryptic warning (circa 2009) that, 'China catches a cold' (cold = coronavirus).

Word is George Soros owns a lab in Wuhan China... Tony Fauci was involved in 'viral gain of function projects' both in the US and Wuhan China...Gain of function = adding an HIV derived spike protein to a SARS virus, same spike protein coded for in synthetic mRNA used for Covid-19 'vaccines' ... Even CDC admits 2 previous SARS-like viral outbreaks came from bio-labs... SARS-CoV-2 is just another in a long line of weaponized SARS-like Coronaviruses, some sitting idly in freezers, BUT coming soon to a theater near you...

Posted On 05/15/2021

In all likelihood, the shots were tweaked and updated versions of the original SARS vaccines; either hardly used or never used, depending on location...after all SARS Cov-2 is a close overlap, nearly 80% identical. This is what makes the variant discussion pure theater. Can you just hear the money changing hands?

Soros' foundation sold the Wuhan lab just prior to the scam. Weasel Fauci and many others were deeply involved in the original HIV research back in the 80's & 90's.

I don't recall exactly when I started to realize how our lives are controlled by the very people we elect to represent us. We are a representative republic that was hijacked long ago and those who chose to expose the hijacking were terminated and continue to be silenced. Land suitable for food crops is being bought up by Gaytz and foreign countries, chem trails will be used to control our soil's growth possibilities in home gardens and homesteads. Chemicals also sprayed in the air will control our weather patterns. Sound like a bad sci-fi movie. We're already living it. These are not conspiracy theories, folks. A very recent post of mine asked how far the keepers of the lie can move the goal posts before they run out of space. In Michigan, evidently they have run out of space.

Michigan's pharma stooge governor has in effect admitted defeat while declaring victory. With a bill banning vaccine passports having passed committee and looming on the state house floor, where it's sure to pass and hit her desk, the idiot in chief has cut and run by opening up the state to the fully vaccinated (no mention of those who had the disease and don't by any logical measure need the vaccine even if it performed as billed), with the state to be opened up fully by July 1.

Predictably, she gave the jabs credit for stopping a "pandemic" that was a conditioned mass delusion in the first place, though I'm virtually certain she has believed in it all along, just as she believed in the success of the jabs even though the rates increased during their implementation despite far lowered (mis)diagnosis criteria. But anybody with a lick of sense knows the success of Florida and political consequences are the actual reason for her decision to open things up.

So now, having thus far failed to coerce about 45% of the people to get these toxic jabs and unlikely to sucker 15% more in the face of this massive hard sell, ready availability, and propaganda blitz, they've in effect circled the wagons to protect the lie.

Now, what will happen next time a "bug" hits the vaccinated far worse than those who have not bought in?

I'm sure the plans for that misinformation and propaganda campaign are in the works in places she only thinks of as the "guardians of health", as more stooge/believers cut and run from this situation before they ran out of space to move the goal posts yet again.

Yes? She is not running the show. As I mentioned before, you need to watch Dr Fauci's next statement, 1 or 2 days later look for echos across the media and White House, usually out of Biden's mouth. Not always, Then watch later for the governors to start changing and adjusting to that statement - noticeably occurring this way since last summer or earlier, except Trump was not closely following Dr. Fauci, pattern sort of hidden until Biden took office mid-January.

She's definitely not running the show in a larger sense, and for all I know is just as completely and utterly ignorant of the facts as any dupe. The perfect stooge for Big Pharma, whose family, I've heard, owns one of the largest "health insurance" (which should be called "ill health insurance") providers in the area, Blue Cross. But nonetheless, however she may spin it, I clearly see it as backing down... for now.

Here is one more reason Snopes is no longer reliable. Did Michael Yeadon Say COVID-19 Vaccine Will Kill Recipients Within 2 Years? The former pharmaceutical employee has spouted widely discredited conspiracy theories. - By Madison Dapcevich - Published 5 May 2021 - Many of the claims Yeadon made in the video are unfounded and lack scientific or empirical evidence, but because he did say that the COVID-19 vaccine will kill recipients within two years, we rate this claim as a "Correct Attribution."

Snopes was never 'reliable'. It is a self-affirming site, like wikipedia, that the liberal propaganda machine (CNN and others) utilize to reinforce their fake news. For example, look up Zero Hedge on wikipedia. It states Zero Hedge is an extreme right wing site rife with conspiracy theories...which is false. Look up CNN on wikipedia. No mention that it is extreme left or that it promulgates conspiratory theories (like the Russian hoax against Trump). Braindead liberals see something on CNN. Then go to snopes or wikipedia to follow up and see the same message and are duped into thinking the cnn story has been externally verified. Instead cnn, snopes and wikipedia are coordinating their propaganda.

Snopes was probably a valid operation for about the first week it existed and was bought out by the liberals. That is what happened to the Kelly Blue Book and Edmunds automobile information sites. Originally users got the truth. But quickly the car dealers associations bought them out because the car dealers did not want the real truth about prices, which is what most people were searching for, to become public. Now what users get is what the car dealers want you to get..... their version of the truth.

This will all lead to the fulfillment of Revelation 13:16 - 18, "And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six."

