Freedom is in the fight, let's not give any lost battle as long as the people respond with unity. It takes awareness and a lot of courage to come out victorious against the tyranny of the Great Reset, the WHO, the WEF and the UN that seek to implement their own agenda, which does not allow discussion, any arguments or challenges to their predetermined purpose as an instrument to implement their program for an absolutist global dictatorship. Nations must preserve their interdependence in the face of a globalism of unelected leaders, a globalism that loves power and money and despises freedom.

Now is the time to draw up a master plan for organic sustainable growth and world development based on the global allocation of all finite resources and the independence of nations. Human beings, we must stop them before we, along with our descendants and future generations, experience horrors far beyond even crimes against humanity. The WHO is the globalists' conduit for control over humanity. They drain our resources, serve our enemies, and continue to work to establish a global dictatorship over everyone and everything. The WHO has many ambitions; but improving our health and supporting our rights are not among them.

The governance of the WHO constitutes an unprecedented fascism. 194 unelected puppets from all our countries, pretending to represent us, keep preparing to erase our rights. The personal well-being and freedoms represented by a WHO that will be able to translate its new unchecked and unaccountable authority into the opportunity to dictate the personal health care of Americans and all of humanity demands immediate action by Congress. . The people must elect their rulers who are willing to assert freedom.

The future must be built by people of good will and their democratically elected representatives, made up of a powerful community that loves freedom. We have the means to improve the state of the world, but two conditions are necessary. The first is that we all act as stakeholders of larger communities, that we not only serve our own interest, but we serve the community. We need 'stakeholder accountability'. And second, that we collaborate on very action and impact oriented initiatives to move forward as "Door to Freedom" a one stop shop where everyone can learn what the plan is and what we can do to stop it with the necessary help from freedom of expression organizations. everyone to act in concert and raise the voice of freedom and respect for human rights

Gui, I have been asked - so, what do they [Parasitic Predator$] feel we are, those who defy their rules, regulations, vaccines? They cannot feel they have won over us unless we do nothing to stop them. My reply; [We are,] the little voice, the feeling maybe we should or should not do something? The just because you can, doesn't mean you should. Having a conscience. We, together, are the conscience they do not seem to possess as individuals or as a collective. A challenge to their delusions, hubris.

- We are what they Fear the Most. Somewhere in the back of the minds of the Maintenance Crew, even some of the 1%, likely realize some of the centuries of 'unintended consequences.' Exposed more now than usual is how much of it is exactly the intended consequences. Also exposed is our methods, our drive is to co-create with Creation, with Real Green Deals, nurturing and nourishing Life throughout the Grand Cycles and Circle of Life. The opposite of the Toxic Chemo Raw Deal hoped to be imposed by those under an illusion they control any and all things.

The longer, and better we stick with our efforts to expand a Real Deal continues to expose their Raw Deals. Once again, a simple truth, We Are One Life is being High Jacked and turned upside down to disguise and promote an agenda of One Health. An agenda anything but Health. An Anti-Life Agenda. It is for nothing but for Power and Control over less and less. Resist, Make it Local, Make it Real Locally, Keep it Real Locally.

Yes, Just, the WHO is the conduit of control of the globalists over humanity. They drain our resources, serve our enemies, and continue to work to establish a global dictatorship over everyone and everything. The WHO has many ambitions; but improving our health and supporting our rights are not among them. The personal well-being and freedoms represented by a WHO that will be able to translate its new unchecked and unaccountable authority into the opportunity to dictate the personal health care of Americans and all of humanity demands immediate action by Congress. . Push vaccinations for all children and adults at gunpoint, threatening parents with arrest and imprisonment if they refuse.

An education that encourages obedient people instead of independent thinkers. The real goal is never "equality", but rather the marginalization and shame of anyone who expresses their thoughts. Allow powerful corporations to take control of the world's water supplies and charge monopoly prices. Penalize coal, gas and oil while pushing the "green" energy of corporate interests. The WHO is ignoring messages from citizens around the world who do not want this so-called "treaty".

They continue to plot a global authoritarian dictatorship in the form of their Pandemic Preparedness Treaty. As the corporate media and governments remain silent on what is happening, WCH Law and Advocacy Committee member James Roguski is holding a vigil and has issued this update exposing his backroom deals, secret meetings and dark agenda. . We, that is, every sane human being alive, must stop them before we, along with our descendants and future generations, experience horrors far beyond even crimes against humanity. What happens when you stand up for your rights? You can be excluded, victimised and banned but as the saying goes, there is no such thing as bad publicity. One sportsman's refused to divulge his "vaccination" status prior to entering countries to compete in the sport he excels in. But look at him now. Once more he has reached the final of one of the greatest events in world tennis. In about 10 minutes time he competes in the hope of winning yet another championship to add to his illustrious career. Lessons learned: stand up for freedom and do not comply. A hero of sport and of resistance to tyranny.

