Thanks, Cabochon, for that uplifting piece. Here's a wonderfully joyful rendition of Handel's Hallelujah chorus sung by the tabernacle choir. They look so happy and positive, it's hard not to feel joyful listening to this life-enhancing music. Let's celebrate Dr M's good news. We will NOT comply and we WILL be joyful in spite of four years of gloom. I would like my Substack contributions to go to a bona fide charity of Dr Mercola's choosing. Perhaps other readers would join me in donating their subscription to a needy cause - homelessness or a children's charity. If not possible, I will request a refund and choose a local charity. https://youtu.be/1Rf3WK_IJ1g

Thanks, epi-cure, for that link. I watched the "Emperor" in its entirety, so exquisitely beautiful, it's almost painful at times. Yes, Bernstein is literally jumping for joy! Who could fail to be inspired by these heavenly sounds? The spiritual element of our lives has been neglected for far too long. Also the human voice is also capable of great emotion and the expression of joy, Katy. Hallelujah! Three pieces of music that symbolise triumph over adversity and determination - surely - to celebrate, not destroy the gift of life.

It is a great satisfaction that Dr. Mercola is excited and hopeful to create joy with his great wisdom in books and research articles. We feel the joy today from the depths of our hearts. Happiness is covered with joy that favors balance between mind and body and allows us to recover from the great sources of health. Today our psychological well-being is related to emotions of joy and feelings of happiness.

Well, this is a red letter day indeed. True, I will be eternally grateful to be able to continue raising awareness by sending your links, but more importantly, the pursuit of joy is meaningful, momentous work. The thought leaders who speak to the idea that this is in fact why we are put on this earth, to pursue joy, are the ones whose philosophies have resonated the most with me. "Joie de vivre" has actually been my lifelong, unapologetic mission statement. A friend of mine once gave me a nickname of Joy for a middle name: Jill-Joy. Dr M, your recognition of JOY is profound during this time of reharmonization we seem to be in. I look forward to what you have next for us devoted followers.

Because of the persecution you have endured, this is actually a poignant moment for many of us. Joy can encompass poignancy and is perhaps empowered by it. I was devastated for you, Dr M, when you were victimized by unethical censorship prior to covid (my term) and then by criminal and slanderous attacks during this ongoing covid debacle. IMHO Pres. Biden should be pressed to issue an apology to you, and should present you with a Medal of Honor. I like to muse on how pursuing truth and optimism is the way to operate in spite of the forces of evil. Let's all show those who have been trying to dismantle US government from within for quite some time now how positive forces win out.

I propose we all go forward during this time creating rather than reacting - to cre-ate rather than re-act; there is more power there. We're familiar with the axiom of "what you resist, persists". So, something to think about -- don't fight them per se, but push our power into productivity of newer, greater approaches, and do it while maintaining a positive energy vibe. And now Dr M is bravely leading the way for us on how to do this. Bravo to a brave hero, whom history will record and recognize with highest esteem. You're on a Hero's Journey. Bravo, Dr M-Joy!

As a regular consumer of your products, and Mercola disciple, and we are the same age, I appreciate your realization. Maybe there's something about 70 that has that subtle impact. The way the world is going, we really have no control over its course, but individually we can exert control of ourselves. What we think. What we believe. How we behave. We can live with joy and the people surrounding us will know it. And, likewise find it infectious. Look forward to your book. - Corey

Does this have anything to do with the letter Conservative authors on Substack recently received from Stripe (their payment vendor and the only option available) that they MUST open their bank account they use to deposit paid subscriptions? Stripe and Substack are demanding this and they will then forward the information to the federal government. Dr. Malone posted about it (link below). Mercola does not want to put himself in that position and rightfully so. Malone has hired an attorney as he explains in the link. It is just a back door form of censorship and digital control. open.substack.com/pub/rwmalonemd/p/stripe-substack-demand-financial?r=..

Nothing short of earth or perhaps cosmos-shaking - Joy as a metric! Most of us understand metrics as units of measurement - for instance, inches or centimeters being metrics for length, or seconds and minutes being metrics for time. The profound paradigm shift here a cosmic hack perhaps that is being proposed by Dr. Mercola has the potential to transform human evolution in ways that most of us can neither imagine nor fully comprehend. On a biochemical level, the implications of an empirical dialectic of this magnitude and breadth are nuanced but clear: The amygdala, hippocampus, and limbic systems in our brain use neurotransmitters like dopamine, serotonin, 5-hydroxytryptophan, endorphins, and norepinephrine to create the synaptic unit of information transfer between states of happiness, joy, ecstasy, and sublime religious experience.

A number of functional medicine groups have been researching and operationalizing this phenomenon through neuroplastic genomic cell transfer. Where Dr. Mercola is going to take this paradigm one can only imagine and hope for. Someday, there will likely be a joy paradigm to release all of us from our existential spiritual bondage and free us to enter a state of fully enlightened synaptic light and energy transfer.