The Bible is true, God really does exist, Jesus Christ is the Only Begotten Son of God, and He really did come to earth to pay the penalty for your sins so that you can receive the forgiveness of your sins and be covered by His righteousness for entry into Heaven. In order to be allowed into Heaven you need the RIGHTEOUSNESS of JESUS CHRIST. You get covered by the righteousness of God and ALL your sins [past present & future] forgiven, when you realize and understand that you are a sinner, and unrighteous and unholy and thus deserve to spend eternity in the fires of hell as punishment for your sins AND THEN you realize and understand that you need to have ALL your sins forgiven and be covered by the righteousness of God to be allowed into Heaven, AND THEN you realize and understand that there is NOTHING you can DO or SAY to achieve this on your own merit AND THEN you BELIEVE and TRUST will all your heart that, JESUS CHRIST died on the cross on Golgotha and He shed HIS BLOOD so that you may have eternal life. JESUS CHRIST was our perfect blood sacrifice for the complete forgiveness of our sins [past present & future]. He effected substitutionary blood atonement for us unto GOD The Father. JESUS CHRIST took your sins upon Him, and GOD The Father's wrath and anger for your sins rested on JESUS CHRIST. After JESUS CHRIST died, He was buried and rose up back to life on the 3rd day, for your justification [because His blood sacrifice and death 2 pay for your sins were accepted by God the Father].

I have wondered for decades as I watched the world's economies (all running on unbacked currencies) grow deeper and deeper in debt, how would the world save itself? What will governments do. In September 2019 when the bank repo market nearly failed. And soon after the China Covid-19 virus and the confusion over what this virus means. A totally new virus? Evidently not. Why would this "conspiracy" be true? Because the world economy is failing. Because there are some very wealthy powerful people who wish to dream up a solution. Are we witnessing their solution?

Let me tell you what happened to me. I am 72 & way way past menopause. I saw a male friend.....yes we did. And 2 days after he left I started bleeding for about 24 hrs, then it cleared up. Light blood but I knew it was him because he had the 2 Pfizer shots & I had no vaccinations. The first link is from Pfizers' own protocols for vaccine testing on volunteers. Just go to page 67 to see their warning of volunteers getting around pregnant/breast feeding women.

Watch the first video here of the doctor's conference. It will explain everything. Good luck to you, friend.

look at the following quote "Given that this virus represents, at worst, a slightly bigger risk to the old and ill than influenza, and a smaller risk [than influenza] to almost everyone else ... it was never necessary for us to have done anything. We didn't need to do anything. [We didn't need] lockdowns, masks, mass testing, vaccines." I live in the state of indiana and this virus is worst than the flu by far. We have had over 13000 killed by this virus, flu never did anything like that. We never needed to lock down to keep the sick from over flowing the medical systems for the flu. This quote looks like BS to me. More fact check is needed!

Oh Well! Maybe what you outlined here is what's about to happen (population control) but one thing is for sure; I WILL NOT be getting that shot! As of today I have not been "sick" in any way since September 2019 and I have none of the co-morbidities and will continue with my personal health regiment! No thank you Pfizer, Moderna, Astra-Zeneca and Johnson & Johnson!

@Javed Quote: 'If you have pneumonia with phlegm (wet cough) the constant expulsion of the phlegm is #1 life saving necessity. You can't cough it out laying flat in the bed and intubated.'

Yup, totally agree. I thought ,from the get-go, that many Covid deaths were directly related to ventilators, for the very reason you implied (edit: high oxygen & forced air can also damage lung tissue, especially if it's already inflamed, never mind that intubation/hospital settings can also be a source of 2ndary opportunistic infection) ... Also, less some forget, many 'Covid' sufferers, in long-range care facilities, were reportedly denied food & water, which some have taken to calling, 'The Geriatric Genocide' ... More signs of a thinly-veiled depopulation agenda?

I had what I'm convinced was Covid19, circa January of 2020, BEFORE it officially arrived in North America....sick for weeks... Went to a doctor who prescribed a puffer + antibiotics (never took either)...Back then, they weren't testing for Covid, unless you said you'd been out of the country & even then sputum samples had to be shipped off to the level4 biolab in Winnipeg for testing... I know, I researched this at the time... Wound up with what I'm convinced was an opportunistic 2ndary bacterial infection (apparently fairly common with Covid)... was coughing up huge wads of je ne sais quoi? Thick long strings, like from a tube of toothpaste, from deep in my lungs... Was never tempted to go anywhere near a hospital, convinced that this could be the kiss of death...My grandson, who's half native, kept bugging me to let him burn sage, think it was? Finally relented. Anyway he helped me thru it. He got it, ditto his girlfriend, ditto her parents, ditto my stepson. Insofar as I know, everyone else had fairly mild symptoms...

FYI: I've been talking about this HeLa Cell/ Polio vaccine/AIDS connection since the spring of 1992, and even had a phone conversation with Tom Curtis about it, in the autumn of that same year. Curtis is the author of the infamous Rolling Stone article, 'The Origin of AIDS.' Curtis said that I wasn't the first to tell him this. He said (I'm paraphrasing) that, that honor belongs to a lay-scientist named Billie Goldberg. I talked to Billie, again by phone, and she denied it. Only years later did I learn Tom Curtis was right. Billie had said it. Indeed, if memory serves, Billie Goldberg wrote a paper about it, way back in 1991.