Good reference, Cabochon, a great fight for rights and freedom. Yes, Serbian tennis player Novak Djokovic was affected by the CDC vaccination requirement. The No. 1 men's tennis player was unable to play in some US tournaments as he was not injected with the COVID-19 vaccine. But according to the new rules, he would be able to freely enter and play in major US tournaments starting May 12. Now the Spanish tennis player Carlos Alcaraz disputes the grand final of Wimbledon against Novak Djokovic after beating the Russian Daniil Medvedev, for which he will play his first match for the title at the All England Tennis Club.

The young Spanish tennis player and number 1 in the ATP ranking will have the toughest possible hurdle ahead of the 7-time Wimbledon winner. Carlos Alcaraz, after winning the US Open last year, was alone on the court for a moment and saw a camera next to him, when he went over to it and blatantly displayed the 666 sign with his hands/fingers around his eyes. My husband and I saw this in real time, rewound the section and took a screen shot, knowing this action by Alcaraz would never see the light of day. He is a bought and sold individual. Whereas we know Djokovic did not take the jab, we cannot be sure he has not still acquiesced to anything else. We know that Serbia has handed over many guns very recently by giving them up to the gov't. I thought that would be the last place that would give up their self defense, after all the hard times and wars which were perpetrated against them for their Orthodox Christianity and their failure to bow to Rome. Needless to say, I hope Djkovic is able to keep the vile little Carlos from winning.

I went through this myself for being a holistic and honest doctor. The California Medical Board investigated me for five years. I no longer live in California, but still have a California license, so they also asked me to come to California for a psychiatric evaluation based on an anonymous complaint (not even a patient complaint!) that I am "deranged." I refused, but offered to get a psychiatric evaluation from an academic psychiatrist (if that is what they wanted) within 150 miles of my home. No; that would not do. They wanted an evaluation by someone they chose.

So just like Dr. Nass, they started going through my records with a fine tooth comb. They even subpoenaed the sheriff's office to see if I had been involved in any domestic disputes! They ended up "finding" a small infraction that did not impact patient care in any way; analogous to a 5 mile over the limit speeding ticket. My defense cost over $50,000. The story goes on but I'll stop there. This has happened to at least two of my friends as well; also holistic, conscientious doctors who are not following the Big Pharma dictate. These are dark, dark times.

I refused to renew my health dept license in the field of psychology when I was required, by the state, to format client data and make it avail 24/7 to the state. This was allegedly for the purpose of investigating practitioners accused of sexual assault. Let me add that, my profession had an almost nonexistent level of sexual assault against patients--it was simply not a problem. By and large, we were the ones that compassionately dealt with such situations. This was merely an excuse to harass practitioners, violate patient confidentiality and obtain everyone's records.

It was about control. With private practitioners out of the way, the state stood to profit hugely thru the imposition of new laws and regulations that increased reimbursement form the federal govt for many mental health services. By requiring more licenses for more subspecialties and more appointments, they could get more funding reimbursement. This harmed patients by dividing up their care instead of integrating various needs with a single practitioner.

We could only discuss what we were licensed for. I felt I could no longer practice with autonomy. We already have plenty of laws and other methods of recourse available in such situations. I realized there were private things clients would not want disclosed to the state. I still occasionally get called out of retirement for challenging cases, but must make it clear that I am only acting as a "spiritual" practitioner nowadays. The loophole in the law is that I can claim I am helping people return to their path in life and pursue their spiritual destiny.

I can no longer $charge$ (unlicensed), but accept what people are willing and able to "give". My special areas of expertise were helping schizophrenia patients recover to lead normal lives again and those dealing with the trauma of late stage cancer. (We also saw many dramatic recoveries!) Obviously, people like me are a threat to the pharmaceutical industry that keeps patients dependent on drugs.

It's clear from many of the responses that the old/existing system must be thoroughly trashed. Perhaps some technical and organizational aspects can be retained; practical matters where experience has shown merit. But the Health Care philosophy, principles and practices should pretty much eliminated, and a new holistic approach fully fleshed out and implemented.

The first step in the US is to reject the democrat party in toto. The democrat party is responsible for all of the nonsense regarding masks, lockdowns, ivermectin, HQ, remdesivir, and mRNA. The next step is to reinstate Donald Trump to office. He is the only person -- so far -- with the courage and tenacity to do the things that need to be done. Third the relationship between our public health agencies and the pharmaceutical industry must be severed; completely. Fourth, transgender ideology is the new COVID. Do not, for one moment, underestimate the impact that it is having or fail to recognize that things like "misgendering" and failing to use "preferred pronouns" and failure to provide "gender affirming care" are no different than the crimes of "misinformation, disinformation, and malinformation".