 HOORAY!!  I know I speak for all your readers when I offer a standing ovation for this development. Over the last few years, I have been dismayed by how many articles were about things OTHER than health, such as what is going on by people with an agenda - but I realized that this is one of the only places we can hear this information, so I did not complain. Thank you for your courage and your deep research. One other source that gives unvarnished truth, one I believe everyone should follow, is PragerU.com. Dennis Prager has also been vilified and had many "cancellation and deplatforming attempts" made because he speaks out against those trying to keep us from learning the truth.

I believe Dr. Mercola and Dennis Prager should both appear as interview guests on each other's videos. Their viewpoints are significantly different, approaching from different directions, but they have both arrived at the same conclusions: There are a LOT of people and agencies actively suppressing information, and the key to happiness is JOY! Keep up the great work, Dr. M!

One huge yes. Happiness is fleeting and can be a temporary distraction. Deep lived and felt Joy sets a foundation to approach and to address discomfort properly, and to pursue the integration of True Health. If one can find their 'Center,' Joy keeps the physical, mental, emotional and spiritual all working in concert in the best of times, in the most difficult of times. To find one's 'Center' the focus shifts to see what it is I need to do, what is it where We can work together and abandoning the attempt to accumulate Power and Control over others.

I wish this announcement explained what has changed since the time you were cyberattacked and now. Do you now have a more secure website that can defend against the attacks, or have you decided that since the Covid hysteria is over I, that you will not be attacked anymore? Perhaps you are saying that because your future content which is more directed at creating joy, will not generate the same amount of hostility from those that want to suppress your message? And offering to refund people's subscriptions almost reads like an admission that you never needed to make the move in the first place and now you are apologizing... I am a big fan of yours, but I find this post very confusing. I hope that you will reply.

You sound like a true "critical thinker" as they say... You are rightfully confused as it looks from comments on this article (look for comments by Cinnann, bng6515, and cow5815) that something did change. A new policy by Substack and Stripe put forth to conservative users like Dr. Mercola. They are attempting to get him and others to sign on to their exclusive banking operation, complete with more controls. Those who commented, informing us of the new policy, added a link to Dr. Malone's reaction to the same.

He never mentioned God or Jesus Christ. God is the Great Physician and no one else. I hope he is not getting into the new age stuff. He is correct that we need joy, But we need to remember where that joy and inner peace comes from, and that is from our Lord Jesus Christ. So please Dr. Mercola, give God the credit. It is the wisdom of God that gives us love, peace and joy and most of all salvation. I just pray Dr Mercola that you remember where your abilities come from and don't let pride get in your way.

Hi Almond: I would be VERY concerned if Dr. Mercola ran for or became politically involved in any way (running for a political office of any kind) as this would most definitely affect his wonderful endeavors to educate us in the area of health. Remember, it takes time to research a topic, time to think it through, more time to communicate in a way that people will be able to understand and apply the information and a whole lot more. Dr. Mercola needs to keep doing the wonderful work he is currently doing and YOU and I do the political "stuff", vote, run for office and whatever else that might need to be done. Be careful, as I am sure that there's "others" out there who would also be willing to do without Dr. Mercola's webpage BUT, for all the WRONG reasons. :)

True joy is found in Christ alone. There is no such thing as “your authentic truth”. This is something the devil would say to lead people from the truth. The only authentic truth comes from God. We cannot trust our own “internal compass” because it’s been corrupted by sin. I’ve followed Dr. Mercola for years and he has given great insight to medical issues for me and this shift to spiritual wellness is not a bad thing if it’s grounded in spiritual truth, so to this I say: do not listen to people who claim to know the truth apart from God, His Son Jesus and His Word, the Bible.

Go to the source of truth and joy. Don’t let that pure milk of truth be filtered and watered down. If you get the filtered version, just as Dr. Mercola has mentioned hundreds of times in his articles about certain corrupted foods (oils) and supplements, it will be very bad for you. I suspect he knows this but may be trying to cast a wide net to get more followers. Be very careful of these types. It’s almost cultic in its present form and every cult is a lie.

Dr. Mercola, my husband found your Website way back in 2016, I believe. As he learned, he shared it with me, and we transformed our lives and our children's lives. It has been quite the Journey, not always so easy to accept, but Empowering beyond what I can comprehend some days! We are forever grateful to you and your Passion for Truth and the desire to share it all. Our little famliy's lives were drastically changed last year on 3/30/23, when my husband was in a terrible car accident, and suffered a Mild Traumatic Brain Injury.

I believe with all my Heart that all his Health knowledge he has learned since 2016, Saved his Life and healed him. Our year continued with devastation after devastation. His Employer, BNSF Terminated him 6 months after the accident, not accepting his Madonnas Dr.s, Full Release. Then on 11/14/23, due to Fraud our home of 24 years was Sold on an Auction. Joy filled me and Saved me that day. However, after months of battling our completely corrupt Courts, 3 weeks ago, several Sheriff's showed up at our door.