Incidentally, I also talked to Jon Cohen, who wrote a blurb (in 'Science', think it was?), 'pooh-poohing' Curtis' OPV-AIDS origin hypothesis. But as soon as I mentioned HeLa cell contamination to Cohen, he seemed to throw in the towel. Only offering a rather sheepish, 'Well at least they (presumably, he meant the pioneers of polio vaccine?) were trying to do a good thing.'

From my perspective, Salk, Sabin, Koprowski et al. were criminally negligent glory hounds, far more interested in a Nobel Prize than potentially saving lives. Do the pioneers of polio vaccine have the blood of millions (neigh tens of millions) of innocents on their hands? Can a swim duck? ENOUGH SAID

'RETROVIRUS-GATE' From XMLVRV to HRV-5 (human retrovirus 5?), Human T-Cell Leukemia Virus/HTLV-1,2, MS associated retrovirus, Human Teratocarcinoma-derived virus, Permanent Human Fibroblast Virus/PMFV, Schizophrenic Retrovirus SZRV, Mason Pfizer Monkey Virus/MPMV (human version), Porcine Endogenous Retrovirus/PERV (human version), AND MORE... a veritable Pandora's box of newfangled retroviruses appeared in humans, beginning in the late 50's/early 60's, seemingly coinciding with the advent of human tissue culturing. For all of the above, the common denominator imo is HeLa cell contamination of substrates used for vaccines (& we could say something similar about dna viruses like SV40, filoviruses like Marburg & Ebola, along with paramyxoviruses like Human Syncytial Virus, all of whom made the zoonotic leap, pursuant to a combination of viral contamination of vaccine substrates & HeLa cell culture mix-ups imo).

So what about HIV? HIV-1 has 3 major subtypes (types M, N & O), HIV-2 has 7 major subtypes. In other words, HIV is really 10 different viruses, all of them making the zoonotic leap, from primates to humans, at roughly the same time and in the same geographic locale, namely sub-Saharan Africa circa the time of Hillary Koprowski's mass polio vaccine trials. Can retroviral lightning strike 10 times, in quick succession, in the same place? It can indeed IF you add HeLa cell contamination of CKT (Chimpanzee Kidney Tissue) vaccine substrates to the mix, again imo. Back in the early 20th century, childhood cancer was extremely rare. Since 'RETROVIRUS-GATE' the incidence of childhood cancer has grown exponentially. Coincidence? I think NOT! Again, for more, see Michael Gold's book, 'A Conspiracy of Cells'

Lakhana13, QUOTE : 'AT LEAST! thirty - 30! - CLINICAL STUDIES proving mesothelioma is a direct result of the Simian Virus 40 that was in polio vaccines. Dr Judy Mikovits book, "The Plague of Corruption" is a gold mine of info on her work in finding a monkey virus found in vaccines that led to Chronic Fatigue Syndrome and Fibromyalgia.'

@Lakhana13... There's little doubt Polio vaccines, contaminated with SV40 virus, have a human cancer connection. Still Dr Judy Mikovitz doesn't (insofar as I know) blame SV40 for the Chronic Fatigue Syndrome epidemic; she thinks the causal agent is XMLVRV (Xenotropic Murine Leukemia Virus Related Virus), a retrovirus originating in mice, which probably made the zoonotic leap (from mice to men) by way of Mouse-HeLa cell chimeras. Back in the late 50's and early 60's, human cancer cells, code named HeLa, overran fully 2/3rds of all tissue cultures worldwide.... Course this was before the days of DNA testing... The SV40 contaminated monkey kidney tissues, that Salk originally used as substrates for his polio vaccine, showed characteristic HeLa cell markers...Coincidence? I THINK NOT! Like miniature typhoid Mary's, ONLY FAR MORE DEADLY, HeLa cell cultures, under optimal conditions, doubled in size every 24 hours. HeLa cells also had an incredible affinity for adopting alien viruses and spreading them (via pipette, air circulation systems, or what have you) from one tissue culture to another... Inadvertently using HeLa cells, contaminated with alien viruses, as substrates for human vaccines = PANDEMIC imo. The first recorded outbreak of Marburg virus (a close relative of Ebola) wasn't in deepest darkest Africa, BUT at a polio vaccine research facility in Marburg, Germany. Coincidence? I THINK NOT!

For more see Michael Gold's book, 'A Conspiracy of Cells' (IF you can find it)

Please pay attention specifically to the Ivermectin mention. This, is by far, the most successful anti-viral med to take and funny thing, it is made by Merck. India declared a national emergency with a viral strain much stronger than what has been seen as to date and their population was dying quickly until they started using this at .6 mg/kg. I have come across something very powerful as well and have been sick now since April 27. I believe it came from a vaccinated person. I tried HCQ and it did not even put a dent into it. Then I tried Ivermectin in the paste form after a great deal of research and it worked very...very well. I could not afford a 6 mo prescription at over $600. The paste is very safe and taken in 50 lb increments. Can be taken 5 days straight to neutralize the viral load. Read about is and see videos here: www.earthclinic.com

Make sure you are aware of Ivermectin. It is the only thing that will save your life with this new strain of whatever is being released by the vaccinated.