Stand tall, hold your head up high. You are fighting for truth, honesty and the human race! Bury yourself into the bastards like a starving Tick. Every meeting, every deposition, every time you are in court demand to know who they are working for, who is pulling their strings. Eventually you will get to the person or persons and when you do shine the light on the insects and watch them scatter like Roaches into the darkness where they belong. That is when it stops. Evil thrives when good men(and women) do nothing. Light up the darkness, it's the greatest disinfectant. Find out who is pulling the strings and keep exposing them.

Until the world recognizes who pulls the strings, as you so well put it, nothing can be done to stop this evil power. But the bible and history have long ago identified our enemy as Rome, the seat [successive] of the papacy and the jesuits who have defended that seat of power for centuries since the Counter Reformation, 1540. They have been trying for 500+ years to take all power over the entire world. In 2017, the pope said, "The Reformation is over." He meant that his seat of power has taken over and now all is in control of the papacy. Revelation 18:4 calls people to come out of her [that church of Rome] and further into the chapter we see the complete and utter destruction of Rome, that city, by leaders of nations. How do we do this [destroy evil] when all lies are believed and not many know who is the evil behind everything going on.

With all the censorship going on, I have to ask why their opinion is any more important than my opinion and my right of free speech. Why should my speech be censored and not theirs? Why should any reasonable discourse be censored? The only reason we have free speech is to say things that are not politically-correct. If everyone only said what the authorities wanted us to say and think, there would be no need for a first amendment. People, spend some time learning about the places you spend your dollars and make sure they are businesses you want to support. In other words, $starve$ the beast.

It may not be easy, but it is possible to make a large impact if each of us does more than we are already doing. Even a 5% drop in revenue is a major concern for a business. As much as possible, support your local businesses and know the people you are dealing with. The time for fence-sitting is over, both with businesses and customers. Businesses will have to decide whether they want to risk not getting loans, and such, if they do not demonstrate that they are woke. I think if I was a corporation, I would be advertising how “unwoke” I am and take my chances. It would certainly be better than alienating 95%, or more, of your customers.

Money is the drug of choice of the elites, so you must withdraw it. If you are making a decent living—and maybe if you are not—it may be worth your time to find a good accountant to help prepare your taxes. Professionals who are knowledgeable about tax laws can save you a lot of money and make sure you get every exemption allowed. If you find the right person, they will easily earn their keep. It will do a lot more good to keep your earned income circulating on Main Street, rather than flush it down the WA DC sewer.

Some picky points: Catherine Austin Fitts points out that all the corporations have been running on laundering illegal drug money for a long time now. Also, 3/4 of the American public is living either in poverty or right on the brink--though that was observed in 2014; it's probably a lot more than that now.

If you're spiritually aware and have discernment.. Then you'll KNOW that movies like Star Wars and the Matrix were NOT just entertainment, they were Documentary's. But what's coming... Just watch Star Wars.. And for the doubters, NO..I don't necessarily mean the technology or LITERAL characters, but their archetypes in this world ARE coming as they were partially based on historical figures but even more so in prophesied biblical person's set to come on the world stage ruling an EVIL Empire that WILL Take over the World, and yes, this Emperor & his Prophet are shown to have powers to even make fire come down from heaven and will deceive BILLIONS.

They will do this by the power of demons & Satan Bcuz overall mankind gives a big middle finger to God & Truth and since most prefer comfortable LIES God will send them strong delusion that they should believe it. What Dr. Mercola is talking about in this article on the beginning of this bringing the world's nations under the Authority of ONE World government, something Alex Jones has been warning vehemently about for nearly 30 years!

He's talked extensively about how the framework was already in place at least 20 years ago for the UN to literally take control and that the US had already handed our sovereignty OVER to them decades ago, it's just in it's Final stages of legality which the TRAITOR Biden & his co conspirators who stole the election from Trump are currently working on now at well!

The courts, judges, Media, politicians, various government agencies etc are ALL PART of Synagogue of Satan, Kabalah following Satanists who meet at Bohemian Grove to worship Molech, one of the chief false gods of ancient times that the Israelites consistently were ensnared by. One book which can get you going on all this is, "Washington, In the Lap of Rome" by Justin Fulton, 1800's. Also, "50 years in the Church of Rome", by Charles Chiniquy, an auto bio of a priest defened successfully by Lincoln in 1850. Both lay out so much but there is so much which proves that all roads lead to Rome, the bible is the main one.