25 years in our home, the 4 of us and one Angel of a friend, our cat and dog, were all forced off our property and locked out of our home. I will never be the same. There is no Justice and hardly any Honor left. But reading your words this morning, that you want to share Joy, gave me back a Sliver of Light and Hope, and Joy, in my darkness. Thank You Dr. Mercola, for being Honorable, no matter the cost. I would Hug you if I could! Judy

Wow, so happy for Dr. Mercola and us. We're in a spiritual transformation of astounding scope. It's equal in its enormousness to the control attempts by the powers that be. That is, it's f*%king unbelievable and incredibly real. This is a divine process and we're part of it. Woo-hoo!

Dear Dr. Mercola, I have never written a comment to anyone posting on the internet, but I'm so impressed with your selfless desire to help others find joy and health in their lives, I just had to thank you! While so many others are motivated primarily by money, you, I believe are motivated by a genuine desire to make the lives of those around happier and healthier, and so, make the world a better place to live. Sincerely, a friend

This is fabulous news for two reasons! One is that sometimes I missed an article that would have been really helpful to me and didn't get it downloaded in time! And the second is that while I could download an article, I couldn't get to the comments. There is some excellent content just from you wonderful commenters! So super happy! No more Dr. Mercola newsletter stress!

Granny on the warpath

I am so glad because I have seen articles that could help someone I knew and I would send them a message to "get it quick" before it disappeared. In today's world of expensive and unsafe prescription drugs, it's nice to know safer remedies and ways to improve and preserve one's health. Thank you Dr. Mercola for sharing your wisdom with us. My second favorite site is the Children's Health Defense and their work in exposing the ugliness of most of the vaccines on the market. It's up to us to read and teach others....

I am very happy to hear that your articles will now be freely available without time limitations. This, I believe often would prevent people taking the trouble to look at valuable health material. Your fine collation of others research, added to your own prodigious health experience and knowledge, again made widely available, I am sure, will cost the parasitic suppressors of human empowerment many more billions in sick care revenue. Not focusing too much on the negative, rather overwhelming evil with good, seems to be your life approach and I am personally grateful for your fantastic devotion to this axiom, and now, happy to see it more freely and easily available.

Hopefully the young, who are most in need of this life saving and enhancing knowledge will be to ones to especially benefit, with their (hopefully) long lives ahead of them. Educating and empowering parents, children, and other caregivers, will especially prevent unneeded future suffering including the financial calamity that it ensues. So, thanking you again for all that you do, and will do more powerfully than ever, I am certain. Arthur

Thank you for doing this Dr. Mercola. I was disappointed when the access was made limited and had a lot of negative opinions on the decision, however, you were being attacked, along with other folks in the dozen, and I understand, as a person who refused to take the clot shot and was suspended from work, that you just want to lay low. But it looks like people are fed up and if all goes well, November will set things on a better path. That being said to all people reading this including Dr. Mercola, we were unprepared for this, let's not be caught with our pants down the next time this happens, because it will happen again.

Sounds like an interest in ACIM (A Course in Miracles) book published in 1976...I remember reading in an interview of Dr. Mercola that he mentioned the book: Disappearance of the Universe which was a chanelled book helping explain ACIM which is quite difficult to read and understand. One of the main teachings is to follow inner guidance that we receive from spirit and feeling joy is a sign of being on the right path. Thanks, Dr. Mercola

Thank you so much for making your articles free again! One of the most life changing articles for me has been the one about low oxalate eating. Because of your article, I got the book, "Toxic Superfoods" by Sally K. Norton. Most of the symptoms I have had are from eating high oxalate foods. Simple changes in the selection of foods I considered healthy, aka fad foods, has made a big difference in the symptoms I was experiencing, such as skin rash, arthritis, urinary frequency, numbness and tingling, tooth breakage, and more. This is more of a life change than a simple fix. Also, I hope people or groups of people will begin to bring lawsuits against the media juggernaut for their deception and lies, and hiding the truth, in order to take them down. Thank you again for making your articles available for free!

I have been wondering when, and if this shift might occur in this space. Out with the head and in with the heart. Not that we don't take care of our bodies and our choices from the material physical world but it can come from a place of respect, love and joy rather than fear. Drumroll for Dr Mercola and some new people to talk to..... Michael Beckwith, Joe Dispenza, Eckhart Tolle, Bruce Lipton, Byron Katie and, and, and..... This is a very exciting time.....