Some things I can agree with: vaccine passports are unnecessary as other's vaccination status doesn't matter, vaccinating young children is unnecessary with an emergency authorization vaccine.

Otherwise it was a lot of supposition about nefarious motivations of big tech & government.

I appreciate that he has this ability to "run simulations" in his head and could tell something was not right with what we were being told. However year-to-year comparisons of public death records show that there may actually be an under-count of covid deaths. Also the current health emergency in India and previous ones in other locations seem pretty real and difficult to fake through media control.

Of all nations I think Israel and USA are the most masterful in terms of screwing their own people. In fact, the Holocaust would not have happened without the powerful profit motivated backing of some Jews. The Rothschilds were financing both sides. All for the mighty profit.

I'm an individual that have had just about all the contagious diseases out there: Mumps, Rubella, whooping cough, Measles, Chicken pox, Rotavirus, Covid-19 etc, etc. The worst was Tuberculosis, but not active. Back in the days, parents would want you to be exposed to such diseases, so you could develop immunity. If you are well nourished and healthy there's no major threat to any of these. Now, what they are doing is playing with these viruses and bacteria to purposely use them as a weapon. They don't want to hurt the environment using missiles and tanks or nuclear bombs anymore. This is the perfect way for them to get rid of the fragile and weak and control the others who are strong and young for enslavement. This world is becoming too scary for me and we've got to find a way to fight back. Sitting here discussing probabilities is useless. I feel so bad for our children and grandchildren, the type of hostile future they'll have to endure. My God!! We need solutions.

Not to be Biblical; but maybe that is what formulated the mythical 'Tower of Babel' where segments of humanity migrated to and joined others who had the same ideals, beliefs, goals and outlook on life. It was claimed unharmonious; but I disagree, the mixing of these segments is nothing more than an incongruous atmosphere where all constructive energy is lost to the combatant nature. Water & Oil do not mix and some segments of the human race are of the same natural repellent biology.

He expressed concerns that many other scientists have I have listened too. He is just one more to add to my list who speaks the truth. I pray others will come to realize they have been lied to. But as he stated after more than a year of listening to the message over and over it has become their truth. I have no worries or fear of what these people have planned for this world. It is prophesied in the Bible. The eyes of the Lord are in every place, watching the evil and the good. The Lord has made everything for its own purpose, Even the wicked for the day of evil. I have totally different perspective as a follower of Jesus. And we are the ones they fear the most, that is why Churches were closed and Pastors arrested. Everything I learned about covid I look at in a Biblical sense. So what is happening really is no different what past empires have always tried to do. Have the elite rule over the people. Covid is the method they are using. Just my perspective.

They them those who won't leave me and you alone, are trying their darndest to hold our freedoms hostage until they gain our compliance. The use of force continuum is comply or die. Their hostage situation is comply and, down the road a piece, you may die. But for sure, your freedoms are temporary at best. Negotiating with terrorists sends the wrong signal.

They've structured their malevolent governments so that fight or flight is negated. If a law enforcement officer (LEO) detains you against your will (also known as trespass) and you try and fight, back-up cops are soon to arrive on the scene as judge jury and executioner. If you chose flight, LEO's will hunt you down and if you're lucky they'll only kidnap you, put you in a cage and hold you for ransom, instead of killing you. Excuse me, in their lexicon when they do that, it's not kidnapping, cage and ransom. They call it arrest jail and bail.

(THIS IS NOT A VACCINE, THIS IS A COVER YOUR ASS REDEFINITION) The CDC say's differently (below) I think? they changed the definition of a "vaccine", for self protection, because covid vax isn't a vaccine by CDC definition, and they know it would not fall under the Vaccine criteria of big-pharma vaccine no liability umbrella, for vaccine harm & death! It has never been used on humans ever, nor is it a "vaccine by CDC definition! I wonder WHEN, the CDC will change their "vaccine" definition to match? www.merriam-webster.com (A NEW): Definition of vaccine "a preparation that is administered (as by injection) to stimulate the body's immune response against a specific infectious disease: a): an antigenic preparation of a typically inactivated or attenuated (see ATTENUATED sense 2) pathogenic agent (such as a bacterium or virus) or one of its components or products (such as a protein or toxin) b): a preparation of genetic material (such as a strand of synthesized messenger RNA) that is used by the cells of the body to produce an antigenic substance (such as a fragment of virus spike protein) Other Words from vaccine" CDC's definition of a vaccine: "Definition of Terms Let's start by defining several basic terms: //Immunity: Protection from an infectious disease. If you are immune to a disease, you can be exposed to it without becoming infected. //Vaccine: A product that stimulates a person's immune system to produce immunity to a specific disease, protecting the person from that disease. Vaccines are usually administered through needle injections, but can also be administered by mouth or sprayed into the nose. //Vaccination: The act of introducing a vaccine into the body to produce immunity to a specific disease. //Immunization: A process by which a person becomes protected against a disease through vaccination. This term is often used interchangeably with vaccination or inoculation." www.cdc.gov/.../imz-basics.htm

@ Bella4ever: 'Why are they trying to kill us?'