EXPANSIONIST AMBITIONS UNVEILED IN PLAIN SIGHT "If adopted in full, those two draft agreements will transform the WHO from an international health advisory body of recently chequered history into a supranational authority with powers to order lockdowns, mandatory testing, travel restrictions and vaccinations at national and regional levels during a public health emergency of its own declaring. Among other new powers the organisation will acquire control over the allocation of medical resources between its member states; it will mandate minimum levels of public spending on pandemic preparedness and response (the current proposal is to require an eye-watering 5% of national health budgets plus a yet-to-be-specified percentage of GDP); and it will expand its censorship activities by "strengthen[ing] capacities to counter misinformation and disinformation".

Put simply, an astonishing land-grab of national sovereignty and autonomy. The idea to supercharge the WHO was the brainchild of Boris Johnson, among other esteemed world leaders of the pandemic era; while one hand tooketh back control the other was giving it away, so the UK Government has played a visible and supportive role in the negotiations to date.

Then, two weeks ago, responding to concerns raised by a group of back-bench Conservative party MPs, Andrew Mitchell, the junior Foreign Office minister, delivered an ostensibly robust yet curiously ambiguous reaction to The Telegraph: "We're clear that we would never agree to anything that crosses our points of principle on sovereignty or prevents the UK from taking decisive action against future pandemics". We'll fight them on the beaches if they cross our, erm, points of principle."

Contradictory weasel words by officialdom can mean anything that governments choose them to mean. How can the sovereignty of a country remain intact, when a country is subject to international law? What happens when “international” law conflicts with “domestic” and “national” law? Rule of thumb: anything touched by Boris must be considered in the light of his WEF associations, his father’s eugenist connections and supposedly jocular statement about a “weaponised virus getting rid of huge chunks of the human race”. His party disowned him in the light of Partygate, but like a bad penny he keeps coming back.

When you sup with the devil, use a long spoon. The official government response given on 4th July included the following: “The UK Government has a strong commitment and duty to implement international law that it is subject to. However, we have been clear that the UK will not sign up to any IHR amendments that would compromise the UK’s ability to take domestic decisions on national public health measures. There are currently no plans to hold a vote on IHR amendments.

Should the UK Government wish to accept an IHR amendment, then depending on the content of the respective IHR amendment, changes to domestic law considered necessary or appropriate to reflect obligations under the IHR amendment, may be required. The Government would prepare such draft legislation before Parliament in the usual way. In all circumstances, the sovereignty of the UK Parliament would remain unchanged, and the UK would remain in control of any future domestic decisions about national public health measures.”

The answer to this dilemma is simple. Elect Donald Trump as the POTUS and cut ties with the WHO like he did before. We just need to blow out Joe Biden big time so he can't cheat. There may be another pandemic coming soon so that the leftist can take advantage of the unsecured mail-in ballots. We still need to show up so that no amount of cheating can overcome the big lead that Trump can get.

Correct. Everything will go according to God's plan, not anyone else. But going against those who are the strength and force behind all of this without knowing what God has said and is doing, will lead to failure. All evil power emanates from Rome and the throne there and has for centuries. Rev17 and 18 describes well, the Harlot Church [apostate Roman Catholic Church] and the whore riding the beast, directing and controlling the world gov'ts. just as a rider does while riding any beast. This power came into being with the first universal bishop of Rome, therefore "the antichrist" because he took the place of Christ as head of all the Church.....which was Boniface in 606. This is the power which devours the whole world, the seat, power and authority given by the dragon/satan.

ONE HEALTH is Globalist Speak for BIOWARFARE. If everything on this planet is part of One Health then freedom of speech also is, as well as the 2nd amendment, and the 4th amendment. A healthy person is one that can speak freely and defend himself against forced or coerced tyranny. ONE HEALTH is a sociopathic bunch of bureaucrats who are nothing more than a criminal protection racket that threatens compliance or they will ruin your life. This type of organization is criminal and needs to be viewed as such and prosecuted by all legal means.

I am not going to be singing in this choir. I found this disappointing. I have over the span of decades, listened to the “the virus is real” and the “virus doesn’t exist” camps. No one has shown any verifiable evidence that any virus is real, has been properly tested using controlled studies so far. No one has proven that any alleged virus has made anyone ill. Many studies of contagion have been done, and I have never heard of any that actually prove contagion. However, numerous studies prove otherwise. Virology is akin to religion. It is a belief system. The believers do not actually want actual proof that they exist, and I find this disturbing.

Many people simply repeat what they have been told, just like in religions. There is a distinct lack of curiosity and critical thinking when it comes to viruses. People who believe in viruses seem to not understand that there are multiple reasons why people can become ill, but under the current “spell” of viruses, we are somehow supposed to believe that only “the virus” and nothing else can cause illness in humans, animals, or other life forms. The virus is the keystone of the entire pharmaceutical industry. There is NOTHING that the pharmaceutical will fight harder for or to obfuscate the alleged evidence for than the existence of the magical, mythical virus.