You "know me" Dr. Mercola so I won't be redundant and speak to how much your guidance has helped me over the years, even saved my life. I don't need a substack refund; it was money well spent given I will seek your guidance until the day I leave this earth. Now I can share your articles again! Just keep teaching us, Dr. Mercola, as teaching is your truest calling and gift to all. And please do it like you used to do (no disrespect intended), in simple and understandable terms, article by article, until we fully understand and are thus empowered to make mindful decisions on our own behalf. Thank you for everything and for demonstrating the profound joy that can be found when one opens the mind to mental, physical, emotional, and spiritual growth and development. It truly is one way to make this world a better place. You are loved, Dr. Mercola, and your legacy will live on.

Dr. Mercola, I have great respect for the hard work that you've done over the decades to show people (primarily) the correct way to maintain optimal PHYSICAL health. And, I'll be the first to say that SPIRITUAL health, in comparison, is far more important in the big picture. BUT... there are already exist online many voices focusing primarily on spiritual health. What makes your website so valuable (IMO) is that it's [almost] the only one that isn't sold out to the big Pharma methodology. Thus, I'm hoping that your future content will STILL INCLUDE a significant percentage of purely PHYSICAL health information to go along with your new-found spiritual content? Hoping this is the case??? Thank you!!!

Great news and many thanks. The most valuable and practical advice from you has been your knowledge and experience with the use of dilute food grade hydrogen peroxide in a nebulizer. I would have never been exposed to such a simple and safe way of pathogen elimination without your published knowledge and information. Truly a revolutionary technique that can free us from the reliance on toxic and ineffectual drugs for respiratory disorders and beyond. That info alone is worth its weight in gold. Thanks again for all of your articles thru the years and may they continue to spread health, happiness and freedom for all.

I'm a pediatric nurse and my family/friends often come to me with health questions. I would always go to your library as my first source when it was easily accessible. What a brilliant idea. People do need empowering to make their own health decisions. I have said to family members vitamin suggestions that I know would help their condition but they don't take action, it has become one of my main frustrations and confusions that it doesn't matter what evidence I provide they think only their doctor can help their health, yet their doctor would not know the natural food and supplement based way. Joy to Dr Mercola and you all

I agree with the outcome, bravo, Dr. Mercola! However, the reason for the move to Substack has not disappeared, has it? Perhaps Dr. Mercola should leave his Substack account intact, just in case, for all our sakes. I would not want his articles to disappear, once again.

I imagine, Dr Mercola, that you will write about the story Dr Malone reported today regarding Stripe and Substack demanding financial details from authors, thus furthering the threat of a social credit system. Perhaps it won't apply to you but the larger question that looms is whether Substack will be diminished by this. Dr Malone writes, "Financial privacy is a right under the constitution, as is free speech. Under the guise of "credit review", Stripe is now rolling out a requirement that appears to target conservative or 'anti-vax' Substack authors." Looking forward to further info on that.

Oh man, am I ever so thankful!!! This is the best news I've heard since 2020! I love the idea of helping us toward joy and including all the ways we can achieve it. I have been having a really tough time lately. My severe intolerance to injustice has been taking hold of me this past week and it's got me so stressy that my eye has started twitching like in the cartoons. Seriously, Doc, this news has come at a really needed time for me. Well, for all of us. So, thank you! Big hugs to you and all those helping you and to your close ones. Meditation and being connected to nature has always worked for me - but the last three and a half years have just been so unbelievably unbearable. Wow - sounds like you made it to the other side of the dark night of the soul. I love it! Doesn't it feel like this is a time of awakening? Like a divine light has turned on and shown us the truth - and while the truth is shocking, now a great healing can finally take place - physically, mentally, emotionally, and spiritually. There is great empowerment in finally seeing the truth. You can't leave the prison if you don't see you're in one. It does no good to despair. It's time to bring in joy and love and a space for healing. Now that we can see how we've been manipulated we can finally take control of ourselves and help co-create a better existence. I think love/good always wins in the end - we wouldn't have it any other way!

"So do not seek fulfillment through material mediums, or through desires born of such contact. Seek the unconditioned, indestructible pure Bliss within yourself, and you will have found the ever-existing, ever-conscious, ever-new Joy - God. Unlike material pleasures, this joy is not an abstract quality of mind; it is the conscious, self-born, self-expressing quality of Spirit. Seek it and be comforted forever.

Dear Dr. Mercola: I can't express enough my admiration for you throughout the quarter of century That I have been following your articles. I am turning tomorrow in a 76-Year-old Senior not taking any medications for anything but vitamins and supplements that you have recommended throughout the years, and I follow religiously. So, I couldn't hope for a better present for my birthday than the today news of to continue enjoying your articles for free during my other quarter of century God Permit!!! In my other life back home, Cuba, I was a Dentist/ Orthodontist trained also in Orthognathic Surgery working in a hospital in Havana, but changing all of that for my daughter's freedom and my own wasn't easy in Canada with another language and weather, but very rewarding since I was exposed to Nutrition first time in my life teaching in College a Dental Hygiene Program and the rest is history!