First off, they're sociopaths/psychopaths who love to kill... Secondly, global elites recognized & apparently discussed, at the 1st Bilderberg meeting, in 1954, that... in an information Age... they couldn't keep the truth hidden... Truth, to borrow from scripture, has the power to set us free... The elites basically declared war on us... resolving to dumb us down with fluoridated water, chemically adulterated foods & vaccines... in preparation for a globalist final solution/Great Culling, as per the tenets of the Georgia Guidestones. Deborah Tavares discusses this in, 'Silent Weapons for Quiet Wars'

The Rockefellers, Rothschilds & those of their ilk understood that the information superhighway would eventually have to be closed, that AI (Artificial Intelligence) would be the ideal tool for totalitarian enslavement, in keeping with Orwell's dystopian vision. Orwell understood that, prior to a totalitarian takeover, the middle class would have to be destroyed. Desperately poor people are too concerned with where their next meal is coming from, rather than trying to see the Big Picture. Hence the Lockdowns/ Big Reset/ crippling carbon taxes/and coming disruptions to the food supply chain (see Codex Alimentarius/ Food as a Weapon)

That manmade global warming myth is part of the psyop. Borrowing from the Club of Rome: ' In searching for a NEW enemy to unite us, we came up with the idea that pollution, water shortages, famine and the threat of global warming would fit the bill.'

Most of the 'sheeple' are so deluded they think their kind pose a grave threat to the biosphere, rather than those filthy-rich, Talmudic Supremacist/Satanists at the apex of Central Banks/FIAT currency. A la the Christly-example, shining light on the darkness/speaking truth to power, seems like 'THE WAY' back from the abyss

Bella4ever Quote: 'Does anybody really know what truth IS these days?'

Simple rule of thumb. If MSM, government officials and so called 'experts' are all delivering the same narrative, ad nauseam... Odds are good it's disinformation, misinformation, half truth, or A BALD FACED LIE!

A la the official 9/11 narrative, the Anthropogenic/Manmade Global Warming narrative IS A LIE, disseminated by agents of global despotism & depopulation eugenics!

IPCC Climate alarmist 'scientists' are INTELLECTUAL PROSTITUTES (See ClimateGate for confirmation of this www.forbes.com/sites/jamestaylor/2011/11/23/climategate-2-0-new-e-mail..)... Ditto most vaccine peddling pediatricians and pharmaceutical researchers...

We should keep this conversation going elsewhere. Maybe Telegram? As for solutions, I'm thinking as low-tech as possible. Physical fliers that direct people to websites and other offline means, same as communes, etc. Love that people are talking about solutions; there are many, and I am hopeful.

Hello everyone,

Let me begin by stating how nice it is to see such respectful and enlightening conversation in these comments. You all are wonderful & I'm grateful to remain awake to this insidious agenda with all of you. Big THANKS to Dr. Mercola for all he's done & continues to present to us! I tried to login under my google browser & my phone kept kicking me out. As I switched to my duckduckgo browser, however, i am able to login and join the conversation. Curious. So I see many of you are feeling called to do something about this, as am I. If the "World Health Organization" can be formed by private entities & elicit such power, it seems that an alternative could be created as well. I love the idea of consolidating & more boldly broadening the reach of this real science and information to the masses, so how do we focus on a solution such as this? I've learned that when we overly focus on the problem, that is where we eventually end up (w the problem). When we focus on the solution, however, that is where the real change happens. So what do we do? Shall we all get unmonitored/untracked email addys, team up through an email list, get the major players involved & go from there? Start an alternative website on an unmonitored platform (as previously mentioned) where we can all continue to connect an communicate? It feels like we need some sort of jedi team to increase our power and impact in cancelling this agenda. Any insights? Dr. Mercola, would you like to take the resistance to a whole new level? I am so ready!! Sending love & blessings to all of you, Brooke :)

Tell that to the people whose kids got it, parents never knew until they were tested, kids didn't feel sick, they got what felt like a cold or nothing. Then parents got it and now the entire world is doomed. Others suffocated to death around the world. While I do believe the Covid issue has been coded incorrectly by hospitals for profit, none of a patients cormorbid conditions have really been addressed in detail for the general population. They wouldn't understand the complexities of physician documentation & reimbursement, & CFO financial directives aka incentives. I am a nurse who spoke to hundreds at a national vaccine center. I've learned a lot. I always have from my patients. I believe there are a lot of conspiracy theories with & without politics & validation involved. At the end of the day billions & billions of dollars are at stake. Many ppl stand to become wealthier than Solomon. We won't know the true story in our lifetime. There are sinister plans afoot, news flash - all governments have sinister plans. Vaccine passports? Mark of the Beast for the religious? Who knows. The world is changing & fast. Wars & rumors of wars, pestilence, famine... I know one thing, China is coming for us, & the dumbing down & obedience has begun. In the meantime, I'm going to travel & if I have to show a vaccine passport to some other nation so be it. The gov't was NEVER supposed to use our SS# for ID either... hang on, the future is gonna be a bumpy ride people!