Everything in the vaccine industry revolves around the magical, mythical virus theory. Without the virus, the entire house of cards collapses. Period. Exposing this is essential to winning. Everything else is a distraction and a belief system. The vaccine industry is essential to the pharmaceutical industry. The word “harm” is embedded in the description of their agenda. No one seems to notice. Without the virus, there is no need for vaccines. Vaccines create chronic illnesses that give the pharmaceutical industry an excuse to create more toxic waste to prescribe to people that at best, treat only symptoms.

“Treat” symptoms? What not cure the cause? That is not part of the pHARMaceutical business model, because healthy people do not need all the the toxic drugs. People mindlessly repeat silly things like “the virus mutates”. Oh? How does something with not proof of existence mutate? And now we are told that these magical, mythical viruses jump from animals to humans. I find it incredulous how little people think about what they repeat. Now, after how many thousands or more years have humans and animals coexisted on this planet without such nonsense? Suddenly, when the vaxx industry is going full tilt, all kinds of nonsensical magic is taking place because of viruses. Please substitute the word “unicorn” anywhere you hear the word “virus” and tell me if you notice anything?

Unless believers come to grips with the reality that they have been sold unicorns and they are behaving irrationally to unicorns, nothing with help us win. EVERYTHING centers around the unicorn story. Think “The Wizard of Oz”. That story was originally about following the money trail that controlled people. Follow the unicorn and you will follow the money. This is a war against humanity. All wars are banksters’ wars. It’s time for critical thinking and ditching beloved belief systems. No one is coming to save us. We are the many stains the few, as Meryl says. But if we all believe in unicorns, think about the outcome.

Joseph, Thank you for touching the "nerve" that connects Americans with the idea of freedom! Robert F. Kennedy Jr. has been advocating democracy - not the true idea of freedom that the "Founding Fathers" had in mind as any one can see by reading their written records - quintessentially: the four Organic Laws for The United States of America (unincorporated). Washington DC has a democracy however Robert does not make the distinction between DC and the several states within The United States of America (unincorporated).

Consequently, as long as Robert doesn't make that distinction I for one can not agree to the idea that he is a qualified representative of true freedom. "Public resistance" is a conversation that I can respond to here.. I agree that "the key ... is to educate people." My suggestion for this education is to start with the four Organic Laws for The United States of America and begin with the first Organic Law know as: "The Declaration of Independence." Dr Meryl Nass, what courage you possess..! You are a CHAMPION..! ..standing up strong against organized institutional thugs takes backbone and a righteous tenacity for truth and justice evidently burning within you! ..i would like to share by way of encouragement a not very dissimilar legal situation that i chose to take on conjointly against two of the most powerful Government bodies in NZ.. one of them a huge Ministry, and the other a vast Corporation ..i called them as joint-respondents to account in public Court ..it took six years' of side-stepping, adjournments, extensions, affidavits, experts' refutations many of ..until they finally buckled seven days before the final date for a FIRST public hearing, because they knew they were going to be exposed to be manipulating institutional liars.

They were always counting on my buckling under continuous pressure of perpetuating affidavit and knowing open falsehoods, and successive bought and paid for 'medical expert' deceptions.. knowing the mounting costs on all sides would bring about bankruptcy and the loss of all i owned should have i have permitted these liars to triumph, and it was THEY who finally backed down, ceased lying, acquiesced to settle, AND pay ALL costs!

This, because they did NOT wish to be exposed in a public Courtroom with independent investigative reporting present. Never agree to a closed hearing! They will just keep on lying, and the most damaging lying will come from the High Court judge itself in the closing statement from the Bench!! It is a closed and owned system from the top to the bottom. The public NEEDS to be involved. That is the safety valve for people such as ourselves.

From the Library of Congress... In 1777 at Valley Forge, General George Washington was visited by an Angel who gave him 3 visions. First, that America would win the Revolution and would be united. Second, there would be a battle that would end slavery. Third, there would be a much greater battle against all the nations that would be conspiring to take down the United States. I believe this is now and includes the UN and the WHO. The Angel then said that although this Epic Battle would be the most difficult of the three, America would prevail and would always stay United!!! I am glad there are people like Dr Nass and Dr Mercola attempting to expose this horrendous future planned by the "Elite". As this global take over has been planned long ago, it is important not to miss the root intention and the intenders. Even in recent history their attempts have been thwarted even though partially successful. Just for instance in the 20th century, THEY organised WWI for 2 main reasons. First, to get rid of as many young white males as possible. Second, as a blind to take over Russia without intervention from European countries. THEY planned another war 21 years later to kill off the male offspring of the survivors of WWI. As none of these events completely fulfilled THEIR plans, THEY were eager to use the new weapon of mass destruction, the hydrogen bomb.