Today, and thanks to that new knowledge that I acquired then, I am able to grow my high interest on metabolic process and the biochemistry behind all of them and the relationship of a whole nutrition, a healthy mouth and healthy body.

In short, I also want to express my gratitude for all I have learned in the last 25 years studying your articles, saving them during the cyberattacks to your site and best of all my family and I following your advises about the Pandemic!!! God bless you and give you so many more years in health and joy to share with us together with families and staff to keep the good work supporting your amazing job!!! This is exciting to read and seems like such a natural progression for Dr Mercola to direct his energies towards. It has likely been a goal of the corrupt institutions and 'powers that be' to sever the link people should have to their inner spirit so they become disconnected and more easily manipulated. If the root cause of so many illnesses is poor nutrition, then the root-root cause beneath all of that (like the article says) is likely a lack of connection to our spirit which could empower us to make better decisions and be stronger people. I applaud Dr Mercola for this as I know a lot of people are highly developed and have got things together (and I have so much respect for those that do), but some of us struggle with things so I very much look forward to learning from Dr Mercola's perspectives on these topics.

Besides the fact that I will get to read the articles now, I am also glad because when I would open up a restricted email the graphics would make me feel dizzy. I had no way of knowing which would be restricted and so it was bizarre to have that awful bright and crazy warning about being restricted pop up, and I'd close it as fast as possible. I was becoming gun shy about opening up emails from Dr. Mercola because of this.

Thanks so much! No refund will be requested from Substack! As I recall, wasn't all of those funds donated anyway. I've followed Dr. M. almost since the beginning. I have learned so much that has made my life better. Also, I'm looking forward, when reading the older articles, to seeing the comments by our beloved Stanley Becker again! I missed his comments, which would have been abundant, during the COVID debacle! He would have had so much additional wisdom to add to the articles during those hard days!

I'm following you since the very beginning of your practice. Your health information helped me to make decisions and overcome several difficult issues, when there was no one else to give ideas, advice, answers. I very much value your investigating, learning, writing down and sharing what you found, and especially your openness and honesty admitting that sometimes you made the wrong decisions and are now advising differently. To now let the natural power of JOY be part of healing, makes me very curious as to what deep inner process you went through. Feeling joy in our lives, our natural response to being alive and enjoying the moment, will raise our energy and power to heal, and the energy vibrations on the planet.

As Cliffe Knechtle puts it "I'm just a beggar telling other beggars where to find food" or in this case health and I know that Cliffe puts no faith in chance or to gamble unwisely. Please note going forwards the savings to the health care system because of this.

Dr. Mercola, this song came to my mind when I read today's article about your new endeavors. Below is the chorus to "These Days" by Singer/Songwriter Jeremy Camp "I believe that you and I Are in the right place, at the right time God called us by name And He doesn't make mistakes I know we were born to shine bright In a dark world that needed some light Don't have to be afraid Maybe we were made for these days Maybe we were made for these days" God's timing is perfect. God bless you, Dr. Mercola!

I am smiling from ear to ear. I'm filled with joy and happiness. This is such good news. I just pray that so many more around the World will find this website and learn about health. Thank you to Dr. Mercola for all he has done for us over the years. I worked for a medical Dr. who's thoughts were lets find a way to solve the problem rather than putting a band aid on it with medication. Plus my paternal grandfather was all into Natural health and I had a maternal great grandfather physician and two great uncles that were Naturopaths. But I have learned a mountain of info from Dr. Mercola and am passing it on to my own children. Thank you again Dr. Mercola.

I suppose this is about Stripe/Substack demanding financial account details from authors. Maybe Dr. Mercola received a letter from Stripe demanding to link his bank account to his Stripe account. This apparently happened to Dr. Malone. rwmalonemd.substack.com/p/stripe-substack-demand-financial?utm_source=..

That's AWESOME NEWS! my own journey into Chinese medicine, nutrition, meditation, chi-gung, fitness and all aspects of natural health and healing 42 years ago, back when people would take 2 steps away from you if you told them you believed in herbs and natural cures inner drugs and surgery, led me to help scores of people in person before the Internet to writing articles & blogs for Natural News, to my own website, teaching in person, creating my health and fitness video and more. I found Mercola back in 2006 and both site & Natural News have further expanded my own knowledge gained from scores of books, what I was taught by my old school gungfu masters, other like minded people and much more.

Thanks for your decades of efforts, fantastic articles and information to help relieve suffering and misery that the EVIL of Rockefeller medicine has inflicted & continues to inflict upon a SADLY DECEIVED WORLD, most of whom are WILLINGLY deceived & don't WANT to learn truth but prefer to rely on doctors & drugs, a psychological truth that continually blows my mind! The Bible called such deception at the end being led by Pharmakia (sorcery Rev 18.23) Sadly the great majority of people don't want truth but comfortable lies which the Bible predicted would be a major characteristic of end time humans.