Because some of us are concerned about our future food supply, I strongly recommend you buy as many organic food seeds as you can and keep them stored at home. Be sure they are CERTIFIED ORGANIC because when they grow plant foods, they also produce live seeds that you can use to plant future food crops. GMO seeds won't reproduce. And DON'T TELL OTHERS what you do or have because the day may come when people will rob you for them.

If a person believes in "Germ Theory", then Yeadon & Mercola will seem logical. However, the "Germ Theory" model is fraught with inconsistencies, hypocrisy, corruption, & outright pseudo-science, in which there isn't any substantiated, or, verifiable empirical evidence. The "Germ Theory" model was seized upon as a clever propaganda agenda of the Rockefeller's & Carnegie's that was sold to the public & forged into medical practice. The deep rooted "Germ Theory" model continues today as the erroneous authoritative "settled science", for which, has brought us head-long into the mess we're in today. The "Germ Theory" belief & consensus itself appears to be the actual "virus", or, contagion. Every alleged "pandemic", or, "epidemic" of the past has strong evidence that has been dismissed, vilified, censored, or, destroyed, indicating other factors, other than the proselytized pseudo pathogens, are the causal agent/s of the illness. These re-occurring fearmongering "the sky is falling" deathly scare tactics, illness promoting & eugenic interventions are mind-bending behavioral modification tactics that are used for exerting power & control, as well as, grand theft tools, all designed to ensure the governed are constantly oppressed & never to experience their true power, freedom or essence.

It is also interesting to note that Yeadon's discussion regarding the genome sequence particulars of the alleged "virus" & "variants" precisely parallel the gross amount of computer generated sequences of "SARS-CoV-2" shown in the WHO GISAID database (<https://gisaid.org>) that, as of today, shows there are 1,559,546 "SARS-CoV-2 genome sequences", but, as of yet, there is not one isolated & purified verifiable sample anywhere in existence.

I have question , Does the antibody test tell me if I have had Covid 2 or do I need to get some sort of T-Cell test. Because after listening to Dr. Yeadon it sounds like he was saying antibodies don't protect us from this virus, and our bodied need to develop T-cells.

Here is the only T-Cell Immunity test worthwhile to have performed. T-Cell Immunity Test - <https://www.t-detect.com/> It's $150.00 prepaid. You have to have blood drawn at one of their facilities which are nationwide.

Posted On 05/15/2021

HeLaCellChaos666

If you're talking about the standard test for Covid19? It's not an antibody test... PCR takes snippets of RNA (might be SARS-CoV-2 viral RNA, might be newly minted RNA from say, an ongoing XMLVRV retroviral infection, might be denatured viral particles incapable of infection, who knows?) converts it to double stranded DNA (presumably by employing reverse transcriptase) and then magnifies it... the more cycles of magnification...,the more FALSE POSITIVES... in keeping with that asymptomatic spreader mythology

As for the rest? How might one test for T-cell 'viral memory'...Good question... Take blood sample and expose it to Covid19???

Posted On 05/16/2021

HeLaCellChaos666

SARS-CoV-2 was bred in a level 4 biolab, patented & purposely released. Those who unknowingly harbor a preexisting XMLVRV infection (an aerosolized/weaponized retrovirus, originating in mice & linked to Chronic Fatigue Syndrome, currently affecting an estimated 35million Americans) are at much greater risk of dying from Covid-19... Ditto those 'sheeple' daft enough to accept the vaccine, pursuant to PIE (Paradoxical Immune Enhancement)

PS: Covid-19 didn't come from humanized mice. Still humanized mice, in a worst case scenario, have the potential to unleash wave after wave of zoonotic diseases, diseases which have already crossed the species barrier from animals to man (by way of human/animal cell culture mix-ups &/or lab bred chimeric cells), diseases for which our kind has no immune memory & thus (again in a worst case scenario) little or no defense. Putting (purposely, or by way of accidental contamination of substrates used by Big Pharma) humanized mouse cells in Covid-19 vaccines, or indeed in any vaccine, administered to humans = CRAZY! Ditto Bill Gates, George Soros, Tony Fauci et al

What we're witnessing is nothing less than the emergence of a Neo-Marxist, Neo-Serfdom, New World Order (also known as, 'The Great Reset/Great Culling, OR, if you prefer, 'The Great Tribulation) aided & abetted by megalomaniacs in lab coats

'And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him.' ~ Revelation 6:8

'As in Goethe's Faust, the paradigmatic scientist sells his soul to the devil in return for unlimited knowledge and power. The guiding spirit of modern science, according to the Faust myth, is a satanic demon, a fallen angel called Mephistopheles.' ~ Rupert Sheldrake

Amen. Thank you for your post. There were four Level-4 Bio-hazard labs experimenting and tweaking the SARS-Cov-1 virus (protein) back in 2003. 1) Wuhan, China; 2) U of N Carolina, USA; 3) Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada and 4) Pirbright Institute, London, England. One of the interesting things also, is how at least in this country a good many of the "researchers" involved in COVID-19 were big names in the HIV research in the late 80's and 90's. Coincidence? I don't think so, especially when Luc Montagnier, co-discoverer of HIV, has publicly stated his research team found HIV proteins in the SARS-Cov-2 virus/protein saying what an excellent job someone did in putting them there.