First THEY tried it with the Suez crisis in the 50s, next they tried it with the Cuba crisis in the 60s. It finally dawned on THEM that to use nuclear weapons not only caused mass destruction of the infrastructure, but there was a danger that THEY themselves would not survive. Other methods were needed, something like a myxomatosis for humans. The attached presentation, created 25 years ago, has undergone several iterations losing some of the formatting and the links contained within it. This is just one of many presentations from an interactive CD. I noticed they were changing all doctors to hospitalists about 10 years ago. I knew they were up to something when private practice doctors could no longer come to the hospitals to see their patients. This was not for the benefit of the patient.

Dr. Mercola, you are one of the sane people who keeps me going each day. I think I would have given up by now if it weren't for people like you. I'm surrounded by brainwashed people, with only a few awake here and there. It's so painful to live with, especially when it's your loved ones, who think they know the world because they listen to mainstream propaganda and believe they know what's going on in the world and think that we are nut cases. This is happening in every family and there's something profoundly spiritual about that. It's almost like seeds were planted strategically or perhaps it's just that I see patterns. The only thing that keeps me going these days is checking in with awake people and knowing the spiritual reality behind all of it and that love, ultimately conquers all. The physical aspect of life on Earth is the challenge, and on a level that we've never known.

Rise up? Wake up. The land of the free, let alone the rest of the world it's always bombing somewhere, has been enslaved a long time to a social system reducing people to parts in the machinery of production, particularly as consumers whose only exercise of choice is in marketplaces controlled by monopoly capitalism, depoliticized of any sense of moral agency and responsibility as citizens (of the world). It's called the Amerikan Dream, because you have to be asleep to believe its lies. The bottom line is who controls resources and the means of existence.

The nightmare now unfolding on a prison planet climaxes a less than human history coincident with what's been called civilization by the victors of class war against the masses of us, whose labor and lives have been sacrificed for millennia, so the few can enjoy parasitical, predatory privileges of rule. Who any longer cares about class enough to do the hard work of creating communal and collective alternatives to such a social system as systemically starves our own kind?

Instead, we the people keep dutifully marching into courts for justice, or wherever ruling institutions of organized crime prevail, seeking solutions from the very sources of our problems. Or we rattle the bars of our digital cage, keyboard activists locked away in atomized alienation, ghosts in the machine. Rising up means no less than social revolution. But in a dog-eat-dog society, who remains to resist when organized solidarity for more egalitarian relations among us has disappeared?

Catlu1732

I've been asking for the last 3 years....what happened to the Nuremberg Code??!! And what happened to the Global or World Criminal Court (can't remember its exact name) court case, that an attorney in the UK filed against the cabal? Were they paid off as well? I have read of other doctors that had the same thing happen to them that Dr Nass had happen, but I'm not sure how their battle is going. Everything was already so depressing, that I didn't take notes on each of these people. Somehow I just thought they would go have their fake psych consult and then go back to practicing medicine.

I guess not. But I would like to know about them, and think someone should find them and introduce them to Dr Nass and the Door to Freedom website. My next thought was the little Hitler's in each government. We know Canada's little Hitler is Trudeau. There should be someone else in each government that should be told of what's going on, so they might save their country. I dream big don't I? I even thought Prince William (of the UK) could be told, even though they aren't truly in the law making government, surely their opinion must mean something?

The problem is, Prince William has recently joined forces with Jacinda Ardern, for his Earthshot project. He obviously doesn't know what she is. His father, King Charles, is embroiled in the World Economic Forum and a 'pal' of Klaus Schwab, spouting the same rhetoric. I'm undecided if he is part of the cabal, or if he is just naive. I used to admire his stand on environmental issues and his support of organic farming, but now with his joining forces with the WEF, I no longer support him. The royal family have such a sheltered and unusual life that they can be prey to influences the rest of us would have our guard up against.

I hope Charles is just naive, but that has yet to be substantiated. My feeling is that he can't be trusted. As for William, it seems to me he is just naive. The royal family are the last in line to reveal anything truthful about what's going on in the world. It would mean the end of them if they did but because they've been so sheltered, it's doubtful they would believe it anyway.

An outstanding article! Thank you! Thank you also for explaining the horrific position that our physicians are now in. If they actually practice good medicine, they will lose their licenses & no longer be able to treat ANYONE for anything, & we will lose access to good physicians! I suspect that many have privately decided to just do what they can, to work around the politicians' dictates of how they are allowed to treat US citizens. If they stay out of the political battle for control of medicine by Big Pharma & its politician puppets, they will be able to, at the least, treat some patients for some maladies. This is not actually a new development as physicians who successfully treat cancer have been under this threat for decades & many have been destroyed by having their licenses taken for curing hundreds of patients who would have died otherwise.