But as we know, you can lead a horse to water but... Well you know the rest. Fortunately the COVID pandemic has a Woken up MILLIONS of people to the lies of Fauci, big Pharma and made millions of people realize that Alex Jones decades is warning about planned pandemics, police State shutdowns etc all were correct.. But that was JUST a Live Exercise as Mike Pompeo said live in AIR in a news conference in Feb 2020. It's great that your information will once again be available to all and archived at well. Thanks for the refund to lol. rumble.com/vfnlnb-rockefeller-how-one-man-took-down-america-and-controls-medicine-and-media.html

This is great news. Usually, I was able to read or download an article in time before it was taken down, but so many times I was too busy and missed them. Plus, when I posted a comment with a general question, commenters may not have been able to respond before the 48 hour limit. A lot of valuable information may have been lost because of this restriction. Finally, when I shared the articles by email, many times friends would tell me that they couldn't access it because it had already been taken down. So I stopped sending them, which was unfortunate. I'm very happy that I can now share these important articles with friends.

Thank you so much for opening your archives once again to the public - it has been missed! I hope one day you will incorporate AI into your vast library to zero in on instant solutions to so many ailments and the many diseases from modern day chemical poisonings and processed food, and the lack of affordable organics for the masses. And thank you for all your effort and life altering and yes- life saving data you have shared with us sir. Your work on our behalf has helped millions to stay healthy and recover from disease by focusing on the cause and prevention utilizing education.

Thank you for the high quality and verified processes and ingredients inside all your products as a result of your personal due diligence in verification of ingredients and the best manufacturing process, resulting in second to none - high quality products and at affordable to the public pricing. You have single handedly crushed big pharma corruption and also helped many vaxed and non vaxed deal with purging or preventing with the covid crisis. Much respect and my best regards to you DR. Thankyou Dr. Mercola! Always on par, you have proven your genuine care for all, over and over throughout the years! It will be great to be able to search your immensely valuable articles topically, again, which will definitely make it far easier to do research for self and for others less willing to do so on their own, as needs arise. I have also referred countless folks to your website and newsletter over the years, hoping to help them become more savvy by tapping your wonderful resources, and this recent period of lack of topical searchability (without joining your Substack) has always been a limitation for what they would achieve in taking charge of their health. THANK YOU Dr. Mercola! Some of us are on very limited budgets through no fault of our own & sharing your information with others could not always be done in a timely manner & was often unsuccessful. Also it appears to me, from what Dr. Monroe recently wrote, that substack has been hijacked to be used to control who & what is posted there, in order to censor information to the public, as well as the exchange of ideas & discoveries. We desperately need other platforms for important information exchange. Those platforms will be subject to attacks as long as we allow these enemies of our Nation, & its citizens, power in our society. Please take care.

Thank you Dr. M for again putting your articles in a free space! Subscription prices are really what's breaking the middle class right now! $9.99 for a Substack subscription just to get real world and medical news (and non-establishment opinions) is just not affordable for most people. That pricing is elitist, ridiculous and greedy and is ensuring that the 99% continue to be fed State run propaganda. Also, when you put your knowledge out there for free (or affordable), people feel more confident that your goal is in helping others and raising the enlightenment of the world :0).

Who would have the motive to hack Mercola.com? That's the looming question and the most likely answers are someone, some organization, that found Mercola.com to be a problem for them. It's reason enough to read every word of every post. While the scientific jargon is often over my head, it's obviously offered to add credibility and legitimacy for anyone able to interpret. Thanks Doc, for all you do, for having the temerity to question orthodoxy.

It wasn't just the website that was a problem for "them", it was Mercola himself. He (not just the website) was named #1 on the "Disinformation Dozen" list published by the dark money group CCDH. Good luck to anyone trying to find out who's really behind that group; they're good at covering their tracks. Agreed that the mainstream power players' fear of what Mercola says makes it clear that he's exactly who we should be paying attention to!

Dear Dr. Mercola I have been following you for over 20 years and have always found you ahead of the curve. You have done, and continue to do, so much good. Your new emphasis on Joy is wonderful, and so deeply true. As a new Christian I can attest that joy comes in my life by surrendering to Our Blessed Lord. Combine that with your information on how to stay healthy and this is a very winning combination!!! God bless you

Good for you, Dr. Mercola!! I'm ecstatic about this turn of events and the wisdom you can direct us to. Last year, as a newly retired nurse, I started investigating how to set up my own coaching for those who truly needed a new perspective. I was going to name it Spirit, Mind and Body. Unfortunately I found myself quite lacking in expertise to reach out and found that there were so many out there giving advice. I just didn't think little ole me could make the impact I wanted, no matter how passionate I felt about it. I thought of subjects like abundant life, control, patience, trust, solitude, as well as the things that made my stressed out life become manageable. Best of luck and thank you so much for being you!!!