SV40 (Simian Monkey Virus #40) disables p53 and inhibits Rbs, a companion to the p53 study. Carbone, M., et al. "Simian Virus-40 Large-T Antigen Binds p53 in Human Mesotheliomas." Nature Medicine 3:908-912 (1997).

The book, "The Virus And The Vaccine," by Debbie Bookchin and Jim Schumacher has an abundant amount of scientific references to show the NIH, Pfizer, NCI, ad infinitum knowingly continue to this day, using dirty, virus filled monkey kidneys for their so-called medicine. Anyone who has ever been vaxxed has these monkey (and who knows what other animals they have used in their evil "soup") viruses causing the epidemic in cancers, HIV, Autoimmune diseases, herpes etc. This is a known fact!!!!

I am amazed how in the mornings when I watch a local news outlet mainly for the weather, how the majority of ads are for auto injuries. Then in the evenings, THE SAME ATTORNEY firms advertise for Mesothelioma injuries. I've been tempted to call in asking if they would sue vaccine manufacturers for mesothelioma injuries when there are AT LEAST! thirty - 30! - CLINICAL STUDIES proving mesothelioma is a direct result of the Simian Virus 40 that was in polio vaccines. Dr Judy Mikovits book, "The Plague of Corruption" is a gold mine of info on her work in finding a monkey virus found in vaccines that led to Chronic Fatigue Syndrome and Fibromyalgia. The vaccines contained contaminated monkey brain tissue harboring the virus. At times it reads like a spy novel the way weasel Fauci and his "team" set he up on false charges imprisoning her for several years. These MF's are evil psychopaths and nothing more.

... Some here (though not necc in this thread) are STILL questioning whether SARS-Cov-2 virus even exists.. The virus has not only been isolated, it's been genetically sequenced (not to mention patented!) & reportedly contains 4 novel inserts from HIV virus*, tacitly attesting that this thing emerged, NOT from some fish market (pursuant to unsanitary food preparation methods= pure BS), but from the laboratory
*,  : ("Uncanny similarity of unique inserts in the 2019-nCoV spike protein to HIV-1 gp120 and Gag", Gupta, Praveen, Tripathi et al) According to Dr Judy Mikovits & others, SARS-Cov-2 also has features of XMLVRV (Xenotropic Murine Leukemia Virus, Related Virus), a retrovirus originating in mice, but which seems to have made the zoonotic leap, from animals to humans, again by way of the lab.

Speaking ' Of Mice & Men', does 28B11 ring a bell? 28B11 was boldly displayed on the side of the 'fake' cop CAR allegedly driven by the Nova Scotia mass shooter (aka patsy?). Here's a link to refresh your memory. duckduckgo.com/?q=images+of+cop+car+in+Nova+Scotia+shooting&iax=im.. 28B11 was also used by Creative labs to designate monoclonal antibodies derived from humanized/chimeric mouse cells, said to be part of Covid-19 'vaccines'. Again here's the link www.creativebiolabs.net/anti-il17f-recombinant-antibody-clone-28b11-12.. All signs point to SARS virus being purposely passaged thru both animal & human cell tissue cultures (&/or human-animal chimeric cells), as a means of weaponizing it ----- In keeping with a Globalist Depopulation Agenda

Information Regarding SARS-CoV-2 Strains and Reagents -

www.beiresources.org/BEIHighlights1.aspx?ItemId=79&ModuleId=14004

And one more thing about these "oh, it's never been isolated..." morons - PROVE IT. Prove it HASN'T been isolated. They can't..... would anyone working in a stealth laboratory of the military or other secret location/agency actually publish/BRAG how they've been genetically modifying for gain-of-function a virus/protein to infect the population for a global takeover? Seriously? And what about the now, over 140 dead scientist/researcher/microbiologists who been murdered in the last 15 years? Dead men tell no tales. I have to laugh at how these idiots, who have NO medical background or training, who have NEVER worked in bio-hazard lab, make these arm-chair claims about "never been isolated" crap.

Posted On 05/15/2021

Questions of a moron, idiot and such, who never worked in biohazard laboratory (better close them all!!). The virus may be isolated or not, few people know the truth, everything else is an educated, highly educated, genius educated guess, but guess anyway.

What I think is important, is to get some explanation of the beginnings of the "pandemic" in US. When and where were the first cases? What exactly are the specific symptoms, different of the rest flu, influenza etc viruses?

IMO, loss of smell and taste is fairly common with congested nose. Dry cough is often seen with upper respiratory infection. The new, strange thing for me is the dry pulmonary cough. Where is the phlegm?

If you have pneumonia with phlegm (wet cough) the constant expulsion of the phlegm is #1 life saving necessity. You can't cough it out laying flat in the bed and intubated.

Was the cough of all the first cases dry? And I know a bunch of people tested positive, some heavily ill, even hospitalized, but not one of them died. Was only the first wave mortal? How and when it lost its strength?