Both our legal system & our medical systems are being used AGAINST US citizens instead of protecting them. They will not improve unless the people take decisive action to OWN them for the benefit of ALL of us. To do that, we will need to restore our Constitutional Republic & insure that our accelerator process is honest, secure & elects actual REPRESENTATIVES OF THE PEOPLE, instead of a government chosen by those who count the vote.

"We need to pass new laws that eliminate all of these indemnifications so that we can retroactively take them to court for the crimes they've committed". NO !!!!! "WE" have all the laws we need, and then some. Laws reside in virtual reality and they are not worth the papers they are written on, WITHOUT the enforcement element (police) which resides in the physical reality. When the Founding Fathers realized that petitioning the government in a most humble way did not produce any results, George Washington petitioned the government by other means. Keep in mind that Biden or any other psychopathic entity WILL NOT knock on your door or ENFORCE any of the tyrannical "laws".

They will use the police force and even the military to enslave us. The police and the military come from among OUR RANKS. So, for all practical purposes, the "establishment" is not the problem. The second amendment is the "establishment's problem. Our problem is to get through education to the police force. Violating the oath of office is A FELONY with penalties all the way to treason. These laws ARE already in the books. So, do we need more laws or more friendly guns to enforce existing laws?

The Brevard County Republican Executive Committee just broke the dam on deadly mRNA Covid bioweapon fraud. It used to be that trends began in California. That's done. Because of the number of talented conservative thought leaders who moved to Florida to escape democrap cesspools in illinois, new york and california, Florida will be the new trendsetter state. The complete statement by the Republican leadership is a smashing indictment of the entire u.s. fraud government including the defense department and law enforcement agencies and the bulk of u.s. corporations and medical industry. "The committee's letter presents a list of shocking revelations against COVID and COVID-19 vaccines, arguing they were "biological and technological weapons" and that there is "strong and credible evidence" that they "alter human DNA." The letter claims that the COVID-19 pandemic and the subsequent vaccination campaign have been manipulated and misrepresented by government agencies, fake news media, and tech corporations.

It criticizes the mandates and restrictions placed by the Biden administration and argues against the safety and efficacy of the vaccines, alluding to a violation of the Nuremberg Code. The letter includes claims about the Pfizer vaccine's clinical data, suggesting it has caused thousands of adverse incidents and deaths." Dr. Mercola, Apologize no more for your use of the term “elites” The late GREAT American sociologist C.Wright Mills, of Columbia University, authored the term into popular existence with the publication of his most important work; “The Power Elite” back in 1956. There are numerous other volumes describing “ the elites” from highly regarded, reputable and celebrated authors over the last few centuries as well. Desmond Morris, Thorstein Veblen, Alvin Toffler, Ferdinand Lundberg, and a professor of President Bill Clinton; Dr. Carroll Quigley of Harvard and Georgetown to name but a few. Aldous Huxley wrote “Brave New World” in 1932 to warn us “plebes” about the coming maelstrom. Don't be intimidated by a few plebe readers who sound reasonable when they feign objection to the concept of elites. They know !!!

This isn't hard to figure out. It all goes back to them wanting to preserve as much oil, natural gas, and hydrogen for as long as possible. I've posted on this site about it several times. We stink at space travel, we can't leave earth orbit, and it turns the cabal into psychopaths, agents of evil, away from God/The Source/creator/Divine, whatever your definition. Keep your pineal gland decalcified and don't lose your spirituality. The Millennium Alliance for Humanity and the Biosphere (MAHB) reports that gas will be gone by the year 2060.

The MAHB also forecasts the end of oil will occur by 2052, and coal by 2090. How do they extend those timelines? Depopulation (that's number one), mass incarceration (another form of depopulation), 15-minute cities (another form of incarceration), debilitate populations with Frankenfoods, get them hooked on drugs (i.e. heroin) and debilitate and mass incarcerate that way, and you can figure out the rest. It's just logic. It's been right in front of our face since 9/11 and it went nuclear with the pandemic.

Every single agenda of the NWO goes back to this, whether it be geoengineering, the climate change narrative, scam/plandemics, poisons in everything, EMF, etc. Wake up your neighbors. If U.S. citizens still have constitutional rights, the people have to pay attention, or they can slowly be stripped away without them knowing. This link should terrify anybody, if you believe in freedom, love and a higher power. Pass it along: actualactivists.com/.../15-minute-city

The unlawful policies and regulations being fought in court after they have been implemented for some time are a strategy that allows them to ignore your rights. They would rather take the chance and apply these draconian policies and then face the consequences later in court. The verdict may be only a slap on the wrist for them and you broke. Deterring them from this strategy may become necessary. Court remedies may not be enough. The fear of poor public relations and reputation should be used against them so the weaponizing of these court battles is not what they would expect.