In deepest gratitude for EVERYTHING you do, have done and will do and all the many paths you've taken to educate, enlighten and enrich our lives everyday, year in, year out. Your mission to better the lives of everyone you can reach is humbling and inspiring - a very very rare endeavor in this world. And, BTW, thank you for the range of topics you bring. In addition to Joy...knowledge of the world directs our energy toward creative mitigations that also provide a personal sense of power, autonomy, discernment along with a cascade of other benefits. Also, BTW, from personal experience (25 years dealing with undiagnosed chronic Lyme, living in the darkest of places), there's a profound nexus between true health and effortless joy. They seem to walk hand in hand, which may attest to the impact of a targeted diet and supplement plan on mental - and physical - health. Again, thank you for it all.

Much of my knowledge and my success losing 25+ lbs in the last year has come from Dr. Mercola and I thank him for that. I was a sceptic of the pandemic from the very beginning after reading many of Dr. Mercola's articles and after watching the Plandemic movie that certainly solidified it for me. Unfortunately I missed some articles that had been sent to Substack however, I was able to save the PDFs of many articles and I'm happy I can now access them much longer. The in depth content of his articles is nothing short of amazing. Canada like many countries is in a sorry state with the current Liberal government led by the infamous Justin Trudeau.

My husband and I were at a customer appreciation event this past weekend courtesy of our organic meat supplier. They took us on a tour of the traditional 9th generation beef farm that provides their beef and to those interested to see that this type of farming still exists (I'll provide the link) even though our government is making it more and more difficult for them to survive. We met a couple there whose 50 year old brother had a stroke last year. The Canadian government is pushing MAID on the family. It's currently a sad world out there but with people like Dr. Mercola it gives us hope. We are currently fighting the installation of a smart water meter that will replace the analog one that our city in Ontario is mandating.

I credit Dr. Mercola for one of his past articles on the dangers of smart meters and the EMFs that they emit. I am just amazed at the attitude of people out there after one of our Facebook comments on the City's post regarding the installation. If you question one thing we get called conspiracy theorists, morons etc! I admit I have enough EMFs in my home with cell phones, wifi, etc but I can turn those devices off if I choose but with a smart meter it's 24/7. Here's the link I mentioned on the beef farm:

Dr Mercola, When you first came out you said you wanted to have the most successful website for health. You were speaking in Oregon and I flew up to see you and we briefly met. I just retired two years ago from 41 years as a general dentist. Can't tell you how many of my patients benefitted from your newsletters over the years as I printed many of them. I was a subscriber for a long time, but eventually stopped subscribing and, instead, downloaded all Mercola articles into PDF form and saved them into a folder on my tablet, as well as printed out all of them and put them in a binder, in the event that, somehow, those saved on my tablet might mysteriously disappear. I'm ALL IN for all your articles about finding JOY and retaining it, as I believe that is truly the answer to good health, both mentally and physically. I have followed you for decades and I owe my health and the confidence to make my own choices concerning it, to you, Dr M. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for your guidance during covid, I know it was at great personal risk that you continued to inform all who would listen and read. Your new approach is going to be awesome- it brings to mind one of the late Wayne Dyer's famous quotes: "Passion is a feeling that tells you: this is the right thing to do. Nothing can stand in my way. It doesn't matter what anyone else says. This feeling is so good that it cannot be ignored. I'm going to follow my bliss and act upon this glorious sensation of JOY." I feel blessed today - your spirit has helped mine. I have followed you for years and always trusted this source of information. I hope that it does not stop. As both a coach and psychotherapist, spirit and soul are very important in helping people to step into who they were meant to be. How we choose to give of ourselves as we gain more knowledge about ourselves is so important. Living in this messy world, we need more people who are being themselves. Many thanks for being there as a respectable source of information over the years.

Loving this new direction you're heading in, Dr. Mercola! Although my reach is a tiny fraction of yours, when working with my clients I have found cultivating joy and helping them to remember the innate wisdom of their bodies and the power of their minds is vital to healing. We are each powerful co-creators of our own realities. When we reconnect to the part of ourselves that knows we are an eternal soul and an individuated spark of the Divine Creator, we can create a truly magical life for ourselves

THANK YOU!!! I discovered you somewhere around 2000 or 2001 and have been at a loss since your articles aren't easily accessible. My folder for you on my computer is packed with pdf's and I wondered how long I could keep that up. Some things you've suggested just do not work for me. [Gross alert: Take baking soda, for instance: I threw up my food in the shower because that knocked back my stomach acid too much. I did not take it with a meal.] So, YES! INTUITION. I DO go by that now. "... the joy of the Lord is your strength." Nehemiah 8:10 "When the Lord brought back the captivity of Zion, we were like those who dream. Then our mouth was filled with laughter..." Psalm 126:1-2a

Thank you for making the articles more accessible. I was pondering how public airwaves were required to have news available for the public. But now those outlets are not trustworthy. Thus, to get truth about current events we must find sources - and that costs money. On fixed income it is prohibitive to pay multiple subscription fees.