In addition to the other crap in vaccines (read Dr. Judy Mikovits article www.marktaliano.net/dr-judy-mikovits-exposes-the-covid-scam) that cause multiple illnesses, de-population will occur through both early death and inability to reproduce. In an interview with NewsGuard the day before Instagram removed his page for spreading dangerous misinformation, Robert F. Kennedy Jr. discussed the COVID-19 vaccine and the coronavirus pandemic. Citing his experience in assessing related scientific issues he encountered in his career as an environmental lawyer, Kennedy has fashioned himself a crusader against Big Pharma and the government health apparatus that he says props it up. In addition to other assertions, Kennedy described Dr. Anthony Fauci, director of the National Institutes of Health (NIH) as "an abject failure" who profits personally by promoting vaccines, and made the unsubstantiated claim that the Pfizer and Moderna vaccines are dangerous...

StanleyBecker: I firmly subscribe to the theory that we should never assume conspiracy when ignorance will suffice. I also don't believe "politicians are ignorant" - many of them are very intelligent. Actions can be intelligent or ignorant. Ignorant actions can grow and multiply and lead to more of the same... Unfortunately, we are now in the middle of a long, complex series of ignorant decisions and actions - so complex that it's difficult to imagine a pathway out. Of course, as individuals, there appears to be a simple path, to see the truth. But as a society, it's far from a trivial problem.

I wish I could say that I agree, but it has been more than evident that this government, as well as many others, are not acting in the best interests of the citizens. Remember that there are lies by commission & lies by omission, of which we have been the victims - especially by suppressing &/or censoring the truth about effective, safe, & inexpensive medications that could easily have been used to treat this virus - especially in the early phase of infection. Countless thousands of lives could have been saved & there was absolutely no need for lockdowns/shutdowns. We have been lied to about EVERYTHING - including the election results.

05/14/21•BIG PHARMA › NEWS•CDC Data Show 4,000+ Reported Deaths Following COVID Vaccines as Kids 12 and Older Now Eligible

VAERS data released today showed 192,954 reports of adverse events following COVID vaccines, including 4,057 deaths and 17,190 serious injuries between Dec. 14, 2020 and May 7, 2021... Every Friday, VAERS makes public all vaccine injury reports received as of a specified date, usually about a week prior to the release date. Today's data show that between Dec. 14, 2020 and May 7, a total of 192,954 total adverse events were reported to VAERS, including 4,057 deaths – an increase of 220 over the previous week – and 17,190 serious injuries, up 1,176 since last week... Children's Health Defense queried the VAERS data for adverse events associated with the formation of clotting disorders and other related conditions and found 3,272 reports for all three vaccines from Dec. 14, 2020, through May 7. Of the 3,272 cases reported, there were 1,218 reports attributed to Pfizer, 1,034 reports to Moderna and 1,000 reports to J&J.... childrenshealthdefense.org/defender/vaers-cdc-data-reported-deaths-cov..

Ironically, the clearest proof of a cover-up is that the number of reported deaths on VAERS among the very elderly who have been vaccinated is far, far less than would be expected to be reported according to the reporting standards based on the ordinary death rate, whether or not the deaths actually had anything to do with the jabs, without a concurrent decrease in the observed overall death rate that would justify such an expectation.

Yet those who have looked into the overall death rates have observed clusters soon after receiving the jabs and about 2 weeks later.

Keep in mind that only an estimated 1-10% of all vaccine-related deaths & adverse effects are being reported.

In truth I partially agree with it. Just not me not my family! It goes back far further than most understand. Tesla's quote will explain more; "The year 2100 will see eugenics universally established. In past ages, the law governing the survival of the fittest roughly weeded out the less desirable strains. Then man's new sense of pity began to interfere with the ruthless workings of nature. As a result, we continue to keep alive and to breed the unfit. Remembering that Darwin was a eugenicist too and his theory of 'survival of the fittest' is now at the start of biology books in the UK. Is not the vaccines the ultimate test? People have been actively clapping for their own demise since the beginning of this plan. Some of us understood from day one. Myself from dreams and gnosis. Who are we to judge if this plan is wrong? My survival and my families is my only goal; selfish that may seem but try talking to most and you'll soon realise that we are perceived as the 'enemy'.

Hawaii's Vaccine Passport Launched This Week – Here's What to Know - MAY 13, 2021 - The state plans to expand its inter-island vaccine passport once it can "provide the same assurance of integrity on a nationwide level." BY ALISON FOX MAY 13, 2021

Fully vaccinated inter-island travelers in Hawaii will no longer need to get tested or quarantine before hopping from one island to the next, according to the state's governor. The inter-island vaccine passport, which has been in the works for weeks and launched Tuesday, will eventually be expanded to include visitors from outside Hawaii. Currently, the program is only available to people who were vaccinated in Hawaii, according to the state's Safe Travels Hawai'i program. Those who participate will have to upload their CDC COVID-19 Vaccination Record Card to the program's digital platform. In Hawaii, 51% of people have received at least one dose of a vaccine and 40% are considered fully vaccinated, according to the state's Department of Health. That's higher than the United States overall, where the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention says 35.4% of all residents have been fully vaccinated...