If they lose in court and can keep it from the public, they would consider that a win. But if it is used for marketing and public relations against them which could cause political provocation then they may think twice before implementing these policies and having to face the courts as a consequence. What will deter them from implanting these policies in the first place is the true issue. Possibly new laws proposed by those opposing or the next election candidacy, political strategies and new lobby groups.

I'm just as sceptical as Dr. Mercola, for different reasons, that nothing will be done to prevent WHO's takeover. However, WHO has no enforcing power to go after the nations that will not abide by the rules. So, it is inevitable that UN will have to get on the board sooner or later to exercise their authority. WHO is just an offshoot of UN anyways. There is a hidden agenda most don't realize yet. Guillermou, the history of Hippocratic Oath is obscured & badly needs clarification. Most stuff on the Internet is just regurgitation of general information. What is generally admitted is that the Oath resurfaced in Germany in Wittenberg in 1508 after being forgotten for 1500 years. It was translated into English in 1700's. It originated via various routes & sources like Aristophanes' play Women at the Thesmophoria. In 9th century it was translated into Arabic and Syriac. In 13th century pope John XXI integrated translations into various medical texts. Medieval forms were derived from various documents found in the Vatican Library codeces.

— www.scielo.br/j/bioet/a/hs97HyDW3bhdrfjS8vD73tK/?format=pdf&lang=e.. It is clear that the various forms of Oath were ALL of this Greco-Syrian-Arabic-Islamic-Jewish-Christian origin! ( Maimonides adopted a similar pro-life Jewish version.) With the various early Italian and French universities the Catholic Church was instrumental in founding hospitals and medical science and propagated this form of Oath. At some point in the 20th century there was a dramatic shift towards modifying and abolishing the Oath. — www.einsteinmed.edu/.../page41\_page44.pdf Before Covid it was concluded that Oath was loosing relevance, and new "humanitarian" interpretation emerged, which includes "dying with dignity" or euthanasia.

Oath is supposedly "paternalistic", not "art" anymore, just a "service rendered". Experts are implying that the "informed consent" is also outdated: "In the modern history, particularly in the Nazi era, scientists of the Schutzstaffel conducted experiments without informed consent. These doctors acted "according to the best of their ability and judgement." — www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/.../PMC6482690 It is very convenient for the Malthusian depopulation jammers to abolish the "culture of life" approach to medicine and substitute it with a money-making Nazi scheme of medicine!

At this point in time (2023), the evil cabal is largely transparent: "elite" operatives are essentially telling us what they plan to do. Nonetheless, many folks still can't hear or see and instead feel more comforted by criticizing ones who are attempting to circumvent a feudal-like disaster. I am beginning to lose my faith in "We the People." Mikki Willis' documentary, "The Great Awakening," was certainly encouraging to watch. However, the awakening he speaks of is regrettably not apparent in my area of the nation.

You are attempting to challenge belief systems. If a person loses their belief system, then it will cause mental trauma which the person will resist being put in that state of lostness. If you break their beliefs, you must also offer them some alternative or positive persuasion as well. Negative criticism must not be the end intent as they may resist making them feel this way. The upside of telling the truth, good judgement, transparency and standing up for one's self. It is what we teach our children is it not otherwise don't and see what happens to your kids.

It is hauntingly Stalinistic and unAmerican to pass laws and enforce them retroactively. We can get them with existing Fraud laws and I'm afraid we are limited to that under our completely broken, invaded, and captured system. Traditionally, wars break out when countries finally sense their imminent demise by foreign warlords.

The entire bottom line is that these insane megalomaniacs want us dead and gone. As populations grew and expanded and economic activity increased, these crooks made huge amounts of money on the backs of our spending and consumerism. Now these turds think that everything will stay the same after 6-7 billion people are erased from existence. It doesn't work that way. Economics and wealth creation are always subject to the forces of supply and demand and the growth of populations. Take a look around the world and you are hard pressed to find anyone in government with half the sense of a rock.

DrLizbeth

Nazified Globalist tyranny is dedicated to population reduction (Depopulation). Their agenda (UN, WHO, WEF) involves direct assault with bioweapons (i.e., genetic therapy pseudo-vaccines) that kill, injure and cause infertility; toxic compounds in water/food; climatism farce to decrease energy and food supply to create poverty and starve people; promotion of abortion and sexual "maleducation" (propaganda) of minors promoting "gender fluidity," trans sterility, debasement of human sexuality and getting rid of the traditional family and parental authority; promote acceptance of pedophilia; reconfiguration of the meaning of "human rights." It automatically denounces basic biology, religion and traditional morals. Excellent video interview of Dr. Rima Leibow by Alex Jones: madmaxworld.tv/watch