I guess a lot of censorship has been reduced, now that the public can't be sold on as many covid "vaccinations". To be sure however, "the powers that be" [TPTB] have some sensitive areas that journalists and truth expose people can be censored for. That would probably include in-depth investigation into skyrocketing all-cause mortality, and other health and non-health topics.

Hurray! I never thought I'd see this day. I too have been saving PDFs of your articles for the past couple of years. This is great news Dr Mercola. I have always looked to Jesus to guide me to good health and He led me to your site back in 2000. Today at 72 I lead a healthier life with zero pharma. I thank you for this good news and pray God's blessing on your life.

Dear Dr. Mercola, I have read your daily blog for many years and have followed much of the advice contained in your essays and reports. This is the first time I have responded to your daily posting. It is only fitting that my first response is to send you a very simple yet sincere, Thank You for all the help your information have given me over the years. Reading today's blog informing your readers about the availability of your entire archive is very much appreciated and is valued but reading your philosophy and distinction between Joy and Happiness struck a chord deep inside me. Tank You again, Richard Szymkowski

I am ecstatic that you are in this place of celebration. I have followed you for all the years you have been online (I am 66 yrs. young). Although appreciated, I do not need a refund of subscription fees. I have gotten more than my money's worth, as well as all of my patients that I direct to your website and substack. May your blessings and gift of knowledge to us be multiplied by the millions in what you have given to humanity. You have been and remain my number one go-to source for health information. You have weathered a horrific chapter in our history; may your future outshine all of your hopes and dreams.

THANK YOU Dr. Mercola! I've read you daily for over a decade, and was sad when I couldn't access past articles because I couldn't afford to subscribe. And with all the horrific unfoldments of the past few years I have tried to stay informed (as best I could under the eyes of Big Brother) while simultaneously trying to keep my heart open. No matter the circumstances, Love is always available inside, through the heart when it is connected to the Oneness. A Sufi master said "People think Love is an emotion, but Love is the greatest power in creation". Living in this awareness has helped me remember that Light dispels darkness, and even if it's just within me, I can at least shine that little light from my heart.

Guaranteed Dr. Mercola has cost the Globalist world control bankster cabal more than $100-Billion esp ungoing in its geometric progressive snowballing effect growing daily as people like myself who have lived and promoted healthy natural lifestyle for over 55yrs as being important...! Of course not worldwide to start with tho since being online in 09 have written somewhere's around 50,000 comments in on political insights, Christ & Scriptural knowledge, true + important history, true science, health & nutrition info, naturalistic lifestyle & prepping, various building projects, various hobby's of need to know things for indepentent thinkers esp rural/wilderness reality's, defense concerns & info....all which is getting far more popular for down to to Earth independent thinking & living more and more now lifted above dependent urban/city helplessness as somehow a smart valid lifestyle to embrace...! 0oops did I say something wrong...lol

I am truly stunned, nearly speechless. I never imagined a time I would be able to search Mercola freely again. I used to join substack, only as and when I really needed to, and only for a month at a time. I am a retiree - all I can say is thank you, thank you, thank you. On a different track, your "joy" is the third of four sublime states of being the aspirant to transcendence of the worldly realm must attain to on the path to deliverance, the others being (1) loving kindness (metta), (2) compassion (karuna), and (4) equanimity(upekka). Preceded by 1 & 2, and together with them, the perfection of the 3rd, "empathetic joy", leads to the 4th. Dr. Mercola, I always knew you had 1 & 2 in spades. You've now recognized the importance of the third, which is essential for the attainment of the 4th. I wish you loads of joy on your pilgrimage to God. www.youtube.com/watch .

I read a few comments..which can be summarized "Hip hip hooray" But to me.. It's just herd speak.. You are going to make your content FREE.. & available when readers want to read it. OK .. good You want joy & spirit to be involved in your health OK I will add (whatever that means?) You are writing 12 books? For me I like your general approach. And there are many with similar approaches. The goal for me is WHAT works & WHAT doesn't. And more importantly WHAT IS THE GOAL? Often we have health fanatic spouting health advice who aren't healthy themselves, don't look healthy, don't know what healthy is. So I liked a few statements you made, but most of it was garble..

Where are the articles before 2021 ? These were the good one. Not much interesting since then.

LOL, warrriormum. That was the perfect riposte and made me chuckle heartily! I have to agree with Dr Mercola regarding the difference between happiness and joy and dare I suggest (as a non-American) that "the pursuit of happiness" is a flawed concept, the attainment of contentment being the highest and most joyful of all human endeavours. Thank you to Dr Mercola for his courage and integrity in the face of such adversity and for so generously providing some of the most helpful, honest, and insightful health advice I have ever received.
